"How 'bout it, halcy, can we still fight?"

MIDWESTCON IMPRESSIONS : 28-30 JUNE

FRIDAY NIGHT : BOB TUCKER remorselessly punning & wisecracking by the side of the North Plaza pool as the rain began to fall...BT solemnly handing me a present which turned out to be a piece of plastic fabric fallen from the Tucker-sanctified chair...MZB, STEVE/DAVID BRADLEY & I gorging ourselves on an eat-all-you-can seafood dinner at the local Howard Johnson's, and snickering at the memory of Don Ford who'd warned us against the place...Reva "Bat" Smiley and her solemn insistence, at the Chicago suite party, that cryptography enthusiasts constitute an Other Fandom...BOB LEMAN and his Electric Deadpanhumor...ED HAM-ILTON & LEIGH BRACKETT being goshwowed over by MZB, Steve/David and others...LEMAN deadpanly insisting that Dorcas Bagby was real and recently dead at the asylum...The kindness of IEE ANNE (Tremper) LAVELL and husband JIM who (with two other club fans) helped me back to my motel room when I was too ataxic to walk unaided...

SATURDAY : DON FORD's enthusiastic camerawork around poolside...LEMAN...TED COGSWELL, in brief swimsuit & dark glasses, looking like a H<sup>2</sup>wood star incognito...LARRY McCOMBS, scarcely recognizable so deeply tanned, at poolside...MAILARDI & BOWERS distributing DOUBLE BILL...COULSONS arriving to goshwows, in as happy a mood as I've ever seen them, and passing out YANDRO...EARL KEMP, practically radiant, with an armful of CHICON PROCEEDINGS, autographing my copy "with much thanks"...and being trailed by G.W.PRICE and his checklist of fen entitled to pick up their copies there...BILL CONNER from der voodwork oudt, withal the only bad blotch on the con memory, but looking less like a racist than like an unsuccessful shoe-store clerk trying to Live It Up at a resort town...MZB in a black formfitting swimsuit, with MZB FOR TAFF on a paper pinned to it ((better luck nexttime, Marion)), and getting photo'd ("Say cheesecake!")...Plans to have MZB FOR TAFF matchbooks distributed at the DisCon...BT confiding in me about various similarities in our backgrounds, and giving me practical downtoearth suggestions about plotting...DON FORD's older son, a flashy & graceful swimmer, and a coin collector...WCOAST "TYRANNICAL" AL LEWIS, incharacter...BHH giving out W.WEEFOOT WEBER FOR TAFF matchbooks...Some local clubfanne, who KNEW she had a sexy pair of legs...Joint signing of a loc to DOUBLE BILL by the "Society for the Prevention of Dissemination of Billsh*t", and characterizing as b.s. a Dave Locke remark that "most men prefer to marry a virgin, or at least a woman who has not had sexual intercourse with anyone else"--signers included BT, LEMAN, MZB, KEMP, yhos, McCOMBS, LEWIS, O'MEARA, L. J. GRANT, PAVLAT, MADLE, among others...MARK PATTERSON, 10-year-old son of DR MARY MARTIN (buyer of Hal Clement Mesklin models at Pittcon for $101), and the new swimming stroke he'd invented...BT mc'ing the dinner meeting in the private diningroom of David's Buffet, smörgåsbord place at 10784 Reading Road, Evendale (a few miles north of the N. Plaza, & highly recommended)...Rival TAFF plugs by MZB, & by BHH or someone for Wally...Westercon/Pacificon II party, drinks provided by Donaho & Co. ...Escapees from the too-smoky party foregathering in a corner of the N.Plaza's cavernous basement, applauding JUANI TA COULSON's folksinging & MZB's Tolkien songs... CGSWELL & LEMAN knowledgeably discussing coins with me...

SUNDAY : Chili lunch made & served by EARL KEMP in his room...Kids pushing BT into the pool...STEVE & MARK's games with cylindrical ice "cubes", retrieving them from the pool before melting--tossing them back & forth...Kids' frantic efforts to retrieve a half dollar from the pool bottom...Long bullsession with BT, IEMAN, COGSWELL, MZB, &c. ...STEVE & I filling a 2½ cu.ft. icechest (for milk & softdrinks on the ensuing trip to NY) with those "cubes" from the free ice dispenser in the N.Plaza basement, nearly emptying the dispenser in the process, and nonchalantly walking out while wondering if our arms or the icechest would give way first...BT's goodbye to MARION, "Don't you remember? It was only last week you were in the kitchen with me in Heyworth, and it'll only be another week or so till you pass through again--never say goodbye, only say Till Next Week"...

