Cousin Guy's Early Bird Stats (through the SFPA #222)

That's right, Norm, make a liar out of the keeper of ol' Cousin Guy's Early Bird Stats. After your second "first," this publication crowed that it would be a cold day in Texas before you'd do it again. So, you've not only done it twice this year, but now a third time. You're making me look bad, Norm, but our congrats to you anyhow. You now are tied with Stven Carlberg and Larry Montgomery for 15th place on the list, a mere 21 "firsts" behind Ned Brooks. Now, I KNOW you won't catch him.

Or, will you?

Some jumps and drops this time, but no major replacements in the upper crust of the page-count elite. Richard Dengrove leaps into the 30-page group, while Guy Lillian continues his post-romance plunge below the 20-point mark. OE Jeff Copeland is facing Congressional questioning about his true page count. An informant has asked why he gets credit for typing in quotes from other zines in his MCs. Orin Hatch mostly likely will lead the moral charge against this obvious Clintonian circumventing of the Box Score rules.
