

Hello, people; here we go again!

Two of our favorite people -- Nancy Share and Art Rapp, this time -- have set the date of their marriage. It is to be in early March, which doesn't give us much time to do something fancishly suitable for them; but we are going to try. After Kotsler put "number one of a series" on the cover of the Fanzine for GJohn, we have wondered what we'd do for an encore. This is it!

We'd like a contribution from you. This is to be a fanzine for and about Nanshare and Art. Anything goes; poetry--sentimental and/or funny; anecdotes about either Nan or Art, or both; philosophizing; lines and other filler -- and lots of artwork. In short, just about anything you'd like to say.

Some of the people to whom this letter is going have never met Nan or Art, but in any case, we'd like to have something from you in the zine -- even a "Good wishes and best of luck" will be something they can look back on. Most especially, since Art has been so active in the interests of the National Fantasy Fan Federation, we would like to have at least a signature page of all NFF members; some of you helpers who know Art from the old days might send more than that.

Time is short, and while we cannot hope to have this ready for their wedding day, we would like to present the finished fanzine as soon as possible. So if you are really interested, sit down now and write something for Nan and Art; send it first class, and be sure of being included in this fancish wedding gift! We do hope to hear from everyone by March 9, 1961. If you all get busy, that is possible.

Remember, this project is Top Secret; no word of it is to get to Nan or Art!!

And, by the way, any monetary contributions will be very welcome. Fanzines cost quite a stack of loot to produce. Send contributions -- writing, art, or money -- to:
