

"I Bequeath"

THE FANTASY FOUNDATION

Forest & Sherman

I, Forrest J Ackerman, being of imaginative mind, bequeath to the FA FANTASY FOUNDATION, upon my demise, my 1300 fantasy books (4 July 46)

People for years have been pestering me to know how many books I have. Now that we know, I'm morally certain the next question will be: How many of them have you read? Very well: 270. (I refuse to reveal how many of these are Tarzan titles and Big Little books). Two hundred and seventy books in 20 years. Thirteen a year. (Probably about 3 magazines to every book.) At that rate, we see that it would take me 76 years to complete reading my book collection. Why, I'd be 105 years old! And that's if I never added another book, which is absurd on the face of it: This list will be lacking the day you receive it.

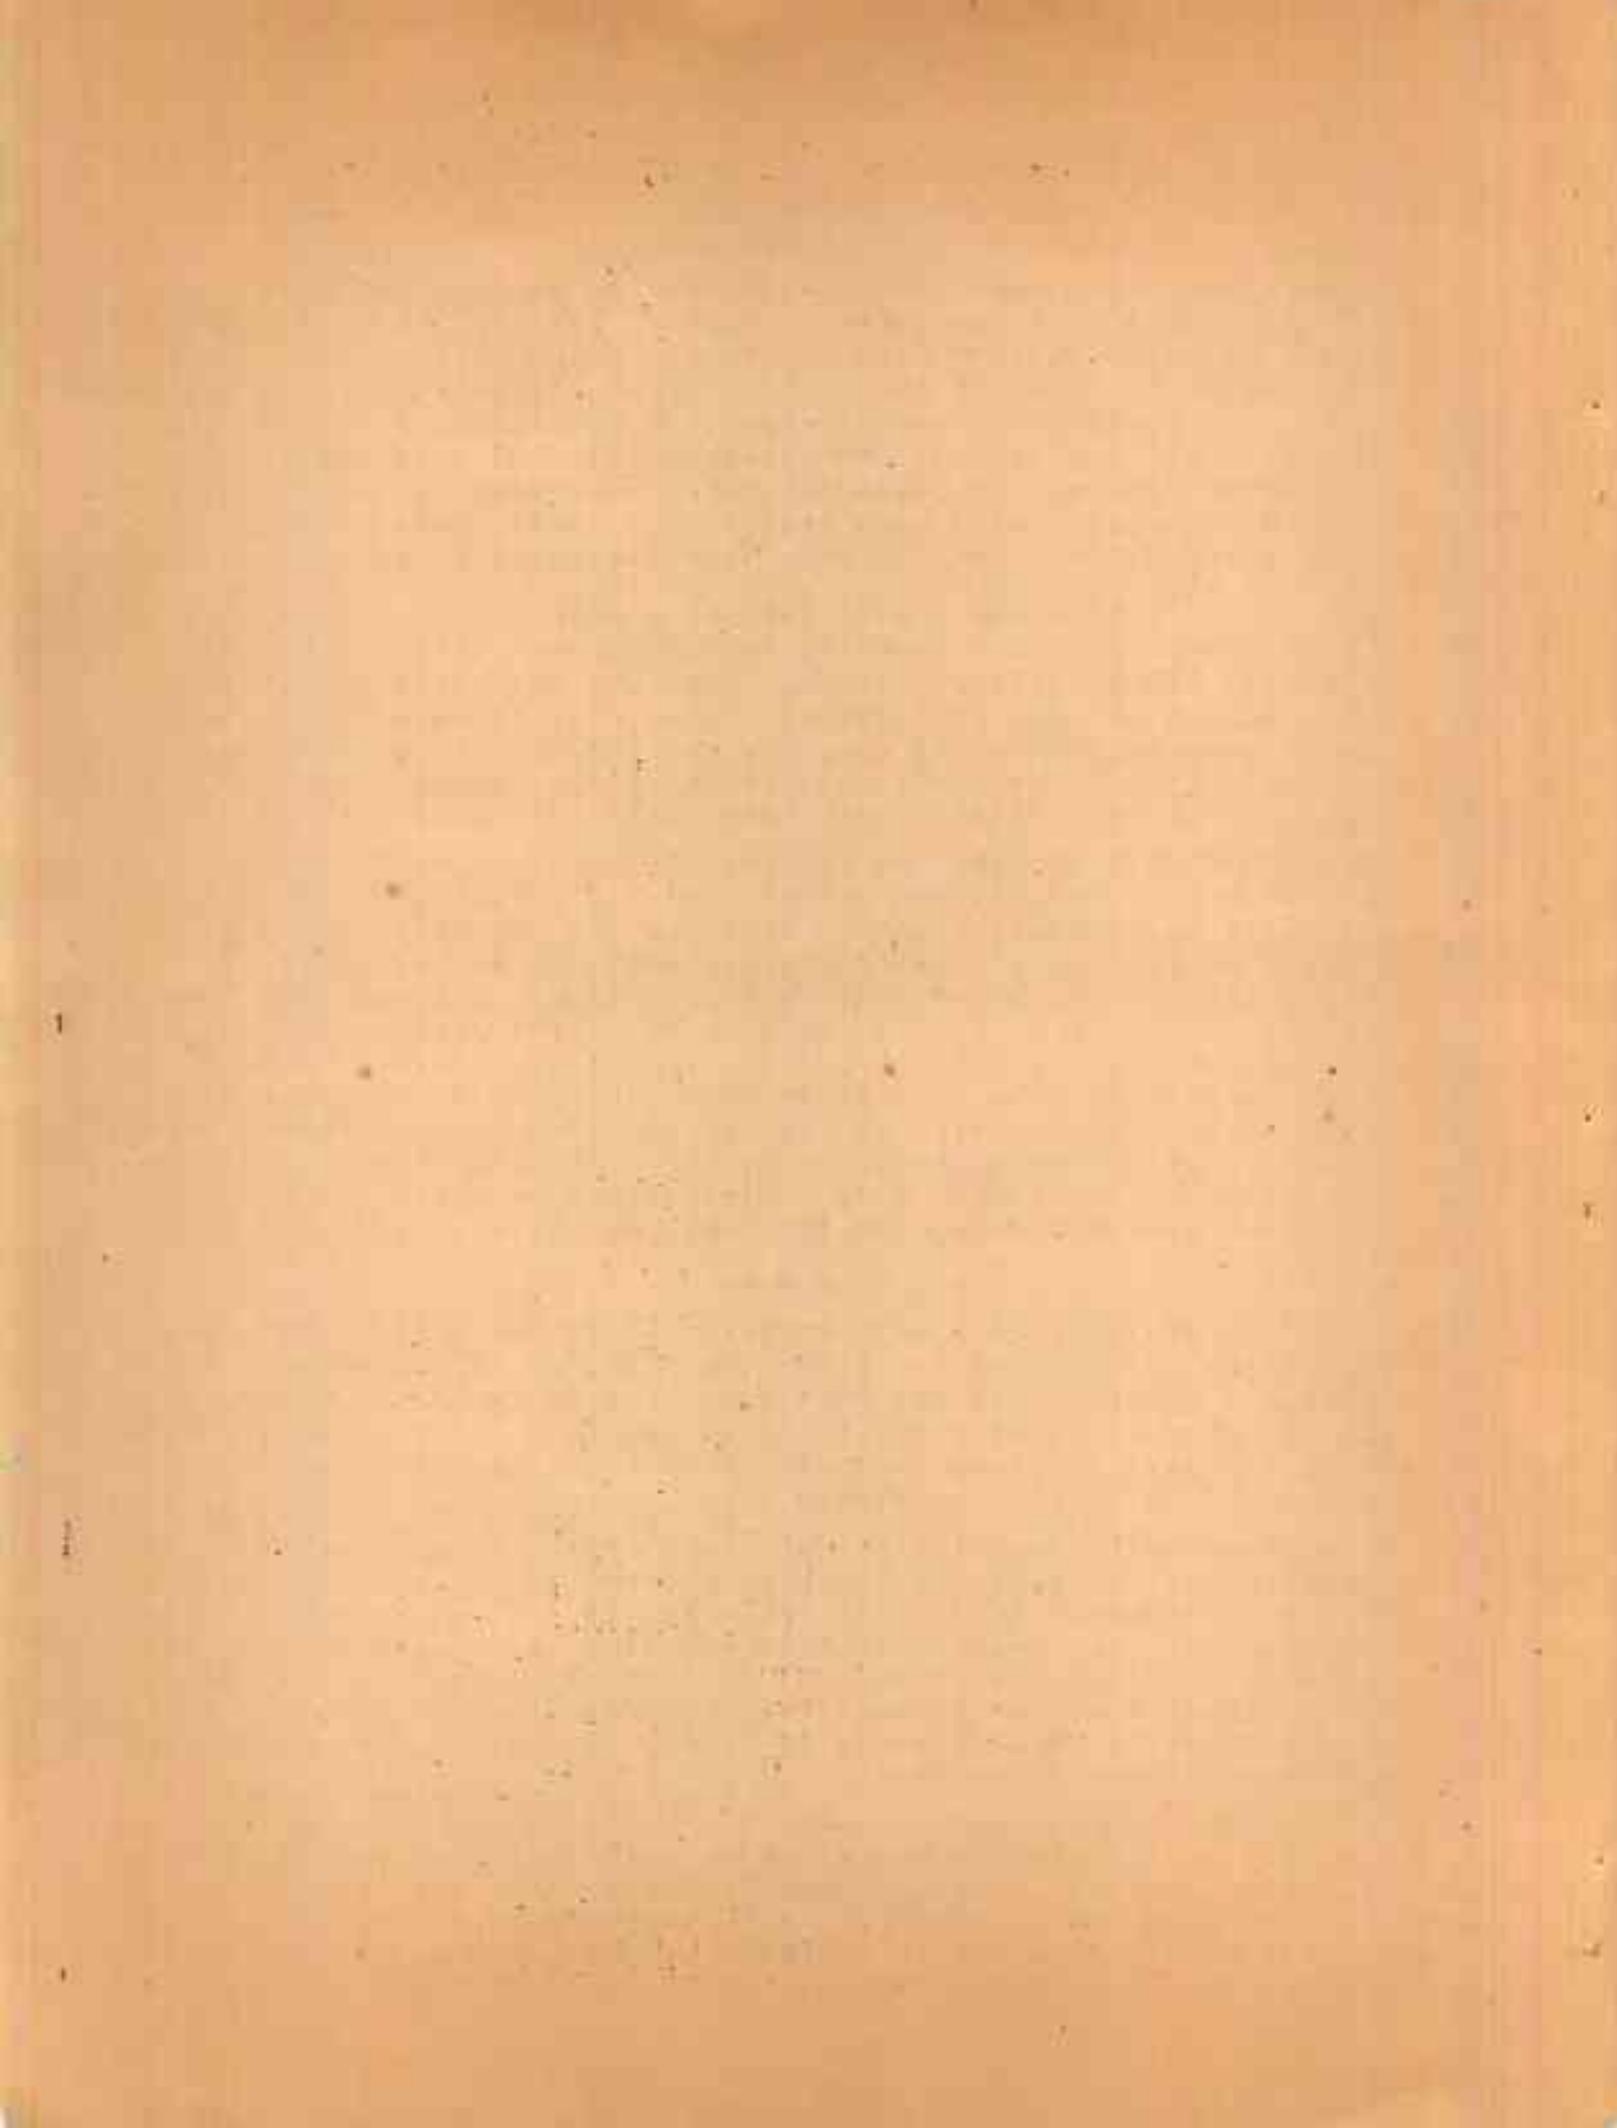

Some day I will fall off a moving sidewalk or mistake the space-lock for the rocket's reading room, then the Foundation will inherit 1300+ fantasy volumes. Have you ever thought about the final disposition of your collection? When, "as it must to all men", the unmentionable happens to you, why not let the Foundation act as the repository for your books, magazines, fotos, manuscripts or what have you? The Foundation's bookplate will bear your name as donor.

YOU DON'T HAVE TO DIE, of course, to contribute to the Foundation. When well established and financially solvent, it is expected that it will be Foundation policy that any one any where any time may ship large collections, freight charges