I hope that you are all doing much better this time around than last time. Jack Herman has given us an update to his progress in his contribution, and he seems to be slowly recovering, but I'm sorry to say that I know at least three of our members have recently tested positive for COVID since the last mailing, which they tell us about in their contributions here. However, it seems that they are doing OK.

I realised only after it went out that the cover of the last OBO might have been felt to be a bit on the dour side. Hopefully the cover of this one is a more optimistic and cheerful one, and even more I hope that it fits how people are feeling. I presume that the ANZAPA mailing the mail-person is delivering is the big bundle under his left arm!

By the way, I'm not going to run out of Carl Spitzweg paintings for a while, I've discovered that he painted heaps of them. But I'll try to slip in some other artists from time to time for variety.

WELCOME TO A NEW MEMBER

I'm very pleased to announce that we have a new member this time. Please welcome Alison Scott from the U.K. Alison, you may recall, was the GUFF winner for 2020.

I also had interest in joining from Robin Bright, also from the U.K., but as of yet I haven't received a suitable contribution from Robin.

In accordance with usual practice, I sent these folk the links to download the last mailing so they knew what they were about to get into.

REGARDING THE WEBSITE

Roman suggested in the last issue that the website could host some sample contributions so that people coming across the website could get a better idea of what it's about. I'm happy to put up a couple of my own, but edited to remove contact and information which is too personal (I don't like broadcasting the names of my grandchildren on the Internet, for example).

If anyone else thinks this is a good idea and would like to provide suitable contributions, please let me have copies.

IMPORTANT NOTE TO SELF

David, if you're going to "improve" the ANZAPA automation software you boasted about, make sure you test it thoroughly before trying it on a live mailing!!

Next mailing deadline: 11:59 pm AEST on Friday, 5 August 2022

Overseas members should probably aim to upload by midnight Thursday their time.

With Alison Scott joining us as a new member, we now have 27 members/couples. Almost full! I'm surprised that no one has noticed before this that in previous OBOs I'd been skipping a number in the above table, so that it was indicating a total one more than the correct one. Whoops!

FINANCIAL STATEMENT

I finally spent some money! I re-registered the anzapa.org domain for a 3-year period, which I thought was far enough into the future. This cost USD $48.51, at the time by coincidence exactly AUD $65.00.

Balance from April mailing		$463.99
Domain registration	-$65.00	$398.99
Interest:	+$0.73	$399.72
Balance carried forward:		$399.72

ANZAPA CONSTITUTION

The Australian and New Zealand Amateur Publishing Association ("ANZAPA" or "the APA") is an organisation which was established in 1968 by Australian comics and science fiction fans. It publishes a bi-monthly compilation ("a mailing") of amateur magazines or fanzines.

It consists of up to thirty persons or couples, who pay an appropriate fee and contribute to the next available mailing. If there are no vacancies, applicants are placed on a waiting list and invited to join when there is a vacancy.

The APA is run by an Official Bloody Editor ("the OBE") elected from amongst the members when there is a vacancy. The OBE will ensure the collection of zines by the tenth day of each even-numbered month, and their distribution to all members as soon thereafter as is practical, including an Official Organ, which includes a list of the contents, a membership roster, and a financial statement, and annually this constitution. The zines shall be in a medium determined by the OBE, who shall also ensure the maintenance of an archive of all distributions, collect annual fees (due with each August mailing and sufficient to meet the APA's projected annual costs), and maintain the APA's finances. The OBE may appoint an Emergency Editor to perform any of the OBE's duties, and other such assistants as may be required.

To retain membership, a member must contribute a minimum of six A4 pages (or close equivalent) of self-written material every six months. The material should be original and be primarily intended for publication in ANZAPA. What counts as acceptable material for the purposes of minac is at the OBE's discretion.

A President shall be elected annually by means of a popularity poll ("the Anzapoll"), distributed with the August mailing. The President's duties shall be to organise the following poll and 'encourager les autres'.

This Constitution can be amended only by a positive vote of at least 75% of the ballots received by the OBE after the following procedure: proposals in writing, endorsed by three members, must be sent to the OBE, who will publish them in the following Official Organ; in the second mailing after the proposal's receipt, the OBE shall distribute a ballot, with a specified closing date.

Special Rules may be adopted from time to time, at the OBE's discretion, unless a majority of members oppose the proposed rule within twenty eight days of its distribution.
