VICE-PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

Our deadline for receiving ideas and suggestions on how to conduct the Egoboo Poll was December 31, 1968, as stated in THE FANTASY AMATEUR 125.

As of today (January 5, 1969), we have received no written commentaries, ideas or suggestions re the Poll. We did hear one or two suggestions at the Baycon FAPA Meeting, and a couple of the local members have also mentioned an idea or so, but none of these ideas or comments added anything new to our own thinking on the subject.

So the Egoboo Poll, as presented in this Mailing, is pretty much the way we think it should be. We have simplified it as much as we think is practical. There are a couple of changes in categories, in that we separated fiction from poetry, and artist from cartoonist. Fiction and poetry are two different things, each deserving a category of its own. However, they were assigned fewer voting points than the other categories because there simply isn't as much fiction and poetry being published in FAPA as there are articles, etc.

The other separation is because we feel that all cartoonists aren't necessarily artists, though many artists do cartoons, as well as non-humorous artwork. Having a separate category for each does NOT prevent you from voting for your favorite artist in BOTH categories, and gives you the opportunity to vote for cartoons that may have been done by members who make no claim to being artists.

Perhaps we have put too much of our own personal interpretations into the designing of this poll, but with little or no help from the membership, we are not going to become too concerned over possible criticism of what we have done. If you don't like it, say so--and, more important, be sure that your next vice-president knows how you feel about it. Commenting in your zine may or may not do any good. Writing directly to the v-p is the best way to get the v-p's attention.

Considering the lack of response to recent Egoboo polls, it is quite possible that the lack of response to our request for ideas and suggestions is only further confirmation of the theory that the greater majority of the membership isn't really interested in the poll, and that only a very few would scream if it were dropped.

Will this simplification of the poll inspire more members to vote--or will most of the membership still find it too much trouble to participate? We'll have the answer to that question in our report next quarter, won't we?

We want to take this opportunity to advise everybody that Rick Sneary is Zoltan Zzyzzk, or at least he was when publishing The Bacon Report in last quarter's MOONSHINE. We make this revelation here, as there may not be an issue of MOONSHINE in this mailing.

Best wishes,

Len & June Moffatt

FAPA EGOBOO POLL 1968

Send completed poll sheets to: The Moffatts, 9826 Paramount Blvd., Downey, Calif. 90240. Overseas members' deadline: April 15, 1969; everybody else: April 1, 1969.

RULES: Material covered is that contained in, or postmailed to, Mailings 122 through 125. When voting, vote for individuals, not couples. Votes for oneself and for non-members will not be counted. All ballots must be signed legibly. No points will be given for participating in this poll. Vote full points in every instance. Fractional-point votes ($\frac{1}{4}$ point, $\frac{1}{2}$ point, etc.) will not be counted.

Each category has either 3, 5, or 10 points. This means that you can vote the total number of points assigned to any one category to just one person or item, or split the points among several persons or items, as long as the total points used is not more than the total assigned to that category. And, obviously, you cannot vote for more persons or items in a category than there are points in that category. (Example: In a 10-point category, you may vote for as many as ten or as few as one.)

Under Section 9.2 of the FAPA Constitution, I object to the following persons on the Waiting List:

SIGNED _____

THE FAPA CONSTITUTION

1. FUNCTION: The Fantasy Amateur Press Association (FAPA) operates in the general field of amateur activity that has grown up around interest in fantasy fiction. Its quarterly mailings distribute to its members material written or published by members.
2. MEMBERS:
 - 2.1 Not more than 65 persons can be members of FAPA at any one time.
 - 2.2 Membership is open to anyone who can show, as proof of his interest in fantasy amateur activity, the existence of one of the following credentials:
 - 2.21 That he has had contributions, in the form of verse, drawings, fiction or non-fiction, published in two fantasy amateur publications that were not produced in the same metropolitan area.
 - 2.22 That he has been the editor or publisher, in a real sense, of at least one issue of a fantasy amateur publication (fanzine).
 - 2.3 An individual who desires to join FAPA shall send to the Secretary-treasurer an application stating his desire to join, and citing credentials as described under section 2.2 of this constitution. The credentials must have been published not more than one year prior to the date of application. The Secretary-treasurer shall determine whether the credentials are valid; if so, he shall admit the person to FAPA membership on payment of dues. If there is no vacancy and the credentials are valid, the applicant shall be admitted to a waiting list as of the date his application is received by the Secretary-treasurer. The waiting list shall be maintained by the Secretary-treasurer and shall be published in the official organ each quarter. Copies of the official organ shall be sent each quarter to each person on the waiting list. The Secretary-treasurer shall require from each person on the waiting list a flat subscription fee for the FANTASY AMATEUR, on a calendar year basis; one year at a time, no extra years accepted, pro rata for parts of a year; non-receipt of such indication shall be considered grounds for removal from the waiting list. As vacancies in the membership occur, the Secretary-treasurer shall notify the person who applied the earliest, at which time the individual shall again cite valid credentials, published within a year from the date his membership is to begin, and must pay dues. In all cases, membership begins upon the date set for the next quarterly mailing unless a different date is set by the Secretary-treasurer.
 - 2.4 A new member must have renewal credentials distributed with the third mailing after his joining, or with an earlier mailing or postmailing following his admission; otherwise he shall receive only the first two mailings of his membership year, his membership shall be cancelled and his dues forfeit.
 - 2.5 Husband and wife, each having acceptable credentials, may establish and maintain a joint membership, which shall be regarded as a single person for payment of dues, receipt of mailings, voting in elections, signing petitions, and holding office.
3. RENEWALS:
 - 3.1 To renew his membership a member must have renewal credentials. Renewal credentials consist of contributions in the form of verse, drawings, fiction or non-fiction, or at least one issue of a fantasy amateur publication (fanzine) of which the member has been the editor or publisher, in a real sense. Renewal credentials must total 8 1/2 x 11 pages or the equivalent in page area. Letters will not count unless they represent a substantial contribution to FAPA. To count, renewal credentials must be distributed in FAPA mailings or postmailings during the year that ends when the fourth quarterly mailing under the member's current membership is sent out. Postmailings that are not distributed before the fourth quarterly mailing do not count. Reprints do not count unless they represent substantial work in rewriting or compiling the material. (This provision shall not serve to deny credit to material solely because it was distributed outside FAPA shortly prior to its inclusion in a FAPA mailing.)

