

AN IMPORTANT COMMUNIQUE TO KNIGHTS AND LADIES OF ST. FANTOMY:

The fateful weekend of May 23, 24, 25 is fast approaching. This is the date of the BIG PARTY which Sir Dave of Kyle casually thought up (and freely issued an invitation to) while obviously in a drunken state. The excuse, of course, is that such an ambitious gesture was the natural result of an Easter SCIENCE FICTION CONVENTION. Since that time Sir Dave has been struggling with the realities of life.

The Realities of Life have dictated the following Ground Rules and Standards of Conduct in order to solve the Two Parts of the Problem, to wit: 1) the Site of the BIG PARTY is a rented premises in a Private Estate, and 2) the premises is a bungalow and is not a Large Castle as would befit a gathering of the Lords and Ladies of the Order:

Those Members of the Order who have announced their desire to participate in the Great Festivities who come from:

Liverpool or Manchester or Bristol are to arrive on Saturday evening with the expectations of sleeping (!!) overnight on Saturday and Sunday evenings.

Those other Members of the Order who come from other sections in the Realm, principally London, are to arrive starting Sunday morning after 9 a.m. with the expectations of sleeping (!!) overnight Sunday.

The Saturday night sleeping party will be in the nature of a Test of Accomodations and Neighbor's Complaints. Should the events prove themselves satisfactorily, the Sunday night sleeping Plan will be put into effect. Should the Sleeping Plan prove unsatisfactory over Saturday night (including other factors such as Plumbing and Complaints from Other Quarters), then it will be understood that Modifications may be made for Sunday evening, including even the possibility that NO ONE will sleep over on Sunday evening except for Undue Hardship Cases (to be Sheltered in Absolute Secrecy.).

Personal Rules include Conduct suitable to avoid Neighbor's Complaints and Damage Suits by the Landlord or Hamm Court Residents' Association. (This to mean Decorum after Eleven O'Clock at night--if not present before--is an Honorable Obligation to be Contracted.)

SORRY: No children are expected or, for that matter, are invited.

ESSENTIAL PERSONAL EQUIPMENT SHOULD INCLUDE:

- Cutlery
- Tea Cups

Bedding, if travelling by car.

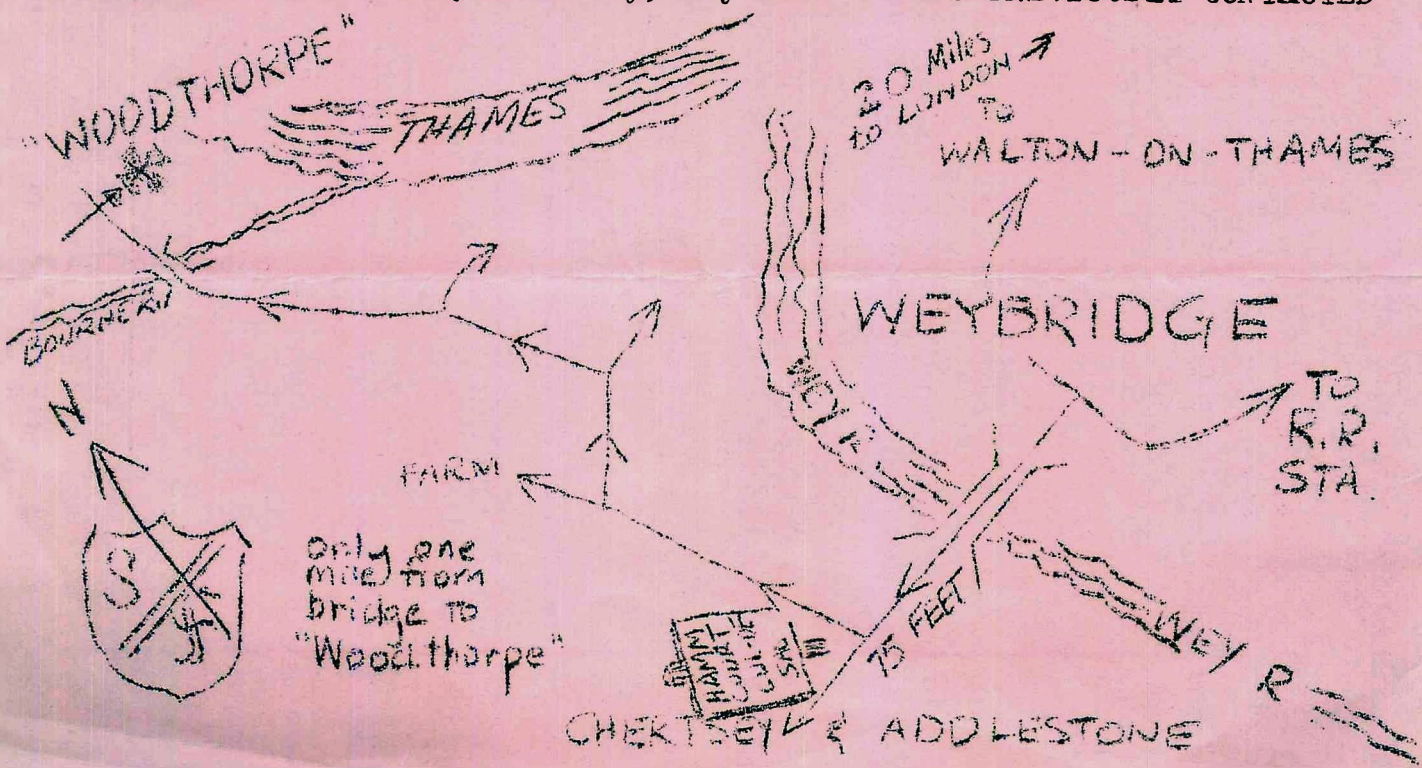

Suitable Libations for Personal Comfort
