A smaller mailing than we've been used to recently! But, alas, there are reasons for that...

ANZAPANS ARE HAVING A VERY TOUGH TIME

The last couple of months have been very rough indeed for a number of our members, I'm afraid.

Very sad news from Derrick advising us of the death of Christine Ashby last week. You'll find Derrick's account and a number of tributes to her within the mailing.

Claire let me know about Mark's father dying just a few days ago. Bruce has tested positive for COVID, I haven't heard how he's doing. Ex-Anzapan Carey Handfield broke four ribs in a fall last month.

And then of course there's...

JACK HERMAN

Jack won't be able to contribute this mailing due to his recent heart attack and medical procedures to deal with it, but he has asked me to share this with you:

For your information and that of ANZAPA members.

I am back home after a third, and I hope final, procedure at Sutherland Hospital. On Monday I had a third stent inserted by angiogram, this one in the main artery that they couldn't properly deal with immediately after my heart attack. The procedure went well but I developed a post-operation infection and had some blood in my bladder, both of which caused some concern, so I had to spend an extra night in hospital and was put on a regimen on anti-biotics.

I'm now feeling reasonably good and should now be on the road to a full recovery, dependent on how much damage was done to the heart muscle during the heart attack. This and other matters will be dealt with by a cardiologist (the surgeon who did the three procedures) starting in late May.

The wound to my head is healing well and should leave a nice clean scar above my right eye. The eye has been passed fit by the ophthalmologist, so that's good. I will be consulting a neurologist in May to assess if there was any damage to the brain arising from this incident (so many specialists are now on my horizon).

I will not be contributing to the April ANZAPA for obvious reasons but hope to be back on board by June. I am clearly in no position to act as Emergency Editor should one be needed this month.

Gary Mason has kindly agreed to act as Emergency Emergency Editor for the time being.

Please, ANZAPANS, be careful out there and look after your health, both physical and mental. We can't afford to lose any more of you!

Next mailing deadline: 11:59 pm AEDT on Friday, 10 June 2022

Overseas members should probably aim to upload by midnight Thursday their time.

ODD PAGE COUNTS AND BLANK PAGES

If you read The Fretful Porpentine this mailing you'll see that I've come up with a clever way of automatically inserting blank pages where necessary to even up contributions with an odd number of pages. The good news for you is you don't need to include a blank (or minimal content) page yourself at the end of your PDF. Leave that to me.

COLOURED BACKGROUNDS

Thank you to those members who like to use coloured backgrounds to their contributions for supplying versions without the backgrounds this time to make them easier to print.

OUTLINE REPLACES BOOKMARKS

Because I now have software to automate it, the "whole mailing" PDF includes a table of contents in the form of an "outline". How you get to view and use this will probably depend on your PDF reader software. Since I'm on a Mac, I don't know how this works on a Windows system and would welcome any feedback.

ANZAPA CONSTITUTION

The Australian and New Zealand Amateur Publishing Association ("ANZAPA" or "the APA") is an organisation which was established in 1968 by Australian comics and science fiction fans. It publishes a bi-monthly compilation ("a mailing") of amateur magazines or fanzines.

It consists of up to thirty persons or couples, who pay an appropriate fee and contribute to the next available mailing. If there are no vacancies, applicants are placed on a waiting list and invited to join when there is a vacancy.

The APA is run by an Official Bloody Editor ("the OBE") elected from amongst the members when there is a vacancy. The OBE will ensure the collection of zines by the tenth day of each even-numbered month, and their distribution to all members as soon thereafter as is practical, including an Official Organ, which includes a list of the contents, a membership roster, and a financial statement, and annually this constitution. The zines shall be in a medium determined by the OBE, who shall also ensure the maintenance of an archive of all distributions, collect annual fees (due with each August mailing and sufficient to meet the APA's projected annual costs), and maintain the APA's finances. The OBE may appoint an Emergency Editor to perform any of the OBE's duties, and other such assistants as may be required.

To retain membership, a member must contribute a minimum of six A4 pages (or close equivalent) of self-written material every six months. The material should be original and be primarily intended for publication in ANZAPA. What counts as acceptable material for the purposes of minac is at the OBE's discretion.

A President shall be elected annually by means of a popularity poll ("the Anzapoll"), distributed with the August mailing. The President's duties shall be to organise the following poll and 'encourager les autres'.

This Constitution can be amended only by a positive vote of at least 75% of the ballots received by the OBE after the following procedure: proposals in writing, endorsed by three members, must be sent to the OBE, who will publish them in the following Official Organ; in the second mailing after the proposal's receipt, the OBE shall distribute a ballot, with a specified closing date.

Special Rules may be adopted from time to time, at the OBE's discretion, unless a majority of members oppose the proposed rule within twenty eight days of its distribution.
