1. Sorry that we could not get a notice out last week. Things have been very, very busy. Most people I know seem to be interrupt-driven in their job. They continue feverishly working on some high-priority item until another item of super-high-priority pulls rank and pushes it out. Well, my job has now gone beyond the interrupt-driven stage. These days it is more in the Whack-a-Mole stage. I guess that is why the notice doesn't get as much attention as it deserves (or doesn't).

2. However, we are getting two out this week--this one and the regular one on Friday. This is just a reminder about the meeting Wednesday. To make indexing easier, this issue will carry last Friday's date. [-ecl]
