

JUNE 1982

NO. 138

The official newsletter of the Los Angeles Science Fantasy Society, Inc., 11513 Burbank Blvd., North Hollywood, CA 91601. Sharon Bohner, Editor, 3100 Dow Avenue, Redondo Beach, CA 90278. This month's letterhead is the work of Curtis Newton. Artwork for this issue was contributed by DJAHardy and Mike Galloway. This newsletter is distributed to all members of the Los Angeles Science Fantasy Society, and is available to non-members for trade, or for $5.00/year.

MEETING NO. 2333, APRIL 29, 1982

Danise started the meeting of this Educational organization at 8:09 p.m.

Sandy Cohen suggested that the Secretary spice up the minutes, and looked to Danise for suggestions. Danise said the minutes were approved as read, although it was pointed out that Danise was also red.

The treasurer's report indicated all the money is in the Building Fund which doesn't exist any more, so Danise passed the plate. Liz introduced guest Robert Bennett.

Mike Galloway announced he was giving away file boxes.

Two parking spaces were auctioned off, to George Jumper and Louis Grey for $10 each.

Danise brought up the fact that cars in the neighborhood of the clubhouse have been broken into, and the auto shop on the corner had complained of windows being broken on "Thursday nights". John Christopher felt that members of a volunteer patrol might be harassed by the police, and the situation might be out of control without enough organization. Elayne Pelz commented that the problem had been going on for a long time.

Danise led three cheers for Bill Warren, whose night it was. Marty Cantor announced "Holier than Thou". Tom Digby announced that the aftermeetings at Sittons have been relatively successful. George Jumper announced File 770. Charles Jackson was having his teeth filed with diamond tape.

Susan Fox (Davis) announced she was on the committee for AquaCon 2. Bruce Pelz announced that the program would be slides from his collection, circa 1960 and 1961. Jordan Brown announced the appearance of a station wagon in the parking lot with warp drive pods. Tom Locke reviewed Friday. Bruce announced that a bound galley of it would be auctioned off at the Showcase.

Charlie Jackson review TAG - The Movie That Sticks to your Face as being an honest rip-off.

Craig Miller announced that LA is the only committee to have filed in time for the '84 Worldcon, and this was the last chance to buy membership in either the Friends or Enemies of LA in '84.

MEETING NO. 2334, MAY 6, 1982

Danise asked the musical question "Do I have an audience?" at 8:06. She was answered by a resounding "NO!"

Minutes were read, and nitpicked to death. The treasurer's report was read. Danise then passed the plate, with a confused explanation for those attending for the first time.

Bob Null reported that the Second Sunday now has the rules for Interplanetary, as well as a couple of new games.

Liz introduced guests: Joe Nemeč, Ken Miller, and Ruben Collazo.

Galen Tripp asked "What happened at the Showcase?" "They ate everything!" Elayne estimated that the club stands to make about $2000.

There was a motion to raise the Second Sunday allotment to $30. It was railroaded.

Rick Foss appointed himself the Committee for Surrealism in Everyday Life to report on the man behind the NOT SAFE organization. Among other things, he would make it sodomy to smell flowers, because it is touching one's nose to the sexual organs of another species.

The program for the evening was Barry Gold leading a filk.

Hare Hobbs announced he is starting a video club not dealing in animation.

Tom Digby announced the aftermeeting at Sittons.

Mark Sharpe announced he is taking a collection for the Charles Curley Memorial Muzzle Fund.

Someone announced that Warriors, Wizards and Warlocks, a bookstore, is going out of business.

Bruce Pelz announced the availability of Volume 4 of the Filksong Manual. He will soon also have a new edition of the fan birthday calendar.

Charles Curley announced that Acres of Books, in Long Beach, is being threatened with eviction. They cannot move, so they are collecting letters to show the city it would be a good idea if they weren't forced out of business.

Alan Rothstein injected a political note by saying he had a petition to put the split tax roll initiative on the ballot.
