ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

For the past ten years in this endless quest to find all Tolkien related publications, I have had help from quite a few people. I would like to acknowledge the people who have helped me track down many of the issues that will be microfilmed in this project: Joe Christopher, Paul Ritz, Christina Scull, Jessica Yates, Nils Ivar Agøy, Manfred Zimmermann, Chuck Elston, Nancy Martsch, Bruce Pelz, Ken Nahigian, David Kopaska-Merkel, Eric Ralph, Nicholas Widdows, Taum Santoski, Anders Reutersward, Laura Ruskin, Patrik Sjowall, Lester Simons, Lee Speth, Anders Stenström, Richard West, Bernie Zuber, Jim Allan, Renee Alper, David Bratman, Frank Denton, Brin Dunsire, Anne Etkin, John Houghton, Anthea Hughes, Polly Johnson, and Catherine Litsenius.

Special thanks should also go to Nicholas Widdows who provided me with information to straighten out publication dates and number of the Fellowship of Middle Earth's publications and to Charles Noad, whose Chronology of Events relating to the Tolkien Society is invaluable for dating old British Tolkien fanzines.

11 June 1988

Much water has passed under the Brandywine Bridge since 1988. Many fanzines were produced since then and many have failed or merged with other fanzines. I have tried to complete a full list of all of those that are no longer being published. There are some holes in the information but I am hoping that it will not detract from the overall effect of the great number of Tolkien fanzines that have existed over the last 40 years.

BIBLIOGRAPHIC NOTES

Bibliographic material is, at times, difficult to come by when dealing with small press publications. Numbering can be non-existent or irregular. Editors use pseudonyms. Dates are given in Elvish. All in all, fans are an odd lot and do not have a standard way of doing things. Therefore, I have tried to make some rules (which sometimes are bent) when providing this bibliographic information. Each entry is covered below.

Title: This is pretty straight forward, although in some cases the editors will change the spelling on a whim (see Stormcrow).

Date of Publication: If the date is preceded by "? –" there were issues published before the given date. If the date is followed by "– ?" there were issues published after the given date. If no date is given explicitly but the date is known then the date is given in brackets. If the date is estimated, it is shown followed by a question mark and is in brackets.

Imprint: Very few magazines have a publisher, though if it is shown, I will mention it. There are always references to publishers such as "Pant-hoot" or "Permanent Press" but I have overlooked these. Instead I have stated whether the issues have been published for an organization or independently published. Usually the place of publication is the address of the editor, where may change over time.

Editor(s): It is often the case that there is only one editor or a throng of editors. The former is probably the case of "It's mine until they pry my cold dead hands off of my typewriter" while the latter may be "I did it last time, it's your turn." If a pseudonym is used, I have tried to provide the real name of the editor in brackets.

Other Information: This is grapevine material or hearsay. I have also tried to include the editor's or the organization's other publications, if any.

Issues Microfilmed: Marquette University microfilmed these fanzines. The first occurrence of a date or number on the publication is used as seen first. Bracketing is used as it is in the information for "Date of Publication". Items in italics that follow the number and date are printing process, size, and number of pages. An asterisk following the printing process means that the copy that I have is a photocopy reproduction.

Issues Not Microfilmed: These were obtained after the microfilm project with Marquette University was completed or they were viable during the time of the microfilming. Numbering, date, etc. follow the same model as above.

Title: A Elbereth Gilthoniel!

Dates of Publication: April 1978 - 1980

Imprint: Fellowship of Middle Earth at Monash University in Clayton, Victoria, Australia

Editors: Gordon Thompson, Jeff Green, Philip Anderson, Mike Davidson

Other Information: The magazine evolved into a general fantasy magazine, which included original poetry and fiction. After it changed its name to Elbereth, it continued to move away from Tolkien as its main subject. The FoME also published Newsletter.Fellowship of Middle Earth and Stormcrow. Rohendil and Gordon Thompson also edited Stormcrow. Numbering of issues is confusing.

