

DEGLER! 63

is published by Andy Porter at 24 E. 82nd street
New York, NY 28
for apa F #47.

And, as you may notice, I'm trying to develop a new logo for Degler!, one which will be a little better than the one I've been using. The very simple one above is also much more attractive than what I've been using, as the title stands out considerably more than it used to. After all, look what's happened to DVA's two zines; he's done away with the very effective logo that he had, and the type is encroaching on the title.

+++++

THE NEXT MEETING will be held at my house; the next Fanoclast meeting, that is.

To get there by subway, take the IRT Lex Ave. line to 86th st., (an express stop) and walk two blocks over to the west and 4 blocks downtown. Apartment #E3C; ring the bell to get into the building, and come after 7:00 PM.

+++++

THE REASON that I'm dropping the idea, for the most part, of putting out the Metro-fan, is rather simple. Dave has convinced me that with all my other fanac, I simply won't have any time left for other things, like schoolwork, if I persist in starting this new venture. I will take it on if I can get several other people within NYC to help me on specific details, such as typing masters, organizing material, etc; but this I seriously doubt I can get. I tender my apologies to John Boardman, Jim Sanders, the members of apa F, and most especially to Dave MacDonald, who was really enthusiastic over the idea. Sorry, people.

+++++

Mailing comments appear below, and are entirely Andy Silverberg's opinions. Cover, Stiles: Steve, does this mean anything or is it just a design? I can't find anything in it, really.

maLaise #31, DJV: So you thot I was lying, huh? Fine friend you are! I never lie; after all, ain't I the son of Ghod? Actually, I'd rather not have certain things go into the Best from Apa L; I'd much rather have them appear in Algol, in revised form, of course. Hey, Dave, will you still vote for Lindsay for mayor now that He's renounced the Repub party and gone Independent?

OFO #46, Lupoffs: I have this past Tuesday sent the Lupoffs the past 4 mailings, and from now on intend to act as their agent, sending them the mailing as soon as possible after getting it, so maybe they can stay up to date. And I wd further suggest that artists resident in NYC and LA send Dick some ill-os for use in filling up the void in the upper left-hand corner of opo.

3 Artists #63; DJV: You mean four artists, don't you?

Widget Factory, Latkins: Beautiful lino there on the bottom, man. But no hooks..

Tangent, Al Scott: Cut your class to get the apa F mailing? There lies the w y to defeat and death, buddy. Slowly but surely the fanac will become more important than the schoolwork, and presto! you will proceed to flunk out. Just like me.

A diplomacy game in apa F? Hell, NO! That, I can firmly say, is a subject that most of us are firmly tired of.

Semicrossoid, Chambermaid: Black, I say, black, black, Black, BLACK!!!

Peering Tom #1, Don Bensen: And how is Fyramid Books?

fannishly, Andy Forter end for this week; I'll also have Hi, Arnie #2 in here.