3.2 If a member fails to have renewal credentials, due to section 5.56, an error of an officer, or postal delays beyond what might be reasonably and cautiously expected, he shall, if he offers dues in time, have an additional quarter in which to make up his credential deficiency. In these cases dues will be refundable. The member will not receive the fifth mailing unless his credential deficiency is removed, nor will further extensions be granted.

3.3 On endorsement by 22 members, a member's lack of renewal credentials shall be waived on a particular occasion.

3.4 Renewal dues must be paid so as to be received by the treasurer on or before the mailing date of the fourth mailing under the member's current membership.

3.5 On endorsement of 12 other members, a member will be granted an extension of one mailing to fulfill renewal requirements on a particular occasion. To be effective, all endorsements under this section or section 3.3 must reach the secretary treasurer fifteen days before the deadline of the mailing affected.

4. FINANCES: 4.1 Dues are $3.00 per year for members in North America and $2.00 for overseas members. The treasurer will accept donations. The Official Editor will, at an annual sale, sell surplus stock to members, or persons on the waiting list, at such reasonable prices as he may set, the net proceeds being turned over to the treasury.

4.2 If it appears that the treasury will lack funds to cover the cost of the next mailing, the Secretary-treasurer can notify the membership of an equal assessment on all members, sufficient to meet expected costs and provide a small reserve. Members not paying the assessment will not receive that mailing until they pay the assessment, within a time limit of six months.

5. MAILINGS: 5.1 The Official Editor shall send out identical bundles to all members immediately following the mailing dates. The mailing dates are the second Saturday in November, February, May, and August.

5.2 When necessary in order to get information to the members, officers may make mailings at FAPA expense between regular mailing dates. Other publications sent in by members may be distributed with such mailings if those members agree to pay any additional cost involved. The Official Editor, as an individual, and other members, sometimes send publications to the members at other times. The expense of such unofficial mailings is not chargeable to the treasury.

5.3 Fanzines distributed between regular mailing dates are counted as postmailings to the preceeding mailing under these conditions:

5.31 Identical mailings have been sent to all members at substantially the same time, and additional copies, to bring the total to 68, have been furnished the Official Editor.

5.32 The publication satisfies sections 5.52 through 5.54.

5.4 Members are not obligated to distribute their fanzines through FAPA, but all items included in the mailing are produced at the publisher's expense and free to the members, being considered as exchanges.

5.5 Publications in the Official Editor's hands by the mailing date shall be included in the quarterly bundle if they meet these requirements:

5.51 Sixty-eight copies (to provide a margin for error) are furnished.

5.52 They are printed, imieographed, hektographed, dittoed, photographed, or legibly reproduced in some other way that gives a sufficient number of identical copies.

5.53 The 68 copies are identical in size, artwork, typography, wording, etc, except for serial numbering, if desired.

5.54 They represent to a substantial extent the work of the member who sends them in.

5.55 They conform to the requirements for second, third and/or fourth class postage.

5.56 While some relation to fantasy or fandom is desirable, there is no restriction on the type of material except that it may not violate federal law. If such a violation comes to his attention, the Official Editor shall exclude the item from the mailing.

5.57 They do not require special packaging. Material which requires special packaging due to its size, shape or weight may be mailed separately by the OE at the expense of the member submitting the material. The OE is not obligated to provide this service.

6. OFFICERS: 6.1 The following officers are elected annually from the membership:

6.11 The President. He has general direction of the FAPA's affairs. He appoints members to fill vacated offices, appoints a teller for the annual elections, and may appoint auxilliary officers for other purposes. He has whatever power is necessary to deal with situations not otherwise covered by this constitution.