Issues Microfilmed:

[1978: Issues Number 1], [April 1978]. *Mimeo?, A4, four pages.

[1978: Issue Number 2], [May? - August? 1978]. *Mimeo?, A4, ? pages.

[1979: Issue Number 2], [1979], [ed. Jeff Green]. Photocopy, A4, 32 pages.

[1979: Issue Number 3], 1979, ed. Gordon Thompson. Photocopy, A4, 41 pages.

Vol. 4; No. 1., 1980, ed. Philip Anderson. Photocopy?, A4, 38 pages.

vol. 4; no. 2,3, 1980, ed. Mike Davidson and Philip Anderson. Offset?, A4, 66 pages.

Title: A Few Words about Bilbo Bentscliffe

Date of Publication: June 1960

Imprint: Independently published in Eccleshill, Bradford, England.

Editor: Mal Ashworth

Other Information: This was a one-shot fanzine. It was used as a vehicle to promote Eric Bentscliffe, in hopes of making him a TAFF (Transatlantic Fan Fund) recipient. TAFF winners had their expenses paid to attend the World Science Fiction Convention.

Issue Microfilmed:

[no number], June, 1960. Mimeo, , two pages.

Title: Akallabêth

Dates of Publication: August 1977 - September 1978

Imprint: National Organization for Tolkien in Scranton, Pennsylvania.

Editors: Michael Logan, Tom Santoski

Other Information: This was the bulletin of NOT; its journal was Chronicles (later Chronicles of the King), which was edited by Logan and Santoski. Tom edited Lendarin & Danian, and Simbelmynë. Issue number 3-4 was never completed and distributed to members. Akallabêth is Adûnaic for "Downfall" (referring to Númenor).

Issues Microfilmed:

[1], August, 1977, ed. Michael Logan and Tom Santoski. Offset, 5½" x 8", four pages.

5, February 1978, ed. Michael Logan and Tom Santoski. Offset, 5½" x 8", four pages.

6, May 1978, ed. Tom Santoski. Offset, 5½" x 8", four pages.

7, September 1978, ed. Tom Santoski. Offset, 5½" x 8", four pages.

Issues Not Microfilmed:

[2], [1978], [ed. Michael Logan and Tom Santoski]. Photocopy?, 11" x 8½", two pages.*

3-4, [1978]. 5½" x 8", one page.

Title: Amon Dîn

Dates of Publication: November 5, 1972 - November 25, 1973

Imprint: Tolkien Society of Treewood in Englewood, Colorado

Editor: Steve Porter

Other Information: Steve Porter went on to publish Eryn Galadh (one issue in 1974). He changed his name to Seraphim Theofan when he became a monk. Amon Dîn is Sindarin for "Hill of Hearing".

Issues Microfilmed:

VOLUME ONE NUMBER ONE, NOV. 5 1972. Photocopy, 8½" x 11", three pages.*

VOLUME ONE, NUMBER TWO, NOVEMBER 12, 1972. Photocopy, 8½" x 11", three pages.*

VOLUME ONE, NUMBER THREE, DECEMBER 17, 1972. Photocopy, 8½" x 11", three pages.*

VOLUME TWO, NUMBER ONE, JANUARY 21, 1973. Photocopy, 8½" x 11", six pages.*

VOLUME TWO, NUMBER TWO, MARCH 4, 1973. Photocopy, 8½" x 11", six pages.*

VOLUME TWO, NUMBER THREE, JUNE 10, 1973. Photocopy, 8½" x 11", 11 pages.*

VOL. TWO, NO. FOUR, SEPTEMBER 2, 1973. Photocopy, 8½" x 11", seven pages.*

No. 8, [25] NOVEMBER 1973. Photocopy, 8½" x 11", 10 pages.*

Title: Andúril

Date of Publication: Summer 1962

Imprint: Independently published in Rochester, Texas.

Editors: Marion Bradley, David Bradley, Paul Zimmer

Other Information: Marion Zimmer Bradley and Paul Zimmer are both well-established fantasy authors. MZB said that further issues of Andúril were not published due to rumors that Tolkien did not like the fanzine.

