Cousin Guy's Early Bird Stats (through the SFPA #221)

Well, that "rare occasion" I mentioned last issue happened again, so maybe it's not so rare. Norm Metcalf had the first zine in the mailing for the second mailing in a row to creep closer to Stven Carlberg and Larry Montgomery in Cousin Guy's Early Bird Stats.

So, I can REALLY say that this is a "rare occasion" for Norm and the apa.

Toni Weisskopf tumbles from the second spot on the Box Scores to number five after suffering the age-old post-OE syndrome blues. Meanwhile, yours truly, Richard Dengrove and Janice Gelb move up in the standings, trying not to look back. And Gary Robe starts a slow, steady climb to the top five.

My apologies to Arthur Hlavaty who was blatantly ignored for his first three mailings back on the membership list. I'd like to say this is a lesson to all Jets fans out there, but clearly it was more of a reflection of my wandering brain cells.
