BSFA (EASTER) CON ENJOYABLE

COMMITTEE HAD TO SECURE NEW HOTEL WHEN ORIGINAL HOTEL BACKED OUT ON DEAL

TAFF WINNER DON FORD & SWEDISH "SCIENCE-FICTION TIMES" EDUTOR, STURE SELECTION FROM THE SELECTION THE SELEC

NEW YORK, 24 April, (CNS) - News arrived in New York today from the BSFA CONVENTION (Easter Con)held in London, England by the British Science Fiction Association over the Easter week-end, April 16 & 17. Despite the fact that they lost the original Hotel two days before Convention time, a new Hotel was secured and the Convention opened on schedule on Saturday April 16 at 2:30 P.M.

First on the program was a talk on Jarel Capek by Doc. Weir. Following that was a talk by editor John (Ted) Carnell on "Weither Science Fiction". Carnell is the editor of the British New Worlds, Science Fantasy, and Science Fiction Adventures, and the actual editor of the USNE New Worlds. This was followed by an auction. Next was the TAFF (Transatlantic Fan Fund) Panel consisting of the current three TAFF candidates, Mal Ashworth, Eric Bentcliffe, and H. P. (Sandy) Sanderson, and MCed by Eric Jones. The Panel answered questions on science-fiction and fandom asked by the audience. This covered not only pro and fan science fiction in general, but personal questions on their (Panel) fittness to win the TAFF Award. After the Panel, TAFF 1959 winner Don Ford showed slides on past Midwestcons and other fan events. On Saturday evening a Masquerade Ball was held. First Prize was won by Eithel Lindsay and Ina Shorrock, each wearing a Witch costume. Said costume having a red cape upon which was written "Drinka Pinta Blooda Day". The night was filled with the usual "smokefilled" rooms and "wet" room parties.

The Sunday April 17th session started at 11:30 A.M. First on the agenda was the BSFA's business session. The advisability of suing the original Hotel for backing out of their contract was discussed and it was decided to turn the matter over to a lawyer for advice. Changes in the BSFA constitution and by-laws were voted on. The session was ended with the 1960 elections of the BSFA. Elected were: Ina Shorrock as chairman; Ella Parker, secretary; Archie Mercher, treasurer; James Groves, editor of Official

TED WHITE & WIFE JOIN FAIRCON COMMITTEE

NEW YORK, 2 April, (CNS) - The second meeting of the proposed "Faircon" was held today. The "Faircon" will be held in New York on July 4th 1964 to celebrate the 25th Anniversary of the First World Science Fiction Convention held in New York in 1939. The committee, at this meeting discussed: Ways and means of raising money for the "Faircon". They agreed to possibily reprint famous fan material in booklet form, in an effort to get cash. The committee will make every effort to have a full rounded program, with something for everybody. They plan to Incorporate in 1963, said Incorporation to run until 1965. In order to obtain experience and money for the "Faircen", plans were discussed to run Easternoons (similar to Midwestcons) withthe possibility of the firstEasterncon to be held in New York during the summer months of 1961. The committee is now on the lookout for hotels with swimming pool (or Motel in nearby NYC) for suc h possible Easterncons. On e last ditch way to raise money, the assessment of dues from the "Faircon" members was discussed.

At this meeting Ted and Sylvia White joined the Faircon Committee.

It was announced at the meeting that along with Science-Fiction Times, other leading fan mags have agreed to publizize the "Faircon" and Faircon Committee.
