Cousin Guy's Early Bird Stats (through the SFPA #233)

Whew, two first-zine-in-the-mailing in a row. Can't get better than that. Well, you can, but it won't happen this time, since I got a very late start on this zine. Nonetheless, Ned and Guy had better watch out — in another couple of years I'll be right on their tails. So to speak.

Not a lot of change in the standings or statistical aspect of the Box Scores this time around. Everyone, more or less, floated in the same general area. Guy Lillian, who once ruled the Box Scores with a vengeance, has moved back above the 20-plus pages line, while George Wells has dipped below the 20 pages in the last year line.
