

BRITISH FANTASY AWARD - AN IMPORTANT ANNOUNCEMENT

We are very pleased to be able to announce a new annual award, The British Fantasy Award, to be sponsored and organised by the British Science Fiction Association. For some time we have felt that the B.S.F.A. should sponsor something of this kind, and now that we are able to do so, we anticipate an enthusiastic response from our members. The British Fantasy Award will, it is hoped, become an important and respected institution in the British, and world-wide, SF scene.

The British Fantasy Award will be given each year to the person or organisation which, in the judgement of the Association, has made the best contribution to speculative fiction in the past twelve months. The award could go to a novel, a short story, a magazine, a publishing house, or a television or film company. The emphasis will be on the value of the contribution to British science fiction or fantasy.

In the near future we will be able to release more detailed information on the award itself, but we are now ready to accept nominations from B.S.F.A. members.

We hope that members will give due thought to their choice. Every B.S.F.A. member is eligible to nominate his or her choice for The British Fantasy Award.

We invite you to complete the nomination form below, sending it to the B.S.F.A.'s Secretary, Doreen Parker, at 38 Millfield Road, Deeping St. James, Peterborough.
