FANTASTIC ADVENTURES GOES SMALL SIZE AND BI-MONTHLY!

AMAZING'S AND FANTASTIC'S FUTURE LINE-UP REVEALED!!!

EXCLUSIVE - By airmail from our Chicago Correspondent.

Yes, heart-rending as it seems fantastic as it sounds, and incomprehensible as it is -- FANTASTIC ADVENTURES, the answer to fandom's greatest prayer, the only professional large size sciencefiction magazine is about to go bi-monthly and revert to a small size format. This information and the following details were revealed to your reporter in an exclusive interview on Monday morning, March 11th, with Raymond A. Palmer and David Verne of the ZIFF-DAVIS PUBLISHING COMP.

Beginning with the June or July issue, FANTASTIC ADVENTURES will become a small size, untrimmed 146 page magazine, exactly like its companion, AMAZING STORIES. This decision was not reached overnight, but has been debated and contemplated for some months, and the results are soon to be made evident.

For a while it was thought, by the ZIFF-DAVIS offices, that FA was to be unparalleled in its circulation, and consequential success. For many months it actually did show its heels to the other leading stf mags - AMAZING included. But since Jan 1940, FA has been the victim of a steady decline in circulation.

was at once raised: "Why this sudden cessation of popularity?" The editorial staff immediately set about answering this question.

Each fan letter that came into the editorial offices was minutely examined. As time wore on, these labors bore fruit. The answer was found.

Much to the consternation of the Editors, it was made plain that the large size which fandom has so enthusiastically applauded was unpopular! So unpopular that circulation figures began to drop. Readers were writing in demanding a small size magazine like AMAZING STORIES. Demanding a magazine easy to hold, file, and fit into back pockets! The magazine which has given us the splendid large Paul back cover series, which has given us the wonderful format we had wished for, is to be decreased in size because the majority of its readers cannot carry it around in their back pockets!

Ray is as gloomy over the matter as you or I. But unfortunately as Ray says: "Business is business. We cannot afford to cater to 200 active fans when the majority of our buyers disagree." With either the June or July issue, therefore, unless a miracle intervenes beforehand, FANTASTIC ADVENTURES will go small size, 146 pages, untrimmed edges, and bi-monthly, for at least two issues, as an experiment.

While I was discussing this situation with Ray (Con. P. 3, Col. 1)

GUEST EDITORIAL by John Wasso, Jr.

The following is a copy of a letter which I have sent both to "The Eyrie", in WEIRD TALES and to Mr. Delaney, the publisher. WE MUST GET FARNSWORTH BACK!:-

I have just received the May issue of WEIRD TALES. There is something unmistakably wrong about the whole magazine. Something seems to be missing. Perhaps it is Farnsworth Wright???

Please - for the sake of old times and for the sake of old-timers like myself - get rid of Hannes Bok before another day dawns. Bok elsewhere, yes, but not in WEIRD TALES.

If you let WT degenerate into a cheap horror mag, then I'll lose my faith in humanity. WT was the last outpost of imaginative intelligence - that is what set it apart from the cheap horror and terror mags.

What if WT is losing money at present? It is only temporary. You will not gain anything and will lose a lot by cheapening this fine publication and attempting to bring it to the low level in literature occupied by its crude competitors.

I've been supporting WT since 1923 and I hate to see my favorite means of solace and comfort come to such an inglorious end.

(Editorial note: Mr. Wasso's letter, printed above, expresses the opinion of one of the old-time readers of WEIRD TALES. It does not necessarily express the opinion of the editorial staff of FANTASY NEWS, but is published merely for the interest or comment of our readers. (wss))

FAN MAG REVIEW by Harry Warner, Jr.

STARDUST: Vol.1, no.2. 24 large size beautifully printed pp, slick paper, illustrated. Great cover by Binder, inner material by Ley, Williams, Tarr, Long, Ackerman, Hornig, Geier, and departments. Superlative, and essential at 20¢. From Bill Hamling, 2609 Argyle St, Chicago, Illinois.

FANTASTIC ADVENTURES GOES BIMONTHLY

Cont'd from Page One: Dave Verne suddenly interrupted and began to outline a story to us. When he had finished, he asked us what we thought of it, and we agreed that it was good. As a result, Floyd Gale, brother of H.L. Gold, has sold his first story, a 5000 word short tentatively titled: "Pay-off Asteroid".