TRUTH WILL OUT DEPT.: Nonrecipients of FANAC 91 & 92 may address their complaints to Don Fitch; he has the copies, and has had for many months. Other delays are my responsibility; that of this spring and summer is attributable to prolonged illness, eventually diagnosed as temporal lobe epilepsy (from a bit of scar tissue on that part of my brain, a gift of the U.S.Air Force in December 1946). Medication has it partly under control. § CAUSA LATET, VIS EST NOTISSIMA (Ovid, Met. IV, 287): The rumors of marriages breaking up are with us this year as always, but this time something needs to be said. The Busbies have officially & categorically denied any such rumor about them, and let us hope that this is the last we will hear about that. Jack Harness is not even married, so the similar rumor about him is ridiculous--its basis seems to be that he broke off with his fiancée, Louise Petty. As for MZB, however, this much is true: she is leaving her husband and moving to the BAarea as soon as she graduates from Hardin-Simmons University, late Jan. or early Feb. 1964; she will be enrolling in Univ. of Calif. as a graduate student. § SLIGHTLY PINK FACE DEPT.: The report in FANAC 93 about the Locke death hoax was the opinion pretty much current in fandom at the time when I stenciled that issue. Since then it has developed that Plott honestly believed the report of Locke's death when it came to him; he was in no way deliberately involved with the hoax, knowing it to be such. My apologies to him, but not to Locke. As for DL's recent claims in Shadow FAPA and elsewhere that I deliberately and maliciously circulated a false report, these claims are untrue and testify only to Locke's willingness to believe evil of others: Scotty Neilsen, MZB and now your humble obed't serv't. § The reports that the award presented at the DisCon by Hal Clement to Sturgeon (accepted on Ted's behalf by Forry) was a hoax or gag of some kind are untrue; the award emanates from SMOF, which actually exists.

ATTENTION, RQNEL : Several fans have wanted to know where they could find copies of Jack Jardine's (aka "Harry Barstead"'s) LESBO LODGE short of sending 75¢ to Private Edition Books, 10539 Burbank Blvd, N.Hollywood. Newsstands in SF & NY mostly don't carry it, though a few copies have been available via Pan-Graphic Press, 693 Mission, San Francisco. But LESBO LODGE, despite its reverse Tuckerizing of various LASFans, has to take a back seat to PAJAMA PARTY by "Peggy Swenson". This is one MZB's Checklist would dismiss as "scv"; it details the adventures of five luscious femmes in a no-boys-allowed weekend party, in & out of bed, bath & pool--femmes named Shirley Burbee, Ruth Johnson, Joan Eney, Caroline Lee; and the 5th, Myra Holt, has a house in Westwood ~~17774~~ and a boyfriend named Eric Moomaw. Whoever "Peggy Swenson" is, he--it has to be a man--is evidently familiar with the FANTASY AMATEUR. :: Do I get to share the 1964 Fanquet with Alva Rogers & TAJ? F&SF is shortly printing a book review by me; it pans the pb version of the Jung & Kerényi Essays on a Science of Mythology, while showing the relevance of Jungian archetypes to SF. And apropos of archetypes:

HUGO WINNER The Man in the High Castle has the I Ching or Book of Changes (one of the Chinese Five Classics", the oracles of Kwan Yin, the Chinese avatar of the Great Mother Goddess, one of the greatest of the archetypes) as its real heroine. Avram's review in F&SF 6/63 (ish due for fame for the MZB/Juanita Coulson Another Rib, which deserves Hugo nomination) only tickles the surface. Though skeptics might scorn I Ching as Chinese numerology, it has a most uncanny way of giving appropriate replies. Interested fans should look up the 1-vol. reprint of the Baynes/Wilhelm transl. ($7.50, Pantheon or better bookstores); don't bother with Legge's cruddy translation--Legge admitted to neither understanding nor caring about it.

