Cousin Guy's Early Bird Stats (through the SFPA #232)

It's been a while since yours truly managed to get the first zine in a mailing, but it seems my Columbia is Lost zine changed that. Of course, it wasn't produced with this in mind. It just happened and it was one of those zines that I "had to do."

A lot of position changes this time around, with a hefty page count catapulting me up into the second spot over Richard Dengrove and Janice Gelb, who sits at number three with just over 30 pages a mailing. Mike Weber jumps into the number 5 spot and more than 20 pages a mailing.

And with all respect to diplomacy, the Box Scores Committee has decided that if a member puts through a genzine in SFPA, it won't count as Box Scores pages, but if said member does a special SFPA edition of the genzine, it will go toward Box Scores credit. Sound fair, Guy?