Issue Microfilmed:

number one, Summer 1962. Mimeo, 8½" x 11", 30 pages.*

Title: Anduril

Dates of Publication: January 1972 - February 1979

Imprint: The Tolkien Society and independently published in Bushey, Herts., England, Skelmersdale, Lancs., England., and Nr. Wigan, Lancs., England.

Editor: John Martin

Other Information: This magazine was subtitled "the bulletin of the Tolkien Society" for the first three issues. As other bulletins came onto the scene, Anduril was made into a "magazine of fantasy" and was subtitled as such. It usually carried something about Tolkien in each issue.

Issues Microfilmed:

No. 0, Jan. 1972. Mimeo, , 14 pages.

1, April 1972. Offset, , 37 pages.

2, June 1972. *Offset, , 36 pages.

3, Nov. 1972. Offset, , 48 pages.

4, July, 1974. Litho, , 40 pages.

number 5, July 1975. *Litho?, , 36 pages.

Issue 6, August, 1976. Offset, A4, 48 pages.

Issue No. 7, February, 1979. Offset, A4, 52 pages.

Title: Ancalagon

Dates of Publication: March 1961 - ?

Imprint: Philadelphia Science Fiction Society in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania.

Editor: George R. Heap

Other Information: Although not strictly a Tolkien fanzine, it does include some Tolkien items. George Heap contributed to the first issue of I Palantir. Ancalagon was the name of a dragon mentioned (at that time only) in The Lord of the Rings.

Issues Microfilmed:

#1, March, 1961. *Mimeo, 8½" x 11", 10 pages.

#2, April, 1961. *Mimeo, 8½" x 11", 10 pages.

#3, May, 1961. *Mimeo, 8½" x 11", six pages.

Title: Angerthas Offprint

Date of Publication: 1983?

Imprint: Arthedain – Norges Tolkienforening in Oslo, Norway.

Editor: Johan Schimanski

Other Information: This was a one-shot which gave English translations of early articles appearing in Angerthas. English information was later incorporated within the pages of Angerthas.

Issue Not Microfilmed:

[no number], [1983?]. Mimeo, A4, two pages.

Title: Angmarrim Tiri

Dates of Publication: December 1991 - ?

Imprint: Angmar Malmö Tolkiensällskap of Malmö, Sweden

Editor: Linus Svensson

Other Information: This group is closely associated with the Forodrim.

Issue Not Microfilmed:

Nummer 1, December 1991. Photocopy, A4, 16 pages.

Title: Annúminas

Dates of Publication: May 1977 - April 1982

Imprint: The Chicagoland Tolkien Society and American Hobbit Association in Wilmette, Illinois.

Editors: Various (see below).

Other Information: The publication was originally the newsletter of Minas Aearon (The Chicagoland Tolkien Society), later to be the American Hobbit Association. The name of the magazine was related to the original name of the group, Minas Aearon, which meant "'Tower by the Great Sea' in Sindarin, referring to the skyscrapers of Chicago on the shore of Lake Michigan." Annúminas is Sindarin for "Tower of the West". Annúminas became The Rivendell Review in 1982.

Title: Appendix

Dates of Publication: December 1975 - December 1979

Imprint: American Tolkien Society in Union Lake, Michigan.

Editors: Phil and Marci Helms

Other Information: This was the monthly bulletin of the ATS. Appendix was incorporated into its quarterly journal, Minas Tirith Evening-Star, hence the 'missing' letters and the occasional Supplement to Appendix. The name is taken to mean an addition to Tolkien's own appendices found in The Lord of the Rings.

Title: Apples Be Ripe

Date of Publication: 1991

Imprint: Unnamed smial of the Tolkien Society in Brighton, England

Editor: Ian Collier

Other Information: This smialzine became Gondtengwen after issue two and the smial chose the name Armar in Ruthondudun Ost in Vanyar Llachatherdad, which roughly translated means 'Palace of the Killer Onions from Hell in the City of the Exploding Tory Conferences.' This clearly shows the tenor of the smial.