The June issue of AMAZING STORIES is to be a special all-inter-planetary number. The lineup, (titles not yet chosen) is as follows: Don Wilcox with a 20,000 worder, Ed Earl Repp with 10,000 words, Ross Rocklynne with 7500 words, David Wright O'Brien, (Farnsworth Wright's nephew) with the cover story, tentatively titled "Trapped On Titan" and 10,000 words long, Festus Pragnell with a 7000 word sequel to his popular "Ghost Of Mars", and new author Floyd Gale with his 5000 word short. The cover is to be done by Krupa.

The June FANTASTIC ADVENTURES will lead off with "Doctor Destiny" the cover story, of 20,000 words by Robert Moore Williams. Robert O. Lewis contributes a 2000 word short Peter Horn is back again with a 5500 worder, and Nelson S. Bond pens a 7500 word yarn. The cover is by Mulford.

I then brought up the question of Neil R. Jones and the "Professor Jameson" series, so popular a few years back, and learned from both Dave and Ray, this much: AMAZING STORIES wants strong plotting and good action in its yarns. Professor Jameson has always utilized beauty of setting, etc., for his popularity. Too, Dave says that he has had difficulty in working with Neil R. Jones, the originator of the series. It seems that Jones refuses to instill the requisite action and a zippy plot into his Jameson yarns. So until someone gives in, the issue is at deadlock.

This closes another monthly meeting with the editors of AS and your reporter, so until next month-- I'll be seeing you -- WITH PALMER.

THE CINCINNATI SFL REPORTS THAT:

A notice of our meeting inserted in one of the local papers brought good results to the Cincinnati club recently. Three new fellows dropped around and pledged themselves to be regulars.

The new members are:

Ingolf Otto,

Creighton Buck,

Fred Henry Bruch,

and all are university students. They also have other prospects at hand.

We believe that the Cincinnati Chapter now possesses the distinction of being the weekly club with the greatest number of regular attendants. At least eight meet every Friday night.

FAN MAG NEWS Cont'd: Fiction Society needs subscriptions. The mag is good. 5¢ from Bob Madle, 333 E. Belgrade, Phila, Pa. Try it! --- (sm) --- Beg Pardon: Bob Studley is not quitting the staff of "The Sciential" but is carrying on with both it and Dick Crain's projected mag. The latter will be called "Cosmic Collector", which is combining with Giunta's "Cosmic-Scienti-Tales" (n.c)

SCIENTIFILMS by Mario Racio, Jr.

HAL ROACH has decided to present his two young stars, Carole Landis and John Hubbard, in the company of some of Hollywood's most prominent players in the new ROACH production, "Turnabout". Miss Landis, who will soon be seen in "One Million B.C." and John Hubbard, will participate in "Turnabout" with Adolphe Menjou, William Gar- gan, Mary Astor, Verree Teasdale, Franklin Pangborn, Joyce Compton, Margaret Roach, Donald Meek, Polly Ann Young, and Inez Courtney. "Turnabout" is from the pen of the late Thorne (Topper) Smith and includes some of the most satirical writings of that best-selling author.

Jo Ann Sayers has been signed by COLUMBIA for the romantic lead opposite Roger Pryor in "The Man Who Would Not Die", which stars Boris Karloff.

Robert Louis Stevenson's "Dr. Jekyll and Mr. Hyde" will be filmed for the third time by METRO-GOLD-WYN-MAYER, with Robert Donat in the dual title role. Screen rights to the property were acquired from PARAMOUNT which produced the picture in 1920 with John Barrymore, and again in 1932 with Frederic March and Miriam Hopkins.

On p. 38-39 of CUE, the Weekly Magazine of New York Life, appear two closeups of Boris (Mad Surgeon) Karloff and Bela (Dracula) Lugosi, which you will want for your collection. On p. 15 of the same issue, moviegoers are invited to formulate their idea of heaven by voting for the pictures they would like to see most. Stfans, here is your chance to make your wants known. We suggest you write to CUE, 6 East 39th St, New York, N.Y. listing your favorite stfilms you would like to see revived.

FMN CON: Giunta's sub list and all mat'l including two Lovecraft stories are being turned over to the new mag. "The Sciential" as well as the CC will have a new cover artist who is trying to break into the pros. Si's next cover will be mimeod on heavy colored paper. (bs)