FANAC GOES TO A WEDDING : Midnight, June 7-8, two local fringers from the Sandy Cutrell /KPFA/Reed College folknik/SF clubfan crowd—Cathy Adams & Larry Shaw (one of several in the Barea, apparently unrelated to the AXMen) wedded each other atop a candlelit tree-covered hill in Mt. Diablo State park, in a Druid ceremony, complete with rhymed invocations to the Great Mother Goddess (~~rehearsed~~ & written by an anthropologist friend), mutual promises to love & honor but not necessarily to obey, and—in line with tradition—much singing, folkdancing, improvised dancing to recorder & drums; white wedding cake in the form of a 5-pointed star, and enough champagne and assorted foods for about 75-80 guests, including Tom Condit, Dennis Crain, and others. Many were cloaked and some even wreathed. It began as a joke, more or less, but most got into the spirit of the occasion, many discussing the ancient religion and its survival in European witch cults. I got into some kind of contact high and—not knowing what I was going to say—began to make prophecies, most of which have come true or are in process of coming true. (It remains to be seen whether—as I then predicted—one more ceremony of similar sort will take place in 1964 in the same place.) Festivities continued until dawn, including at least the preliminaries to fertility rites, on blankets thoughtfully provided for guests so inclined.

LIFE'S CHICON PHOTOS--only a few of which appeared in Kemp's "Proceedings" book--are available; write Barbara Barrett, LIFE, Time & Life Bldg., Rockefeller Center, NYC 20. They are free, and come as 8x10 glossies. Only kickers: (1) you have to specify the exact photos you want, naming the individuals pictured; (2) they cannot be published in any form without special arrangement with LIFE. They may take several weeks or months to arrive, but they are worth it. They are a valuable complement to Jay Kay Klein's Chicon Annual photos.

AGBERG DEPT.: He says he expects to go on doing 3 or 4 SF shorts per year, as the mood strikes him. But his archaeology kick continues: Empires in the Dust (Chilton), and a bio of archaeologist Austen Henry Layard (Holt Rinehart & Winston) are under contract, along with one about the 1906 SF (San Francisco that is) quake. (I don't know about you out there, but I find at least as much S o W in 3000-year-old Minoan seal-stones and the like as in mint Gernsback AMZs; apparently so does Agberg.) But as FAPA people know, in Feb 62 his Lost Cities & Vanished Civilizations was picked as the March selection of the Literary Guild, Young Adults Div., and a flood of contracts for other nonfiction books, mostly on archaeological topics, has kept Agberg up to his ears in work. (The Lost Cities book is to be reprinted by Bantam in pb and possibly has been by now.) Last I heard, he was working on a bio of Ikhnaton (sp?), the monotheist monarch; probable pubdate spring '64. Congrats to One Of Our Own for making it into the big time, and I wonder how closely his history has borne out the predictions in Tucker's VANDALS OF THE VOID (VOID 22).

THE SILLY SEASON REVISITED (hi, Tyrannical Al): LASFS, 1334th meeting, 22 March 63, nominated Famous Monsters of Filmland for the Hugo. § And at the 1345th meeting, 23 May 63, LASFS moved, seconded & passed that the Treasurer (Ed Baker) is a Chowderhead (whether fish, clam or corn was not specified), and is to be referred to henceforth solely as "Chowderhead" in all official club records. (Did you find the word in your Esperanto dictionary, Ejobo?) § "G.Clifford Prout", the Garry Moore Show writer who started SINA, must be sleeping poorly o' nights with a conscience burdened by what he started. From a <sup>hoax</sup> it has become a deadly serious crackpot group just big enough to start trouble. I have seen <sup>onset</sup> throwaways its representatives picketing BBDO and NY Telephone Co. bldgs are passing out (courtesy NY Fandom's Den Mother, Esther Davis) and I am not amused. The phone co. ordered SINA to install extra equipment (at high cost) to handle an alleged 1000 incoming calls/day; SINA refused and the phone co. disconnected service despite prior payment--hence the pickets, who seek to get people to break the Phone Habit (y'hear, Andy Silverberg?). They claim dogs are being used in assembly lines, outdoing some humans in brains as well as moral sense. They also attack BBDO partly for its phone co. ads, partly for various other unsavory practices which cannot be repeated here lest libel suit be instituted. As of 6 Sept. 63, a SINA picket claimed that the group has almost unlimited funds and a "vast organization sworn to secrecy"; as of 1 Oct 63, SINA was to begin picketing BBDO branch offices in USA's 12 largest cities, and a boycott of BBDO-advertised products in the 48 largest cities.