Dates of Publication: July 4, 1977 - June 24, 1984

Imprint: National Tolkien League in Carmel, New York

Editor: Louis Epstein

Other Information: The National Tolkien League is one of the most interesting groups in Tolkien fandom. They reckon years from the birth of Tolkien (who they refer to as "the Master"), offer tests for membership and more difficult examinations from the Tolkienic University. Each year they hold a Tolkienic Convention. Frodo Fortnightly's greatest distinction is that more issues of it have been published than any other Tolkien fanzine (until it changed its name to Ardalindë. The original name of the fanzine was The Preliminary Journal of the National Tolkien League, which lasted for nine issues. Frodo Fortnightly started with issue 10. The NTL also published The Puzzlist.

Title: Gamma

Dates of Publication: August 1970 - January 1972

Imprint: Independently published in Portslade, Brighton, England

Editor: Phil Spencer

Other Information: Spencer produced this fanzine in hopes of stirring up the committee and membership of The Tolkien Society, which was still in its infancy at the time. The major topics dealt with The Tolkien Society's constitution, the aim of the TS, and its inept committee. Spencer also published the Tolkien Society Bulletin.

Issues Microfilmed:

ONE, [August 1970]. Ditto, three pages, 8" x 10".

TWO, [October 1970]. Ditto, 10 pages, 8" x 10".

THREE, [November 1970]. Ditto, four pages, 8" x 10".

FOUR, [February 1971]. Ditto, four pages, 8" x 10".

FIVE, [June 1971]. Ditto, seven pages, 8" x 10".

SEVEN, [January 1972]. Ditto, two pages, 8" x 10".

Title: Glamdring

Dates of Publication: April 1960 - 1968

Imprint: Independently published in Los Angeles, California

Editor: Bruce Pelz

Other Information: Glamdring was an apa-zine that has some historical interest. Pelz also edited I Palantir and was a founding member of the first Tolkien group, The Fellowship of the Ring. The first few issues have references to Tolkien or Tolkien fandom. Only the first three of seven issues are given. Issues four through seven were published in 1968.

Issues Microfilmed:

#1, April 1960. Mimeo, 8½" x 11", six pages.

2, May 1960. Mimeo, 8½" x 11", six pages.

3, August 1960. Mimeo, 8½" x 11", 13 pages.

Title: Glyph

Dates of Publication: April 1969 - ?

Imprint: Ragnarok Publications of Van Nuys, California

Editor: Stanley Hoffman

Other Information: Issue number one was the first Tolkien fanzine to be written almost exclusively in tengwar. Stanley Hoffman also edited Mazarbul and I Barad. Frank Denton produced later issues (from number two onward).

Issues Microfilmed:

NO. ZERO, April 1969. Photocopy, 8½" x 11", two pages.

[one], April 1969. Photocopy, 8½" x 11", two pages.

Title: Green Dragon

Dates of Publication: June 1966 - February 1972

Imprint: Tolkien Society of America in Brooklyn, New York, and Center Harbor, New Hampshire

Editors: Richard Plotz, Ed Meškys

Other Information: This was the newsletter of the Tolkien Society of America. It ended with the merger of the TSA with the Mythopoeic Society. Richard Plotz founded the TSA and edited the first Tolkien Journals. Ed Meškys also edited Niekas and Tolkien Journal. Issue number 2 of Green Dragon appeared in Tolkien Journal III:1 (1967). The Green Dragon was an inn in the village of Bywater in the Shire.

Issues Microfilmed:

I, Forelithe, S.R. 7146 [June 1966].

I 1/2, Winterfilth 9834 [October 1966]

#13, February 1972, ed. Ed Meškys.

Title: Grimoire

Date of Publication: 1965

Imprint: Independently published in Columbia, Missouri

Editors: James Edward Turner and David Hall

Other Information: Although not strictly a Tolkien fanzine, this has historical significance. David Hall published it between editing Mathom and Entmoot. In Entmoot 1 Hall remarks that he stole material from his "own fanzine to fill [Entmoot]." Grimoire may have been that fanzine.

