

1945

December

The Kelinev invention is successful; in this month, the United States wins its war with the United Asiatic Nations.

The Singing Death

Bent Prout

Amazing, May, 1927

Explorer David Marsden enters the Malay jungle.

The War of the Great Ants

Jim Vanny

Wonder, July, 1930

Holocaust. United States attacked by Japan and by Germany from Nazi-controlled Mexico. One friendly Western nation: Argentina. Aerial attack on Detroit, New York, Chicago, Washington, and Pittsburg. Paratroops invade Indianapolis, Springfield, Ill., St. Louis. and Des Moines. Statue of Liberty is casualty of war, from attack by submarine that disregards mine fields. About ten days after beginning of war, earthquake levels New York and a rift in magnitude comparable to the Grand Canyon appears centered along what used to be Fifth Avenue.

Grand Canyon

V. Sackville West

Doubleday, Doran & Co., 1942