A FANZINE FOR FRED WHITLEDGE #2
-----

Unlike Dwain Kaiser, I like to say something in my inclusions. And so I'll fill up this side of the page with a few comments.

Ted is sending in an inclusion supplied by the New York Convention and visitors Bureau. I understand that it's a map of the New York subway system. Unfortunately, although I did give it to Dave Van Arnam a few months ago, I can't even remember what it's from.

This pamphlet has just come in; it catalogs events in New York from December 21st through March 21st, and is issued quarterly.

While you're waiting for the mother goddess, you might take in a worldcon in New York City.

You see, Dwain? It's rather simple, isn't it?

You might like to attend the LunaCon/Eastercon, held next year at the Edison Hotel in downtown New York. A twoday affair, with partying over, under, around, but not through the LunaCon.

TriCon in '66!!!
NyCon III in '67!!!
LayCon in '68!!!
Gafia in '69!!!