Issue Microfilmed:

1, [1965]. Mimeo, 8½" x 11, 16 pages.

Title: Gwyntystorm

Dates of Publication: September 1970 - August 1975

Imprint: Independently published in California

Editors: David Ring and Bruce McMenemy

Other Information: This was published as a lark, evidently, and is as confusing as it is interesting. Its readership was similar to that of the Mythopoeic Society. It is the only Tolkien fanzine to sport a centerfold. One would think by reading the Gwyntystorms that over 20 issues were produced but according to Christine Lowentrouth the volume and issue numbers were a joke and only three issues were produced. The title is from a George MacDonald "Curdie" book.

Issues Microfilmed:

Volume I, issue 3, September, 1970. Mimeo, 46 pages, 8½" x 11".

Volume V, issue 19, August, 1974. Offset, 24 pages, 8½" x 11".

Volume VI, Issue 23, August 1975. Offset, 33 pages, 8½" x 11".

Title: Halifrien

Dates of Publication: September 1987 – September 1988

Imprint: Independently published in Eivissa, Spain.

Editor: Juan Manuel Grijalvo

Other Information: This was the first Spanish Tolkien fanzine.

Issues Not Microfilmed:

Número Cero, Sep 87. Photocopy, A5, eight pages.

Número Uno, Septiembre 1988. Photocopy, A5, 16 pages.

Title: Hartford High School Tolkien Society Newsletter

Dates of Publication: ? - 1983 - ?

Imprint: Hartford High School Tolkien Society in Hartford, Norwich, England

Editor: Rhodri Williams

Other Information: The only mention I find of this newsletter is in Amon Hen 61 (May 1983) where it named the editor, her address and remarks: "General articles, reviews, tengwar....Vol. 2 is a progression from Vol. 1." I am not sure what issues are mentioned there (The Tolkien Society archives only have the issues listed below). Due to uncertainty, I have not given a date or editor for these issues.

Issues Microfilmed:

NEWSLETTER NUMBER 2, [n.d.]. Photocopy, 18 pages, A4.

NEWSLETTER NUMBER 3, [n.d.]. *Photocopy, 18 pages, A4.

Title: Henneth Annûn

Date of Publication: November 1972

Imprint: The Tolkien Society in Bushey, Hertshire, England

Editor: John Martin

Other Information: This took the place of Anduril, also edited by Martin, and became the bulletin of The Tolkien Society. After one issue, the name was changed to Amon Hen. Henneth Annûn is an Adûnaic term meaning 'Window of the Sunset'.

Issue Microfilmed:

Number 1, November 1972. Mimeo, 10 pages, 8" x 10".

Title: Hiswelóce

Dates of Publication: 1992? -1993

Imprint: La Chaire De Géographie of La Faculté des Études Elfiques in Genoble, France

Editor: Didier Willis

Other Information:

Issues Not Microfilmed:

N° 0 [1992?]. Photocopy, A4, three pages.

N° 1 [1993]. Photocopy, A4, six pages.

Title: Hobbitalia

Date of Publication: April 1969? - October 1972

Imprint: Independently published in Vallejo, California

Editor: Paul Doerr, Paldor [Paul Doerr]

Other Information:

Issues Microfilmed:

#1, [April 1969?]. Mimeo, 18 pages, 8½" x 11".

#2, [May? 1969]. Mimeo, 16 pages, 8½" x 11".

#3, [October 1972?]. Mimeo, 10 pages, 8½" x 11"*.

Title: Holbytla

Dates of Publication: July 31, 1968 - August 1970

Imprint: Michigan State University Tolkien Fellowship in Dearborn Heights, Michigan.

Editor: Gary Phillips.

