THE PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

The burden of FAPA Presidential office has weighed heavily upon these frail shoulders this past year, as witness my almost complete lack of other FAPA activity during this period. I will now relinquish these duties to Gregg Calkins -- or any other Presidential candidate who may have emerged betimes -- with a sigh of great relief. Few can realize the strain of these quarterly Messages which guide the destiny of all FAPA. They call upon every ounce of my mental, physical and spiritual strength -- and just a little bit more. But I am warmed and uplifted by the glow of having done my duty toward our illustrious organization.

This, of course, is election mailing. The usual Teller-addressed ballots are in this mailing offering a prime slate of officer candidates. Vote -- all of you.

We have one Amendment to be voted on. It is the final and approved version of the two contradictory Proposed Amendments which were discussed last quarter. The new version, endorsed by practically half of FAPA (see the May FA for names) now reads as follows:

"3.5: On endorsement of 12 other members, a member will be granted an extension of one mailing to fulfill renewal requirements on a particular occasion. To be effective, all endorsements under this section or section 3.3 must reach the Secretary-Treasurer 15 days before the deadline of the mailing affected."

Checking back to the FA's of August 1958 and August 1959, I find that although Bill Evans was Sec.-Treas. both years, in 1958 Evans set a deadline for ballots to be in of Oct. 1 -- but in 1959 Evans mentioned no deadline and President TEW set one of Sept. 10. Therefore, I don't know whether this falls in my province or not -- and the Constitution doesn't say. So -- unless Evans sets a deadline himself, all ballots must be in the Teller's hands by September 20. However, if Bill Evans does set a deadline, his will apply. Clear?

My final duty as FAPA's President is to appoint a Teller to tally the votes and to notify the congregation. As it's also my final opportunity for mischief -- and I just love surprises! -- I'm announcing that I don't know who is going to be this year's Teller. I'll be just as surprised as he will. What fun!

My original choice was Ger Steward. We nearly lost Ger last quarter and I decided I should enjoy making Ger feel wanted. Just as I was about to notify Evans of my choice, I experienced one of those strange mental aberrations I'm occasionally subject to. (Hadn't you guessed?) In a flash, it occurred to me that I couldn't appoint Ger because all the ballots would have to have Canadian postage, which would be most impractical. Therefore, I abruptly switched to Curtis Janke -- as the member most likely to be faunching for the job -- and so notified Evans who was about to write MZB at once with the information.

Then I suddenly came to my senses. Mail sent from the USA to Canada doesn't require Canadian postage, of course. Not in this time-stream, anyway. So, as I was also writing Marion, I told her my choice for Teller was once again Ger Steward -- but only if she had done nothing about addressing the ballots to Curtis as yet.

I'm looking forward to finding out who gets the Joker. I'm also looking forward to rejoining Mundane Membership, all aburst with activity I hope, next quarter.

Chyllis

2. Changes in the Membership. Dropped: Don Wilson (activity). Added: Bruce Pelz (ed/pub Speleobem). According to a statement from Raeburn, the postmailed Gasp! was mailed on the deadline, and is thus legal. See the vice-president's message.

The waiting list, for you panting waiters, begins on the next page.

3. The Waiting List. Here we have the proof that hope still rises in fanish hearts. Remember, I am still requiring an acknowledgment every mailing; deadline this time Nov 11, 1961. As I do not know who will be the next secretary, I will receive acknowledgments and forward them to the proper place (not the wastebasket). Remember, only one miss allowed if you are above the deadline; two if below (but not consecutively). A + in front of a name indicates no acknowledgment this quarter, to date. A # indicates a previous miss. A % is change of address. Credentials are listed for new additions; a * indicates I have seen them personally. And I won't take second hand answers; you have to write yourself.

5. This is the last secretary-treasurer's report I will be writing for some time. It has been fun, and I've enjoyed the letters and zines from one and all. And I'd like to compliment Marion for a good job as OE. She was easy to work with, and caught at least some of my errors.

Incidentally, I'll take dues and such until the new s-t takes over.

Thanks,

Bill
 Bill Evans, S-T.

VICE-PRESIDENT'S REPORT

Only one real ruling is called for this session, though four several appeals must be dealt with. All these here people what ask the VP for rulings when there's no conflict and they could go ahead and suit themselves. TSk.

1. Bill Donaho sent me a note on the Leslie Norris case in the wish to cover the possibility that a constitutional issue is involved. But the language of the Constitution is plain -- no plural members except married couples -- and SecTreasurer Evans has the matter well in hand otherwise.

2. Since no protest has been made, foreign-language magazines like Versins' AILLEURS -- since it's not been ruled out -- will be admissible by reason if that precedent henceforth.

3. In the case of Helen Wesson's variant picture postcards, I refer to somebody else's precedent in which it was decided that non-FAPAn-produced material also had to be identical: namely, the case of Lee Riddle's variant Hawaiian postcards, which if I recall rightly cost the poor man his membership.

