

COSTUME PARTY

The (n)th Annual LASFS Hallowe'en Party will be held again this year, on -- of all nights -- Hallowe'en. If you don't have a religious calendar handy, this will be the night of Saturday the 31st of October. The party will probably run through most of Sunday too, but don't worry; there are all denominations of churches within walking distance of the location of the celebration.

The aliens, monsters, and other fans will assemble at 8 o'clock and any time thereafter, at the Labrynth of Valeron c/w Tara III -- 619 South Hobart Boulevard, Los Angeles 5. If you get lost, call either DU 5-1259 or DU 3-5688. The former rings upstairs and the latter rings down... but that is explained elsewhere. The party will be held in both locations simultaneously.

Naturally, everyone will be expected to be in some sort of costume. Also, you wild non-conformists, nobody will be barred if they don't have a costume. You can come in a business suit, pajamas, beach togs, or nothing at all (if you're a girl) and all you'll lose is a chance at a prize (unless you're a girl in nothing at all, in which case you stand a very good chance of winning a couple of prizes, one of which we can't publicise).

A certain amount of refreshments will be supplied, including mix, but you'll have to bring your own alcohol. Bring a lot, because the party will last a long time, and there will probably be plenty of people who didn't and will be able to talk you out of some of yours.

There will be prizes for the costumes, as implied above, in six categories. Four will be specific - Most Authentic, Most Beautiful, Most Monsterous, and Most Humorous. Two more will be Judges' Choice, optional. This means if they don't think anything is worth an extra prize, there will be no extra prize. That's what comes of having objectivist judges. The prizes will not be books, this year, but will be 4X5 color prints suitable for framing (or maybe even framed) of the prize-winning costume, with a beautifully hand-lettered citation. Each prize-winning costume will be photographed several times in color, and the prize-winner will have his choice of which picture he likes best to have blown up and printed. The costumes will also be shot in black-and-white, and used as a photocover on a forthcoming issue of SHAGGY.

IN PRECIS: LASFS Hallowe'en party -- 8 pm et seq Saturday 31 October -- 619 South Hobart Boulevard, Los Angeles 5 -- DU 5-1259 / DU 3-5688. BYOB. Oh yes, it'll cost a dollar a head or fraction thereof, or a dollar and a half for couples. Profits go to the Club House Fund, of course.

LASFS auction

The regular LASFS Quarterly Auction For The Clubhouse Fund will be held at the regular weekly meeting on Thursday the 29th of October at the Silverlake Playground. If you don't know where this is, you should keep in better touch, but we'll forgive you if you show up with money. Call LASFS Information Headquarters, DU 5-1259 or DU 3-5688, just about any time and ask anything.

As usual, the auction will be conducted by Walter J. Daugherty, famous for pulling in over $120 for the Clubhouse fund last time. There will be hundreds of books, original illustrations and paintings, old fanzines, ape mailings, prozines, and assorted miscellany of all sorts. The meeting will start right on time at 8 or a little earlier, so be there a little early, and don't forget your money -- or donations to the Cause.

"ME"

"ME" will be a regular feature of the LASAS Newsletter as long as the artist keeps getting ideas or having people give him ideas. This is another First for the LASFS Newsletter. Subscribe now and follow "ME"!

On Thursday the 5th of November, the LASFS Meeting will not be held at Silverlake Playground. Everyone is invited to gether instead at RUDI'S, a fine resturant located at 3773 Crenshaw, for the Special LASFS 30th Anniversary Meeting and Banquet. The meal will be the best in the house, Sirloin Steak, with several full-dinner-type courses. Eat lightly for several days beforehand, that you may be able properly to appreciate it. Send $3 for each reservation to Ted Johnstone, 619 South Hobart Blvd, L A 5 and do it now. The money covers the meal, tax, tip, and 35¢ dues for the meeting. Entertainment will include the presentation of the Evans- Freehafer Award for Sorvice to the LASFS, and a Big Name Beloved Guest Speaker. Send your money NOW, because we have to turn in the reservations to RUDI'S by Monday the 2nd.

IN PRECIS: LASFS 30th Anniversary Dinner -- RUDI'S, 3773 Crenshaw -- 8 pm, Thursday 5 November -- $3 in advance to Ted Johnstone for reservations.

DEPT. OF MISSING PERSONS: Anyone having any idea of the whereabouts of Carl "Pip-pin" Spreitzer, please contact the editor of the Newsletter. He has disappeared, and his parents, his friends, and his Commanding Officer are getting worried about him.

DEPT. OF MISSING NEWSLETTERS: The address below is the best one we have for you. If there is anything at all wrong with it, please drop us a line correctng it. Also, as you may have noticed, the Newsletter has changed hands again. We will be attempting a fairly bi-weekly schedule, and will publish selected correspondence to fill our page allotment. We will also start cutting back on the mailing list, so drop us a line if you still love us, and we will hold you in our hearts and on our file cards.

If you don't get this issue, drop us a note and we'll send you another copy. If you do, you know you are Not Forgotten. Do us the same favor, and drop it on a meeting sometime.
