Mailing Comments: Everyone beneath comment, as it should be, usually.

This maybe the first mailing I miss, due to my doing my homework for the coming Monday & giving me a free conscience for this weekend.

If I show, I'll bring along copies of ALGOL to give out to those who contributed, which is about  $\frac{1}{2}$  The Fanclubs. This is being written FYI, in the lounge at NYU, Monday, to the accompaniment of soft music, like, at the moment, "Stormy Weather". It is very nice music.

I had that I would have a piece by Larry Janifer in here, but the answer to that is: "The dogs - they are black & have legs." See you Saturday.
