

DEGLER-10

APA
"F"

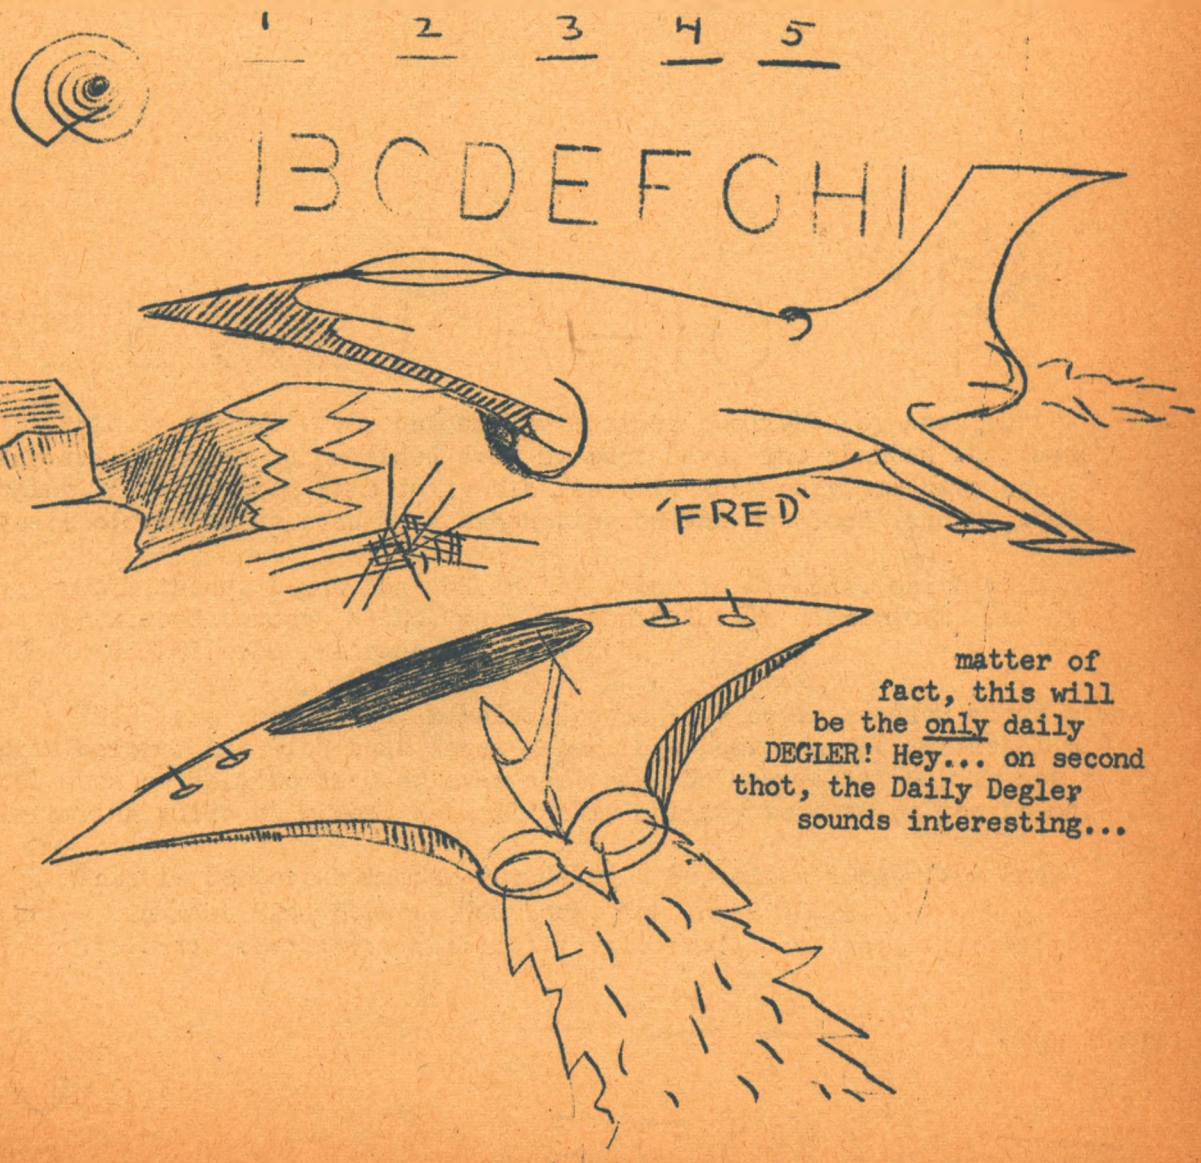

This is DEGLER! #10, the daily fanzine, published by Andy Porter for apa F, which is presided over by papa Dave, who started the damned thing. I've started this daily bit for this week only, so have no fears of something even more exhausting on the New York fannish scene,

Well, gang, I put that NY in '67 thing in DEGLER!, which will now be circulated through N'APA, much to Arnie Katz's discomfort. See my MCs in DEGLER! for the reason.

This is a test sheet, mainly because I've never handled mimeo stencils before. And with that lousy paper that Boardman got for me, I may not even be able to read or even see this. So now we try out my new lettering guide on mimeo, as well as my ability to draw on the thing.

This is Porterpub number 20, dated 4 September 1964, from Andy Porter, 24 East 82nd Street, New York, New York, 10028.

matter of fact, this will be the only daily DEGLER! Hey... on second thot, the Daily Degler sounds interesting...
