

DEGLER #22

this is DEGLER#22, being done because number 21 is at the post office with 10¢ postage due on it. This is a makeshift so I can have something in the mailing until my other makeshift comes through for a post-mailing to this meeting. I think. There may be another DEGLER! next week, but if there isn't, there will be a post-mailed DEGLER!, so that there will be a DEGLER! even if I don't do one.

My mailing comments are very short: you're all noted as beneath comment as usual.

The eighth issue of Algol will be presented tonite, and the Larry Janifer piece in it will see distribution at the Philcon as a Terry for TAFF propaganda sheet.
