

How to catch a Sasquatch

by Bobby George Poulette

Hear theres
controbersy ever
whether or not there is a Sasquatch. Well, I
knew how to end it.
What ya gotta do is this. Set a trap.
get some prunes.
And put em on a giant mousetrap.

Then the Sasquatch ill come along and eat the prunes. And after a while he won't leave the place because of you know what. Then you can say Hey there's a Sasquatch. They do exist. And everyone ill be happy cept them skeptics who will still say the saasquatch dont exist.
Cause seein is believin. Lke with these pink elephants or my cousin Randolph.
