GERMAN WORLDCON BOOSTED FOR 1970: Forces are rumbling throughout fandom for a projected worldcon bid for Germany in 1970. Heidelberg or Frankfort are the cities being proposed for the convention. Archie Mercer (9 Cotswald Road, Bedminster, Bristol 3, England) is the chief organizer of British backing, while Fred Lerner (98B, the Blvd., East Paterson, NJ, 07407) is Chairman of the American Committee for Heidelberg In 1970. Meanwhile in Germany, Alfred Beha (605 Ober Roden, Dieburger Strasse 35, BRD Germany) seems to be the person in charge of the push. If Heidelberg bids for 1970, it will probably be opposed by Boston and Baltimore. On the other hand, there seems to be some sentiment for a Washington, DC bid for the worldcon in 1970 or 71...

COLIN CAMERON WOUNDED IN VIETNAM: Colin Cameron, fan artist whose illustrations have recently graced the pages of ALGOL, HABBAKUK, and other fanzines, was wounded in the leg during a recent VC attack on his base. He was, fortunately, not seriously injured, but did receive a Purple Heart because of his injury. Cameron is one of several fans now stationed in South Vietnam, and has the dubious distinction of being the first fan to be wounded in the armed forces in the line of duty in some fifteen years.

PEACE MARCH, EAST AND WEST: The Peace March in New York, held April 15th, attracted some 400,000 people, according to its leaders, or 125,000, according to the police. Likewise, the March held at the same time in San Francisco contained 75,000, according to Bob Lichtman, or 20,000 according to the NYTimes. It's hard to tell who to believe...

Fans marching in New York included John Boardman, myself, Cory Seidman, Dan Goodman, Mike McInerney, Barbara Dodge, David Chute of Maine, Al Scott from Cleveland, and another fan from Cleveland, whose name I have unfortunately misplaced.

Fans marching in the West Coast demonstration included Bob & Margo Lichtman, Grania Davidson, Lou & Cynthia Goldstone, and possibly Harlan Ellison. Fans seen along the route included Greg Shaw, editor of Mojo-Navigator, and a host of others, most of whom weren't there...

Bob Lichtman (our Spy for this news item) reports "Bob Chazin threw a Big Party last weekend which saw fans mingling with unnameable hippie types, a light show, strobe lights, loud music, and hard likker. Bob Lichtman, who was in attendance and who was the means of transportation for the San Francisco contingent (Avram Davidson & Friend, Grania Davidson & Dick Gumbiner, Margo and me), got Real Drunk to his surprise ("Five scotch and sodas shouldn't do that!") and had to be Sobered Up. Others in attendance included the Knights, the Nelsons, Ed Clinton, Carla Moore, Bill Rickhardt, and many others."

Bill Donaho, in an admirable duplication of efforts supplies further names: Dan Curran, Ardis Waters, Dick & Sharon Karpinski, Vern & J'Ann Fogue, Al Halevy, and Bill Donaho.

Furthermore, April 2nd, Emil Petaja had a party for Don Wollheim, who was visiting the BArea on business or something. Attendees included Don, Elsie, & Elizabeth Wollheim, Emil Petaja, Bill Donaho, Sid & Alva Rogers, Ed & JoAnn Wood, Les Anderson, and E.T. Cetera.

Stay tuned for more scintillating sentences next week.