4. The case of Ger Steward raises the need for a double ruling actually. Situation: Steward's requiredac was mailed on 13 May, the deadline of the mailing it had to be in by. The objection is, therefore, that it wasn't mailed in time; further objection is raised that the mags were very late in getting to the membersh, -- come, come, Eney, rule soberly or not at all -- and some of them suspected that GASP! hadn't actually been mailed on the proper date. To deal with the latter objection first, Boyd Raeburn points out that stuff from the US has taken up to 3 weeks to get to Toronto, and vice-versa is not beyond expectation. Ruling: The S-T may require the postmailer to provide proof of date of mailing if he thinks fit. If Boyd's statement is enough for Bill, the objection falls to the ground. Now, as to the first: The wording of the Constitution is that "Postmailings that are not distributed before the fourth quarterly mailing do not count". As I recall the applicable mundane legal principle, an item is sent out as of the moment the mailbox slot closes behind it, so posting the copies of GASP! on the 13th means that they were distributed on deadline date. Since, however, the wording allows the interpretation that distribution before the mailing is distributed legitimates a postmailing, we gotta have a double ruling here. First: In section 3.1, for purposes of reckoning activity, the mailing shall be held to be "distributed" as of 11:59 PM on deadline day, whether or not it's actually mailed out then. Second: Steward's GASP!, having been posted before that time, is legitimate renewal credentials.

5. Thus ends a year of presiding over vice. Betcha never thought the FAPA Constitution would survive it, eh? As a matter of fact, if you'll turn to the latest issue of TARGET: FAPA you'll see that it may not, even yet.

Dick Eney

DEPARTMENT OF UNFINISHED BUSINESS: The following, and only the following postmailings were officially recieved by the O-Ed for the 95th mailing:

THE FANTASY ANTEATER.....	Bradley	2
ODUSSEUS.....	Speer.....	20
LE MOINDRE # 3.....	Raeburn.....	4

Steward's GASP was officially given credit as a postmailing to the 94th; probably LE MOINDRE should be too, as they were sent out in the same envelope. I leave it to Burbee to straighten out officially--if anyone cares. And Dick Eney says he will be issuing a postmailing, BEFORE the date of this mailing now in your hot little hands, to save Larry Stark's membership. Amen.

THIS IS MY FINAL MAILING AS O-Editor, and by and large it has been fun, and conducted with little friction. I love you, Bill Evans, for support and stencilling your own reports; I love you, Dick Eney, for publishing the Egoboo Poll for me when I was swamped; I love you, Phyllis Economou, for your morale-lifting phone calls; and I love you, Dan McPhail and Kerry Dame, for helping with the assembly of the various mailings. My husband and son did yeoman work, too, but they know I love them.

IT'S BEEN FUN, and I'd be happy to take another stretch; but I just can't handle it this year. Vote for me next time I run for O-Ed. And, if you have approved of my handling the Official Editorship -- well, I'm running for President. Just call me William Jennings Bryan. Like I never give up. Anyway, vote for somebody.

AND SOMEBODY PLEASE BUY THIS SURPLUS STOCK: Like, I'm NOT going to keep it under my bed another whole year!

Despite the best efforts of the Insurgents, Sections 7:1 and 7:2 of the FAPA constitution are still in force;

- 7:1; Elections shall be held by mail...the ballots shall be distributed with the August mailing except that ballots for the use of overseas members shall be mailed to them first class or airmail at the time the summer mailing is posted.
- 7:2 All votes, to be counted, must be in the teller's hands a month after the mailing is dispatched. The teller shall notify all members of the results of the election within two weeks after the ballot deadline.

So there you have it. If you are an overseas member, you are receiving this sheet plus your ballot by first class or air mail, and stamps, courtesy of Bill Evans, are enclosed for the return of the ballot.

The complete text of the amendments is included below, for the benefit of overseas members who will not get the Fantasy Amateur in toto until the mailing arrives by surface post. However you vote....VOTE! Curt Janke is the teller - I already had his name stencilled on the front of the O-O and I'm not that good with corflu.

TEXT OF AMENDMENTS

Amendment #1; "Amend section 4:1 of the FAPA Constitution to read 'Dues are $3.00 per year for members residing in North America, and $2.00 for overseas members. The treasurer will accept contributions. The Official Editor will, at an annual sale, sell surplus stock to members, or persons on the waiting list, at such reasonable prices as he may set, the net proceeds being turned over to the treasury.' "

Amendment # 2; "Amend section 3:5 to read; 'On endorsement of 12 other members, a member will be granted an extension of one mailing to fulfill renewal credentials on a particular occasion. To be effective, all endorsements under this section, or section 3:5 must reach the Secretary-Treasurer fifteen days before the deadling of the mailing affected.' "
