PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

This is the Age of The Apa.

In this year of our fandom, 1966, the number of fannish Apas approach the number of city fan clubs. SAPS, OMPA, The Cult, SFPA, N'APA, TAPS, APA L, InterAPA, APA 45, Stobcler, FAPA -- the list grows with each fannish era. These Apas may differ in origin, organization, and tradition, but they all have one very fundamental and common characteristic.

They all followed FAPA.

FAPA was the first of the fannish APAs. FAPA has been functioning for nearly three decades, a decade longer than the eldest of the others. In the last decade, the Waiting List has grown so large and the turnover has become so small, the Shadow FAPA has emerged. The FAPA is so strong financially that the Treasec has recently reduced your dues. One might say that FAPA has developed into a fannish institution.

The next step in FAPA's development is obvious -- Institutional Advertising.

Individual fans advertise in the Convention Program Booklet. Various fan clubs advertise in the Convention Program Booklet. Even prozine and book publishers advertise in the Convention Program Booklet. Why not FAPA?

This is a chance for FAPA to score still another fannish first. To the best of my knowledge, no APA has ever advertised in a Convention Program Booklet. True, now that the idea has been mentioned, some of the other APAs might also place ads, but they will be, as always, following FAPA.

The idea of FAPA placing a full-page ad in the Tricon Program Booklet has been fully discussed among Your Officers. We all approve, altho in all honesty, there was an initial difference of opinion. I thought that, as Your President, my name should be featured in the ad, while Your OE objected, noting that his name had less letters, and Your Vice President threatened an adverse Constitutional interpretation unless his name was featured. We compromised. No individual names will appear in the ad. Just FAPA.

We thought the ad should consist of a simple line drawing, with an appropriate Institutional Message, drawn by arty-type members BJO and ROTSLER. I had what I thought was a real keen idea -- a beanie-wearing neo with a firm expression on his sensitive fannish face, pointing a finger seemingly at the reader, with the caption "FAPA NEEDS YOU" -- but Your Treasec insisted that such a drawing would not reflect the proper FAPA image.

What would YOU suggest?

Dropped last time was Alan J. Lewis (D&A). Sam Moskowitz was retained on petition to waive late dues, petition signed by Anderson, Bergeron, Boggs, Busby, Brown, Calkins, Carr, Chauvenet, Coulson, Ellik, Eney, Evans, Hoffman, Knight, Leman, Lewis, Lichtman, McPhail, Meskys, Metcalf, Moffatt, Trimble, Tucker, Wells, and Wesson. Added to the membership list with this mailing are Phil Harrell (VENTURA II), and Dick & Pat Lupoff (OPO).

The Baxter Affair. If you recall, Baxter was dropped from the waiting list a year ago for failure to respond. Bergeron discovered that he had misplaced a letter from John in which Baxter had asked Bergeron to forward to me his 1965 waiting list fee. Bergeron petitioned for Baxter's reinstatement, with a petition for a special rule reading: "John Baxter will fill the next vacancy in the FAPA membership." The special rule was passed, with 46 signatures.

On November 18th, I wrote Baxter, advising him of the success of the petition and inviting him to enter FAPA with either the November or February mailings, as he preferred. I asked him to pay dues or make arrangements to pay them; to cite credentials; and to reply to me by 19 December. No reply was received. On December 28th I sent a second letter, asking the same things, but with a new deadline of 20 January for reply. As of today, February 3rd, no reply has been received. On January 3d, Bergeron advised me that he'd sent Baxter an airmail copy of the petition and Warhoon, had later sent word that he'd received back 33+ signed petitions, and had not heard from Baxter on either. Bergeron also wrote a "what happened?" letter about January 3d--if he's had a reply he hasn't advised me, and I think he would have if he had heard.

Under the wording of the petition, I could admit Baxter anyway. Regardless of the specific wording of the petition, I feel the intent was to get Baxter back on top of the list. If Baxter has been deathly ill and unable to respond, or has other good reason for the lack of response, I'll carry out the provisions of the special rule. For the present I can only file his card in the dead file noted "Dropped for failure to respond to invitation to join."

The Waiting List. It's shorter than last time. A number of people failed to respond, and are accordingly dropped. Those dropped, and their positions as of last mailing, are: Hannifen (4), Klemm (5), Fitch (10), Simpson (13), Pelz (19), Foyster (30), Schwenn (49), Scott (50), Gold (51), Samuels (54), and McFarland (56). The provisional waiting list position for Dian Pelz (following Deindorfer, before Armistead) is retained--this doesn't enable her to enter FAPA, of course, but merely makes possible the later application of split membership procedures should they ever be required. The remaining membership of the waiting list looks like this:

VICE PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

There is no business to report this quarter except the Egoboo Poll. While I have changed back to a one-to-ten scoring system, I have retained the same categories as last year, with the same top values, so the results will alcw reasonable compairason. The only real change I have made is in reducing Unsung Fapan to one point and one vote. I have also added Most Valuable Waiting Lister, so that we can spread some Egoboo among that long and shadowy line that follows us. Beside, we have had enough trouble with negative thinking as regards the w-1, here is a chance to think positive.

O.E'S REPORT

- - - Bruce Pelz

S-T Pavlat wishes to supplement his report with the fact that a letter was received from Baxter on 4 February, to the effect that he apologises for prior failure to answer, thanks for the invitation to membership, but regrets that recent developments -- including but not limited to a médium bad car accident -- make it impossible for him to join at this time.