Other Information: The MSU Tolkien Fellowship also published Dwimmerlaik (edited by Phillips), Quendi (edited by Dabney), Yrch! (various editors), and Chrysophylax (unseen). Members were prolific with their own fanzines: Hilton published Incanus (unseen); Anderson edited The Fandom Blot (unseen); Mike Wood published Operand (unseen); Brown published The Magic Bagel and Cosmic Cruller (unseen); and, McEvoy published The Balrog Review (unseen). Both Holbytlá and Quendi were information fanzines for members of the MSU Tolkien Fellowship who were home during the summer university break. Holbytlá is Tolkien's Old English invention for "Hobbit."

Issues Microfilmed:

#1, Cerveth 31, 9837 [July 31, 1968]. Mimeo, 8½" x 11", two pages.

#2, Urui 31, 9837 [August 31, 1968]. Mimeo, 8½" x 11", two pages.

III, Wedmath [August] 1970. Ditto, 8½" x 11", one page.*

Title: Hoom

Date of Publication: June 1968 - Fall 1969

Imprint: Independently published in Waynesboro, Virginia

Editor: Bee Bowman

Other Information: This was undoubtedly the best looking dittoed fanzine in Tolkien fandom. 'Hoom' is what Ents say...slowly. Frank Denton, a co-editor, also edited Glyph.

Issues Microfilmed:

no. 1, June 1968. Ditto, 8½" x 11", 21 pages.

2, September 1968. Ditto, 8½" x 11", 52 pages.

3, YULE 1968. Ditto, 8½" x 11", 43 pages.

4, APRIL 1969. Ditto, 8½" x 11", 59 pages.

5, Fall 1969. Ditto, 8½" x 11", 102 pages.

Title: I Barad

Date of Publication: January? 1968 - May? 1968

Imprint: San Fernando Chapter, SSMESIT, in Van Nuys, California

Editor: Stanley Hoffman

Other Information: SSMESIT is an acronym for Some Sort of Medieval Elvish Society I Think. Stanley Hoffman also edited Glyph. I Barad is a Sindarin phrase meaning 'The Tower', which may be an allusion to the fannish goal found in fanzine fandom's allegorical The Enchanted Duplicator.

Issues Microfilmed:

#1, Narwain [January?] 1968. *Ditto, 8½" x 11", 12 pages.

No. 2, Lothron [May?] 1968. *Ditto, 8½" x 11", 10 pages.

Title: I Cala

Date of Publication: [January?] 1976

Imprint: The Tolkien Society of Marshall of Portland, Oregon

Editor: Andrew Garrett

Other Information: I am unsure whether this high school group still exists. Correspondence has been ignored. An old list of Mythopoeic Society discussion groups also lists this one and states "open to school students only".

Issue Microfilmed:

VOLUME 1 NUMBER 1, Narvinye [January?] 1976. *Mimeo, 8½" x 11", 17 pages.

Title: I Palantir

Date of Publication: August 1960 - August 1966

Imprint: The Fellowship of the Ring in Los Angeles, California

Editors: Ted Johnstone, Bruce Pelz

Other Information: This is the oldest Tolkien fanzine. Even though it suffered from a very irregular publishing schedule, it contained some of the best articles and stories to date, including two pieces of pastiche by Marion Zimmer Bradley (Elfrida Rivers).

Issues Microfilmed:

No 1, August 1960, ed. Ted Johnstone. Mimeo, 8½" x 11", 17 pages.

Number 2, August 1961, ed. Ted Johnstone. Mimeo, 8½" x 11", 24 pages.

3, April 1964, ed. Bruce Pelz. Mimeo, 8½" x 11", 22 pages.

4, August 1966, ed. Bruce Pelz. Mimeo, 8½" x 11", 42 pages.

Title: I Parma Vinyar Tengwa

Dates of Publication: 18 January 1990 – 23 January 1990

Imprint: I PARMA Fellowship of the Elvish Linguistic Fellowship in San Diego, California

Editor: Jorge Quiñónez

Other Information: This was issued to members of The E.L.F. as a form of communication for those interested in publishing a book on Tolkien linguistics. Its stressing that it was not a publication, per se, but a private letter of sorts was done to avoid copyright complications. After two issues, the publication was called Parvhiniath Tîw.