THIS TAFF MESS (or, BETTER LUCK NEXTIME, MARION) : TAFF balloting, acts Ellik, Bennett and various others, gave Wally Weber 38 British and 165 American votes, total 203, entitling him to a trip to Peterborough. Runner-up is Marion Bradley, with 47 British and 118 American votes, total 165; third is Bruce Pelz, with 40 British and 89 American votes, total 129. This was WWW's 2nd TAFF try, his first being in 1956 when Iesh won but declined the $, going on her own funds instead. Bentcliffe was the first fan to make a similar comeback; in 1955 he was one of five alserans in the race won by Ken Bulmer, and in 1960 he livened the Pittcon via TAFF.

EVERYBODY'S GETTING INTO DA ACT Dept.: Aside from the "Morgan Ives" novels, by an internationally honored fan, and Jack Jardine's LESBO LODGE, and "Peggy Swenson"'s PAJAMA PARTY, we find REDD BOGGS collaborating with Jim Harmon on a s*x novel entitled PASSION STRIP (France book F-70, 75¢ if you're a completist of such things); Redd's part begins at p.83--"all first draft, top of my head stuff, and I was afraid to reread it till I held the published book in my hand. It is awful trash, really, but at least as competent as most west coast sex novels..." There is talk of Redd's and Jim's bringing legal pressure on the publisher, as to this writing they had not received their promised $$.

§ The late fan DAVE FOLEY, onetime Nunnery denizen (d. 23 Oct., leukemia, survived by widow Sandy and infant son), under pseudo of "Allen Marshall", wrote SINLAND for Nightstand Books; report hath it that this one (set in a carny atmpsphere) is rather more wholesome than this pubber's usual line of crud.

ANOTHER NEW PROZINE? TOM "Mirth & Irony" HAUGHEY is, it says here, starting something called EPIC, paying 1/4¢/word to start with (more as advertisers come through); initial press run 10,000, to be distributed on the E.Coast--(Middle Atlantic, specifically) distributor not identified. Guthrie Bros., Baltimore, are named as the printers, but send your contribs to Haughey at 4211 71st Ave., Landover Hills, Md. Tom says the mag will average 20% fantasy, 20% whodunit, 20% adventure & history, 30% SF, 10% fact. He distributed some sort of drunken (or at least one sheet in the wind) flyer about it at the DisCon, in addition to telling me in person. Best of luck.

ATTENTION OMPA, AKM, &c.: It's been a postal regulation for several months now, but for some reason it seems not to have been mentioned in the fanpress at all--nevertheless, fanzines to be sent to points outside the USA must be enveloped, otherwise they will not be accepted for mailing. (Of course, this does not guarantee their reaching their destinations, to judge by the numbers of FANAC 83 through 86 which were sent to overseas fans and never arrived.) § AVRAM DAVIDSON adds an additional warning: In Mexico, postal people are blithely corrupt, and are likely to charge the addressee (especially a gringo) triple market value in duties, service charges, or something; they tried to charge $90 to allow $30 worth of gifts from Grania's grandmother into the country. (A & G refused to pay...but didn't get the package, either.) Fanzines to be sent to the Davidsons (see CoA) should be not only enveloped but sent AIRMAIL.

REDD BOGGS seems to have decided that it's about time for another war (into which all fandom, etc.) in the glee-orious tradition of the Paper Moon and Great Horse-Color Wars. His declaration is in COCKATRICE 4: "Empire State Bldg. ; Edifice Rex." (Walt Willis had foretold it in WARHOON 16.) I could not let that challenge go unanswered, and replied in FAPA mc's with "Acme Demolition Co. ; Edifice Wrecks" and "Donaho with flu : adipose wretch", but clearly we have not heard the last yet. # That same ish contained a lucid (inevitably because so Reddish) review of X.J. (Exfan Joe) Kennedy's Nude Descending a Staircase--a coll'n of poems (Doubleday, 1961). # Its successor, BETE NOIRE 5, contains some glittering punmanship by Bill Blackbeard, new editor of IASFS NEWSLETTER. For the rest, it read like a resurrected DISCORD, even to the lettercol--& needless to say that is at once a compliment and a hint.

ATTENTION, J.ART.HAYES : One hopes that TTH will continue to be published despite your resignation from all N3F posts and refusal of the Kaymar Award. Although I have been a professional writer for 12 years, I still have learned things from the "Mark" series in TTH--most recently the Boucher word formula: to an editor, a word means 6 characters --and-spaces, i.e. 5 and a space; pica runs 10 words/inch, elite 12.