collect, to Headquarters. In the beginning, in the event that your wife issues a ukase that "either your 'stuff' goes or I go", or your den can't accommodate the accumulations of years any longer, the Foundation would appreciate postpaid donations; but, if that is impossible, a description of the material to be disposed of, so that a decision may be reached as to whether Foundation funds should be expended for the transportation of your particular selection. Send contributions or correspondence concerning same to FJ Ackerman, 236-1/2 N New Hampshire, Hollywood 4 Cal.

"jkt" indicates a copy with cover. "1" is for a first edition; a first edition with jacket is shown by "1/j". (Concerning first editions, I should point out that I am not an expert on identifying these, and when in doubt chose to leave out this information.) "British", in a classification, indicates that I believe the book to be available ONLY in British edition.

I had hoped to be able to include a thumbnail description of each title which was not self-explanatory--at the very least report whether it was science fiction, fantasy or weird--and in fact an evening at the Los Angeles Science Fantasy Society was devoted to interrogating bibliophiles present: but as the deadline (dictated by desired distribution at the 4th World Science Fiction Convention) drew disastrously near, I was forced to classify books broadly as "stf", "fantasy", etc.--or, occasionally--omit tags altogether.

To those who will elect to use this list as a search guide--good hunting! To those who may be moved to follow suit on the final disposition of their collections--the appreciation of posterity. To the many willing hands that helped in the assembly of this first edition of 500--the Foundation's thanks. To E. Everett Evans, who single handedly mimeographed the 13,000 sheets comprising the edition--appropriate acknowledgment. AT YOUR SERVICE!

ADDENDA: While stenciling the foregoing, I was plagued by a persistent nagging notion that I was omitting something. The thought would occasionally flit thru my mind, Is that all I have by that author? Or: Don't I have a certain title after all? Midway thru my listing, the light dawned when I happened upon 78 slips I had overlooked in the alphabetizing process! Those beyond the letter "N" I interfiled. Herewith are the missing titles. I might explain (since the point has already been brot up by a pre-release kibitzer) that I am not inclined to have a title in my collection if I already have it in the original magazine form. For instance: I do not have Cummings' "Man Who Mastered Time", "Farrano the Conqueror", "The Sea King" or "Brigands of the Moon" in book form, because I have them in Argosy, Science and Invention, and Astounding. Mind, I have no objection to having them in book form, but, unless they should come into my possession very cheaply or incidentally, I make no particular effort to collect them, preferring first to add some volume not available in any other form. All clear? Needless to say, I BEQUEATH my magazine collection (c. 1400 different issues) to the Foundation, too.
