

MEETING INFORMATION

Next meeting starts at or about 8pm in the HUB at the University of Washington campus on Wednesday, February 20th within whatever room is assigned to us.

Last meeting the Nameless were too few and too broke to do justice to the auction so the same magazines mentioned last issue will still be available for the auction next meeting. A game in which the titles of science-fiction and fantasy stories were acted out in pantomime proved so successful last meeting that a special invitation is extended to anyone who cares to act out their own pet titles to see if other Nameless can guess them. Only two rules to follow: no sounds, and no props.

Last meeting Mark Walstead gave a description of the talk on Semantics he had attended earlier that evening. When it became known that he had attended the lecture without charge, several questioning glances were sent his way by Nameless who had imagined an entrance fee of anywhere from 75¢ to $5. However it was found later that Mark was well within his rights and need have no fears of facing penal restraint. There was a charge of $5, but that was for enrolling in a short course in semantics given at the University. The particular talk Mark attended was free to the public.

ADDRESS LIST

Your slow-moving corresponding secretary finally got the list of addresses stencilled for this issue. There are no doubt flaws that need correcting. Your help in this matter would be appreciated. By the way, we are missing the address of Mrs. Julia Woodard. Her last CRY was returned from her old address.

CLARK & BABS CROUTCH WRITE

February 6, 1952

1609 Fries Street
Richland, Wash.

Dear Mrs. Carr,

I hope you are kind and forgiving as I really have had no excuse for neglecting to write for quite some time now. We arrived here from Tucson about the first of October and I took up my reemployment with the government. We are now fairly well settled into living again. Believe me, it's nice not to have Uncle breathing so closely down my neck and wondering whether tomorrow I will be transferred overseas.

If you don't mind, would you please notify the current editors of Sinisterra of my latest address? I haven't received any issues since volume 1, no. 4. According to my records I should get four or possibly five more issues before my sub runs out. That is counting one copy of each issue in which I have material.

If you have any duplications of books in your library I have some I would like to trade. I want to get rid of:

THE LOST WORLD & THE POISON BELT by Sir. A. C. Doyle
THE LAST SPACE SHIP by Murray Leinster
ALLAN'S WIFE by H. Rider Haggard

They are duplicates that I have in my library. So far I have collected 70 hard cover books—mostly science fiction but some fantasy and occult. Most of them I received through Operation Fantast from England. Even counting the books already received I have built up a credit of $50 in England so that means I will receive at least 35 or 45 more books from there. As I've probably mentioned to you, I send all my prozines to England and in return I get the hard bound editions. Some are very good. Since I received them from England, many have been reissued in USA editions (for example INTERPLANETARY FLIGHT by A. C. Clark, THE FOUR SIDED TRIANGLE by W. F. Temple, and THE DISAPPEARANCE by Philip Wylie)

Guess I don't have anymore to say this time. Hope we hear from you soon. I promise to write sooner next time.

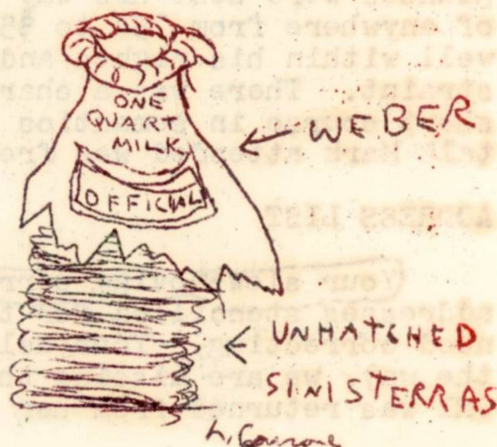

Sincerely

Clark & Babs

As official bottle-neck on SINISTERRA, I regret to inform you that volume 1 number 4 was the last completed issue. I have been sitting on the unassembled parts of number 5 for the last four months. So far I have hatched nothing.
