

This is DEGLER! number 18, porterpublishation number 30, published by Andy Porter for apa F mailing # 17, October 23, 1964, at 24 East 82nd Street, NY28

I was arrested for impersonating Richard Allen Lupoff:

I was walking down the street when who should I see but a sailor, in a sailor suit, freezing his head off. I hurriedly buttoned closer my govt. issue coat and made like a chameleon, but the sailor saw me, and he stopped for a second and looked at me. Oh well, I didn't want to die...so I disembowelled him in a split second with my bowie knife, which I always keep in my pocket for just such an emergency. The blood felt nice and warm as I plunged my hands into his abdomen...

MCs from Porter to you:

- Cover, Steve Stiles: The best Ditto artwork I've ever seen, quite literally.
- PoF#10, rich brown: Tonight rich will give a talk on how to lose friends and play dirty politics. But seeing as how I'm not in the thick of things, I can't say whether this is dirty or not.
- Ubung#1, rich brown: Congradulations, a very good job, and most impressive for something so young.
- Killdozer#1 & CZ#1, rich brown: no comment hooks here, I'm afeared.
- Dear Friend, Mike McInerney: The price tag is too high, for me myself that is.
- DEGLER#17, myself: A pretty bad crudzine at that.
- SAPrise #1, DVA: Very good layout and use of colored paper, even if I have no comments on the mailing comments, which I don't.
- OPO 15, Lupoffs: Easily the best thing in the mailing, due partly to Dave's expert mimeographing. And of course, to that great Con report. Your Lovecraft week will be in Algol. If it were longer, it would be an excellent article.
- FanoMatiC#14, DVA: I see you're still using that lousy blue paper, and it seems to be yellowing around the edges. See below for an important message.
- First Draft#32, DVA: There will definitely be an Eastercon, over, under, around but not through the LunaCon, and from where you work, I think that you are the Man to go to the Hotel Edison to see about renting a suite. And who will finance this I am wondering? I can't... at least at the moment. But we could charge $1.00 to cover costs, or something... Suggestions, people?
- Hydra 17, Mike McInerney: Here's your listn, Ike...
- Tonight's the Night: Steve Stiles: I liked that illo, but it shd have been darker. Also, as you say, the lettering guide didn't work at all. Maybe Ted'll buy it. Nice content, beautiful satire.
- Dagon, John Boardman: No comment on Diplomacy 'zines.

And this is the end of the Mailing comments, and I incidentally want to see how this blue master works out; it'll be the color of rich's article, which he better have with him. TERRYFORTAFFTERRYFORTAFFTERRYFORTAFFTERRYFORTAFFTERRYFORTAFFTERRYFORTAFFNYIN'67!!!!!!