6.12 The Vice-President. He becomes President if the presidency is vacated. In case of a controversy over the meaning of this constitution, after two or more sides have been formally presented by others, the Vice-President shall decide, and his decision is binding. He conducts an annual egoboo poll and furnishes the results to the Official Editor for inclusion in the FANTASY AMATUER.

6.13 The Secretary-treasurer. He receives membership applications, renewals, and filings for office. He keeps track of members' standings in regard to renewal credentials. Each quarter he shall send to the Official Editor a list of members' names and addresses, an identification of the credentials of new members, a report of income and outgo, on other information within the scope of his duties. He shall furnish the Official Editor information for preparing the ballot. He must keep FAPA's funds separate from his own, in cash or deposit. At the end of his term he shall turn over the records and funds to his successor. The Secretary-treasurer must be at least 21 years of age.

6.41 The Official Editor. He shall assemble and send out the mailing. He has custody of the surplus stock. He shall publish election ballots and the official organ, THE FANTASY AMATEUR. THE FANTASY AMATEUR shall appear in each quarterly mailing and shall contain information about postmailings, a list of the current mailing's contents, the reports of the various officials, the text of any proposals to be voted on, and other appropriate material at the Official Editor's discretion. The Constitution shall be included in THE FANTASY AMATEUR not less often than once every six months.

6.2 Each officer serves until his successor is elected and notified, unless he first resigns, loses his membership, or is expelled from office.

6.3 Although each officer is responsible for the duties indicated, he may have the help of others in performing them.

6.4 In the absence of a formal controversy, each officer may decide for himself dubious points concerning his duties.

7. ELECTIONS: 7.1 Elections are held by mail. Candidates whose names are to appear on the ballot must file with the Secretary-treasurer in writing. The ballots shall be included in the summer (August) mailing, except that ballots for use of overseas members shall be mailed to them first class or airmail at the time the summer mailing is posted.

7.2 All votes, to be counted, must be in the teller's hands a month after the mailing is dispatched. The teller shall notify all members of the results of the election within two weeks after the ballot deadline.

7.3 A plurality is sufficient to elect.

7.4 No person can be elected President, or Vice-President, more than once in five years.

8. AMENDMENTS: Proposed amendments to this Constitution, in writing, endorsed by four members, no more than two of whom are officers, shall be submitted to vote. The proposers shall send a copy, with the signatures, to the President, and other copies to the other officers. The gist of the amendment must be given in THE FANTASY AMATEUR before it comes up for a vote. Unless the President orders a special vote, amendments shall be voted on at the annual election. A majority of the votes must be favorable for the amendment to be adopted, and such majority must be more than $\frac{1}{2}$ of the membership.

9. SPECIAL RULES: 9.1 Special rules may be adopted at any time a majority of the members endorse a copy of the proposal, if the proposal has been sent to the entire membership at substantially the same time. Such special rules may refuse applicants, expel members, remove officers, override official acts, suspend sections of this Constitution, or do anything else within the sovereignty of the organization.

9.2 The Vice-President shall distribute, with the annual egoboo poll, and as a part thereof, an official form on which the members may list names of waiting-listers to whom they object. The Vice-President informs the Secretary-treasurer of the results of this portion of the poll, and does not tabulate it as part of the egoboo poll. In the mailing following the distribution of the poll, the OE will distribute a ballot listing the names, to be voted on individually, of any waiting listers objected to by 10 or more members. This ballot shall have an approximate two months voting deadline, and shall be tabulated by the Secretary-treasurer. A list of those voting shall be published in the FA, but not how they voted individually. Any such waiting lister receiving more unfavorable than favorable votes in this balloting shall be dropped from the waiting list and barred from it and from the FAPA for the next four mailings.

The Secretary-Treasurer's Report

Membership:

As of 7 Feb, 1969, the following is the status of the FAPA membership. Symbols used in the following roster are:

- D - dues of $4.00/year for North American members, $2.50/year for overseas, are due by May 10, 1969.
- $ - dues are due by Feb 8, and have not yet been received. If not in before you read this, you are out, unless you invoke Sect. 3.3, 3.5, or 9.1
- A - the number of standard pages indicated following the renewal month must be published before or in the next mailing to make you eligible to renew. Material in this mailing has not yet been credited.
- ATM - activity as indicated is due in this mailing, or postmailed before the mailing deadline, Feb 8.
- A May - as a new member, Sect 2.4 requires that you publish your first year's renewal credits of 8 pages before or in the third mailing, or your membership is cancelled, and you do not get that mailing - the one indicated
- [1] - funds on deposit. I have deducted, where enough was on deposit, for February renewals, but not for May.

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

I've had no response via letter to the query herein last quarter. I suspect there may be some in individual FAPAazines. Either that, or the pressure is off as witness the reduced number of Waiting Listers. So much for that. No other business has come about in this, the normally unbusy office.

The Vice President duo also received no suggestions regarding the Laureate Poll, the ballot for which is included with this mailing. Sixteen members' ballots were received last year. Maybe interest will be up a little this year?