Issues Not Microfilmed:

#1, January 18, 1990. Photocopy, 5½" x 8½", four pages.

#2, Jan 23, 1990. Photocopy, 5½" x 8½", seven pages.

Title: Imarin

Date of Publication: October 1967

Imprint: Independently published in Temple City, California

Editor: Scott S. Smith

Other Information: Smith also published two other one-shots: Nazg and Elbereth!.

Issue Microfilmed:

Title: In de Groene Draak

Date of Publication: 23 October 1978 - ?

Imprint: Tolkienistisch Verband Nederland in Voorburg, The Netherlands

Editors: Robert van Winden, Luc Berris, Ton van Etten

Other Information: As far as I know this was the first Dutch Tolkien fanzine. 'In de Groene Draak' is Dutch meaning 'In the Green Dragon'.

Issues Microfilmed:

1e jaargang, no 1, 23 oktober 1978. *Photocopy?, A5, 25 pages.

1e jaargang, nr. 2, 18 december 1978. *Photocopy?, A5, 20 pages.

Title: Ithildin

Title: Mirror of Galadriel

Date of Publication: 1978

Imprint: Media-World Magazine in Washington, DC

Editor: A. Taylor Clapp

Other Information: This obviously is not a fanzine and I do not know its history. It may have been a vehicle for advertising only.

Issue Microfilmed:

[no number], 1978. Offset, 7¼" x 11¼", 12 pages.

Title: Mojo Entmooter

Dates of Publication: January 1968 – April 1969

Imprint: Independently published in Fairfax, California

Editor: Greg Shaw

Other Information: After the editor's ability to mimeograph was curtailed to publish Entmoot and the demise of his rock magazine Mojo-Navigator, the editor combined the two (with heavy emphasis on underground rock) in this magazine. Shaw also edited The Best of Entmoot, Entmoot, and Feemwlor.

Issues Not Microfilmed:

No. 1, JANUARY 1968. Mimeograph, 8½" x 11", 24 pages.

2, APRIL, 1969. Mimeograph, 8½" x 11", 13 pages.

Title: Morlûg

Date of Publication: [1982?] - Spring 1984

Imprint: Thrilling Tales Production in Calne, Wilts., England

Editor: Steve Lines

Other Information: Lines was one of the most prolific of all English Tolkien artists and his work can be found in many Tolkien fanzines at the time. Morlûg is a Black Speech construct meaning 'The Dark Tower'.

Issues Microfilmed:

Issue 1, [1982?]. Photocopy, A4, six pages.

Issue 2, September 1982. Photocopy, A4, six pages.

3, 1983. Photocopy, A5, 20 pages.

Title: The Mything Link

Date of Publication: February 1970? - 1972

Imprint: Independently published in California

Editors: Dave Hulan and Gracia Fay Ellwood

Other Information: This publication was closely involved with the Mythopoeic Society although not an official magazine of that group. It contained many Mythopoeic Society branch meeting reports and after issue 17, its name was changed to Early English. Gracia Fay Ellwood also edited Mythlore and wrote the book Good News from Tolkien's Middle-earth.

Issues Microfilmed:

Title: Nargothrond

Date of Publication: 1968 -1969?

Imprint: Tri-State Publishers in North Aurora, Illinois

Editor: Rick Brooks

Other Information: Nargothrond contained other pieces besides those related to Tolkien, such as science fiction and Star Trek themes. Issue 3 & 4 contains little to do with Tolkien and it is unknown whether further issues exist. It took eleven years just to track down these three copies!

Issues Microfilmed:

#1, [1968]. *Ditto, 8½" x 11", 31 pages.

No 2, [1968]. Mimeo, 8½" x 11", 43 pages.

Title: Nazgûl

Dates of Publication: February 1972 - Late 1976

Imprint: Independently published in Wakefield, Yorkshire, England

Editor: John Abbott

Other Information: This is one of the most humorous Tolkien fanzines ever published. Abbott's constant jabbing at Tolkien fandom and Nazgûl itself make this some of the best reading in Tolkien fandom's long history. Seven issues were far too few.

