HINKEY DINKY PARLEY-VOO

You never know, you never can guess, what may happen at the LASFS. Rapid succession resignations of their offices by Secretary Yerke, Director Daugherty and Treasurer Hodgkins, with interregnum rule by Art Joquel, resulted at the meeting of April 17 in Paul Freehafer's move of "election by acclamation" of an obscure fan by the name of FJ Ackerman. For four years Forry had refused and fought off this office. It is not certain, but sitters-by thought they heard him murmur, "I surrender," when his name was brought up again for directorship. At least, he made no motion to oppose. So the gavel and Supreme Dictatorship of the Angeleno Imaginatives were bestowed upon the fair brow of Fangeleno #1—long may he beat it!

Immediate appointments were Edwin Chamberlain to the position of Secretary; Morojo, Treasurer; with the retention of Joquel as Librarian. Other occurrences included Ted Emsheimer's becoming a member, Ray Bradbury's rejoining, passage of motion for affiliation with the Weird Tales Club, and celebration by the persons present—Pogo, Hasse, Hoffman, Joquel, Bradbury, Brown, Morojo, Ackerman, Chamberlain, and Ted Emsheimer, wife and daughter—of the 19th birthday of Bruce Yerke, with a chocolate cake inscribed in green, "Tubby from the Clubby."

INDEX INDICATED

Taking cognizance of a very apparent need in fandom, Art Joquel has started on a complete index of fmz. Index will list all stories, articles, pics & other info about all fmz ever published. Hopes to have at least the first volume of the FANNUAL ready by the Convention. Index will be in two volumes, 1931-35 & 1936-40, & will appear annually thereafter. Latest addition to Joquel's ASIFA pubs chain completes series, with FMZ DIGEST monthly, SPECULA bi-monthly, SPECTRA quarterly, the new SCORPIO tri-yearly, & SUN TRAILS a semi-annual.

NEBULOUS PLANS

Possibility of quote another! unquote fan magazine, or femme, from Shangri-LA. Name: NEBULA. Editor, Ed Chamberlain. Large size, mimeod, first ish probably to consist of material selected from Dickrain's defunct Cosmic, incomplete dummy of which was sent to Ackerman, turned over to Chamberlain; plus perhaps material on hand by Liebscher & Gilbert; story & original illustrations by ye Ed.

OH, JOHNNY!

According to Pogo, her private poll shows interest highest in John B Michel for her project, so her first Fan-of-the-Month, now in preparation, will be devoted to dissecting the michelist, giving the lowdown & the inside on him, as revealed in his writings & from Chiccontact.

FIVESOME SEES "TERROR" TRIPLETS

Upon completion of VoM #13, 4e, Morojo, Walt Daugherty, Eleanor O'Brien & Ed Chamberlain went to see 3 "horror" films, being "The Crooked Circle," "Torso Murder Mystery" & "Face at the Window."