RAIDING THE ICEBOX : BRUCE PELZ blitzkrieged the FANNISH III stencils from Terry Carr, so presumably sometime we'll see the result and bind our files. :: JACK CHALKER (he of Hugb-nominee fanzine MIRAGE & the Clark Ashton Smith memorial, singled out by Ted Sturgeon in his Chicon speech) and Science Fair winner DAVE KATZ revived the long-dormant Baltimore SF Club; meetings the 2nd & 4th Fridays of each month, 8PM: for information write Dave at 3001 Glen Ave. (or phone FO7-4948) or Jack at 5111 Liberty Heights Ave. (phone FO7-0685). Had people like this been in the Baltimore club in 1952, incidentally, I would probably have gotten into fandom then; friends of mine attended a few meetings, pronounced the club dull, and dissuaded me from going. But if meetings are anything like the Baltimore group's DisCon party ("Balto. is Heaven in '67" is their slogan), they'll be anything but dull. :: WHICH ISSUE OF STARS&PINKIE D'YA READ? #13: "Jack Jardine's new novel, Lesbo Lodge..." #19: "Lesbo Lodge... is credited to 'Harry Barstead', who is known to be a local fan (but that would be telling... besides, we have to keep some secrets)". :: HELP WANTED. A British fan correspondent who knows what HAPA is about, but not how to get in touch with any members, wants me to find out on his behalf. I cannot mention his name in print, but will forward any appropriate information without prejudice. Thanks. :: EMSH films are continuing to get recognition at least in NY film circles. Appearing, for instance, on the 4th of March at one of the regular Monday midnight shows at the Bleecker St. Cinema, they got plugged in the Village Voice (Jonas Mekks outdoing himself for once--but then the man also recommended Orson Welles's new version of The Trial, written up by Jerry DeMuth in January 63 ROGUE). :: Speaking of DeMUTH, he seems to have deserted SF for civil liberties and such; he sold an article on the Cairo (Ill.) freedom movement to COMMONWEAL, and similar bits by him appear from time to time elsewhere. :: Astronomer CARL SAGAN told a bunch of space scientists that Martians, if any, could not be certain that there was any intelligent life on earth. (Credit SF Chronicle, 10 June 63) :: BILL ROTSIER (whose name is mentioned, as usual, as a matter of policy) has told me some time ago of his expectations of hitting the stands with one and possibly two books of photocartoons under the title SEX, SPICE & THE SINGLE MAN. Always the fan, he is working on a fantasy kiddy show (for TV) named "Johnny Venture". :: DEPT. OF BEING KICKED UPSTAIRS: TED WHITE was fired from Scott Meredith Literary Agency for being sick in bed two weeks. He is now Assistant Editor of F&SF, which at least sounds better than being plain First Reader. :: JON WHITE is once again up & around after a spell at Cowell Hospital, Univ. of Calif., Berkeley. (Pneumonia and some gastric trouble; nobody has full details yet except the doctors.) And no puns, please, about White having trouble with his INSIDE. :: The LITTLE MEN held their usual Hallowe'en costume party at the home of Poul & Karen Anderson, Sat 26 Oct. The judges remarked that their decisions showed that Sex Has a Place in SF, and God wasn't in this year, apropos of awarding prizes to (1) Dian Girard as a certain LA newszine--in a costume which would not have been allowed on any stage since the time of Charles II; I guess that the general idea is STARS&PINKIE Reveals Everything? (2) Karen Anderson, as Commanding Officer of the Personal Bodyguard of the Matriarch (Decadent Period of the 3rd Matriarchy, from Time Patrol); (3) Bruce Pelz as the Man Who Was Thursday. The "God is not in..." referred to the failure of Donaho, Danny Curran & Dick Ellington to win any prizes as a trio of burlesque-clad, cigar-smoking monks of the Church of the Brotherhood of the Way, or should that be Brother Hoods of the Way? Prizes, anyway, were bottles of wine. :: BARRY MILLER (see FAN AC 92, p.3) recently sold something called "Condition of Survival" to AMZ. :: Despite illnesses and an accident resulting in a dislocated knee, the incomparable & indomitable MARION Z. BRADLEY finally managed to finish BLOODY SUN, and it will hit the stands via Ace Books before long. :: Thanx, JOHN BOARDMAN, for PAJAMA PARTY ref.