Issues Microfilmed:

[1], FEBRUARY 1972. *Mimeo, 8" x 10", four pages.

2, JULY, 1972. *Mimeo, 8" x 10", 10 pages.

Issue Microfilmed:

No: 1, March 1981. Photocopy, A5, six pages.

Title: New Tolkien Newsletter

Date of Publication: 1 August 1980 - January 1983

Imprint: Widcombe Press in Bath, Avon, United Kingdom

Editors: Robert Giddings and Elizabeth Holland

Other Information: This is the most unusual of all newsletters. Giddings and Holland were household names in the homes of English Tolkien fans. The theories proposed here and in the editors' book, J.R.R. Tolkien: The Shores of Middle-earth, are so far from mainstream scholarly thought on Tolkien that most Tolkien fans could not take their publication seriously. Holland later edited The Road.

Issues Microfilmed:

Volume 1, Number 2., 1st. February, 1981, ed. Robert Giddings and Elizabeth Holland. Offset, A4, 45 pages.

Reprints from Vol. 1, Nos. 1 & 2, 1st. August, 1980 & 1st. February 1981, ed. Robert Giddings and Elizabeth Holland. Offset, A4, 55 pages.

Title: The Rivendell Times

Date of Publication: 1962? 1968? 1969?

Imprint: Unknown, probably the United States

Editor: Unknown

Other Information: Other than a mention of this magazine in Hoom 5, I know nothing more. This might not be considered a fanzine, but a flier. However, since it is the only proof I have of any fanzine by this name, I include it. Bruce Pelz dates this as 1962, but its reference in Hoom would make one think it appeared in the 1968-9 timeframe.

Issue Microfilmed:

[no number], [no date]. *Mimeo, 8½" x 11", two pages.

Title: The Rivendell Review

Date of Publication: May 1982 - XXX

Imprint: The American Hobbit Association in Wilmette, Northbrook, and Forest Park, Illinois.

Editor: Renee Alper

Other Information: The Rivendell Review was the new name of Annúminas. It started its numbering at where Annúminas left off. Health problems of the editor and lack of interest in Tolkien by same led to the demise of the American Hobbit Association.

Title: Triplanetary

Dates of Publication: 1967 - 1969

Imprint: Neo-Numenor in St. Louis, Missouri, and Dearborn, Michigan

Editors: T.W. Cook, Doug Cross, Denise Vowell

Other Information: This contained many items on Tolkien as well as fan poetry, art, and stories in the science fiction and fantasy vein. The main participants were from St. Louis and Michigan. This was associated with the fans that published Minas Tirith Evening-Star. Marci Clark, found in this issue, married Philip Helms, editor of that magazine. The name Triplanetary may come from interest in three fantasy worlds: Eddison's Mercury, Lewis's Perelandra, and Tolkien's Middle-earth.

Title: Yrch!

Dates of Publication: January 1968 - January 1969

Imprint: Michigan State University Tolkien Fellowship in East Lansing, Michigan.

Editors: Various (see below).

Other Information: The MSU Tolkien Fellowship also published Holbytla and Dwimmerlaik (edited by Phillips), Quendi (edited by Dabney), and Chrysophylax (unseen). Members were prolific with their own fanzines: Hilton published Incanus (unseen); Anderson edited The Fandom Blot (unseen); Mike Wood published Operand (unseen); Brown published Magic Bagel and Cosmic Cruller (unseen); and, McEvoy published The Balrog Review (unseen). The issues are difficult to date; colophons stated that they were published two or three times per month. Catherine Madsen, once of the group, states "#11...must be from Fall 1970, not 1969, for two reasons: Leny Waber and I weren't officers until that point and the phone number given...is an off-campus one." This looks to be true even though issue number 24 was dated 1969 and stated that there were 23 previous issues. Yrch is Sindarin for 'orc.'
