Well all you lucky little fans, as we have been promising you for lo these many months, we are going to have an auction. Benefits will go to TAFF, which has its tongue sort of hanging out for the money.

As you most certainly ought to know by now, TAFF (or the Trans Atlantic Fan Fund, as it is more mundanely known) finances a visit to America by one of the Anglofen each season, and then finances a reciprocal (or "get even") trip to England by one of our own home grown nuts.

The U.S. candidates this year are Bruce Pelz, Marion Bradley, and Wally (Whatnot) Weber. In order to railroad one of them out of the country and out of our hair for a while takes a certain amount of financial stability on the part of TAFF. That is where you come in. We are offering you the chance to help send the idiot of your choice to England. All you have to do is come to the Silverlake Playground at about 8:45 on the 6th of June (Yes, that is this coming Thursday.) and spend a little money. I mean, it isn't like we were asking for a complete collection of Cry or something. Just a few lousy bucks, thats all we want.

For a miserly sum, an absolute pittance, you can aquire such treasures as a western hat decorated with Rotsler illos, a stack of rare old Amazings, artwork, and the everlasting gratitude of the TAFF representatives.

Okay, now you got that strait (err, straight?) we meet at the Silverlake Playground around 8:45. LASFS meets at the usual time - somewhere between 8:00pm and 8:30- but we faithfully promise to have all the fooferaw out of the way by 8:45. (We may even get rid of its publisher too.) Now, doesn't that sound like a air enough deal? All right then, we'll see you on Thursday.

POLLING TIME AT LASFS

Yes, all you sweet people, the time is once again drawing nigh when you shall have the chance to choose which bunch of kooks shall have the opportunity to harrass the LASFS speakers, bilk the treasury, and otherwise behave in a true LASFSian manner. Now, it has come to the attention of the so called "in group" that numerous people have been dissatisfied with the manner in which the meetings are currently being conducted. The "in group" wants it fully understood that they have no intention of flying under false colors. Listed below is the platform upon which the "in group" will be running, together with a list of the subscribing members. If LASFS expects to get anything else, they will have to see that a good loyal club fan is elected. If they elect any member of the group listed below, they will have no gripe coming in the future.

- I. Of every four club discussions, two shall be given over to comics, 1 to fanzines, and one to promags, movies, and SF.
- II. The members of the executive committee shall appear in costume at no less than two of the four monthly meetings.
- III. There will be at least three parties during the half year, at which costumes will be mandatory.
- IV. The Executive Committee shall reserve the right to harrass, interrupt, and otherwise annoy whoever has the floor.
- V. The meetings will take place at any location chosen by the officers, with only one weeks notice given to the membership.
- VI. Any of the above may be changed at any time, depending upon the whims of the officers.
