Since I have purchased many paintings at auctions held at various World Science Fiction Conventions, obviously I'm not looking for cheap bargains.

Paying well for something good is the only way to collect, and that is how I collect.

ROBERT J. HOGAN, Author of the famous G-8 and His Battle Aces pulp had two other series going for him in the early days of the pulps.

THE SECRET SIX was an imitation DOC SAVAGE and lasted only four issues; but the MYSTERIOUS WU FANG was more successful and is avidly collected TODAY! WU FANG was a villain de luxe like Fu Manchu and was forever being pursued by Government Agent Val Kildare. The stories are average but enjoyable. Covers were by Jerome Rozenand; interior illustrations were by John Richard Flanagan and Franz Blachy.

THE MYSTERIOUS WU FANG:

September	1935	. . . . .	The Case of the Six Coffins
October	1935	. . . . .	The Case of the Scarlet Feather
November	1935	. . . . .	The Case of the Yellow Mask
December	1935	. . . . .	The Case of the Suicide Tomb
January	1936	. . . . .	The Case of the Green Death
February	1936	. . . . .	The Case of the Black Lotus
March	1936	. . . . .	The Case of the Hidden Scourge

Dear Stan:

Christmas & New Years weeks, SWE has truly been a weekly adzine. It is produced and mailed every Sunday afternoon

Hi! Thank you muchly for the CC of WE! -- unfortunately, at the moment, I am too broke to sub; however felt I should at least write you and tell you how much I enjoyed WE.

without fail and if Stan dosen't get enough ads to keep it going it will prove that a lot of fans were "all blow and no go" over the years when they publicly stated how they wish that someone would publish a weekly adzine and that such an item would be of immense benefit to fandom and would be just: what they and a lot of other fans wanted and needed. So now: is your chance to support a weekly adzine and keep it going: for years to come -- or don't support it, causing it to fold:

Also muchly appreciate all the work WE must entail and can imagine all the time it consumes.

and proving once again that people wish for something until they get it and then proceed to ignore until it no longer exists and then they start in again to wish for it. So don't delay, order and advertise in Stan's WE today!

Anyway, Thank you again --- some day in the near future when I am moneyed, I will consider a sub. CHEERS!!

Here I am again. 70 lines of space AND NO NEWS! I'll just have to amuse you with my gift of gab and the little news I have. Since I ran low on space last time, on to the NEWS!

1) The Carolina Fan Federation is having its MINI-CON! MARCH 22 - 2540 Chapel Hill Rd: Durham, N.C. Write EDWIN MURRAY for more info. This should be fun. I always play up cons, because they are the best way to get together with old and new friends! 2) NFFF (N3F) is looking for members.

If you're sitting there saying, "Gee, I wish I could do something." get to a desk and write: K. MARTIN CARLSON, 1028 Third Ave. S. Moorehead, Minn. 56560. Get busy!

3) Everybody living around or near the state of Missouri: WRITE Chester Malon Jr., 4349 Forest Park, St. Louis, Mo. Write him and ask when the next OZARK SCIENCE FICTION ASSOC. meeting is and where? Because he hasn't given us any information!

4) That's all the NEWS. Now don't stop reading, cause heres some news (so it wasn't all news!) from DALLAS. The Dallas Science Fiction Society (DaSFA) meets once a month. Those living in that area, write me for more information: That is the absolute END of the news!:

EDITOR'S NOTE: S O R R Y! Continue examining the clues; you still have a good chance of finding the "right" answer:

Do you wish there was a club near you? Now's the time to start one! I will give you all the help I can. You send me your name, address, name of club to be, purpose and any other information and I will print it for a week or two. Then leave it up to the fans to respons. I hope to hear from you soon and you clubs send us your stuff too! Some poor guy may want to start a club and live right next door! Thats all!

RETURN TO WONDER #7 deals primarily with ROBERT E. HOWARD the creator of the Conan series -- which gives a complete biography. Before reading this fanzine, I knew very little of Howard, but thanks to RTW, he is likely to become one of my favorite authors. I'm anxious to start reading more of his books.

Another thing that I found in this fanzine is that it has poetry in it. This poetry I compare to some of the finest I have ever read. The poets in RTW are Stan Waiter, Charles Grose, and Andris Taskins.

A welcome sight in the 'zine is a movie review by Doug Fulthorpe. I had never seen this movie (2001: A Space Odyssey), but when I finished reading the article, I felt I had just seen the movie.

For the book fan, RTW has a book review by Richard Grose. Rich gives a good review, and really gives a good idea as to how the book really is. Rich gives the Author, Company, Copyright and price.

There are some other features which I won't go into, but if you want a really great fanzine, then buy a copy of "RETURN TO WONDER" #7 for 50c . . . . . from:
