Cousin Guy's Early Bird Stats (through the SFPA #215)

Steve Hughes chimes in with a first zine. While it is the first such first for Steve on the current list, Cousin Guy must wonder if he ever had a first zine in his previous SFPA life. Someday Cousin Guy will get all the firsts tabulated and we'll know for sure. Meanwhile, congrats to Steve and onward.

It looks like we have some races, especially at the top where Guy's non-Challenger pages are a little closer to normal, although he still has a healthy lead over fast-charging Jeff Copeland. And there's Richard Dengrove quietly moving up, along with Toni Weisskopf. Liz Copeland has bounded upward and the "Teens" section is heating up. I do have one question, when someone puts in a genzine like Challenger or Mimosa, do they get SFPA credit for it? I've looked at it as a genuine apa contribution and tallied it up with other zines. But this does give those who do genzines an unfair advantage. What do you think?
