TAFF 1960THE CANDIDATES

MAL ASHWORTH If you suddenly stop and ask yourself what makes fandom worth while the short answer is some wonderful people and some fine writing. It's amazing how often Mal Ashworth figures in both lists, since he hasn't been as prolific as some. But in our morass of mimeography it's worth that counts, and there nobody tops Mal. Whether it's the fabulous issues of Bem, or the effervescence of his later more informal fanzines, or the warmth of the classic MY FIRST REAL CONVENTION, or the good-humored satire of THE DASHCON REPORT in Hyphen or any of his other many columns or articles or even just a hilarious letter, everything Mal does is not just brilliant but likeable, because that's the kind of person he is. A reader of science fiction as long as he can remember, an active fan since the days of Quandry, universally liked in Britain and by scores of American fans through FAPA, he would worthily represent the best in British fandom. Nominated by: Walt Willis, Arthur Thomson, John Roles, Larry Shaw, F.M. Busby.

ERIC BENTCLIFFE Eric Bentcliffe will make an excellent TAFF candidate in 1960, for many reasons. Among them are his long background in fandom both in publishing and actifanning, editorship of TRIODE, SPACE-TIMES, WALDO, The Space-Times Checklist and Songs From Space anthology plus numerous articles and letters throughout fandom. These all spell actifan. On the Convention side, Eric has been on the Committee of several British Conventions, participated in programme items, and worked before and behind the scenes on many others. As first Secretary of the BSFA, Eric did more than anyone else to enlarge the Association and set the stage for the 1959 Birmingham Convention. An ex-Chairman of the Manchester Group, an Ex-Chairman of the Liverpool SFS, OMPA member, Eric is also a member of the rare fannish order of Knights of St. Fantasy. The social party side is another of Eric's strong points and of course very important in a delegate: he can get on his hind legs and address an audience. Nominated by: Terry Jeeves, Norman Shorrocks, Eric Jones, Bob Pavlat, Phyllis Economou.

H.P. (SANDY) SANDERSON Long involved in British fanactivity, Sandy started as a leading light and Convention organiser for the N.S.F.C: perpetrated one of fandom's greatest hoaxes by creating "Joan W. Carr" and FEMIZINE: is founder member and treasurer of both OMPA and the SF Club of London and member of the LC: edits one of the Top Ten fanzines, the scintillating AFORRHETA: is ex-FAPA (100 pages in his first year!), dropped for AF's sake: is able to report in vivid "Strawberry Ice/Inchmerry Fan Diary" style, with tape and cine record! Finally, he's a coffee-addict - no British fan could be a better choice!! (100) Nominated by: Joy K. Clarke, Sid Birchby, Dean Grennell, Bob Tucker, Ethel Lindsay.
