First of all, TJ 13 is now at the printers, and we expect to get it back about a week after most copies of this GrD are mailed one. We have switched to a new, much more dependable printer and should now have far better luck. TJ 13 is an ORCRIST again, and we hope to have a TJ of our own out in the very near future. We'll have copies of 13 at Yulemoot. Nan's mother, Mrs S Miles, has now taken over all the business functions of the TSA to leave us with more time to work on Rend with the traditional seed-cakes and TRAVEL DIRECTIONS -- Bronx House is on Pelham (Bay) Parkway about 6 blocks east of Boston-Post-Rd/White Plains Rd and a mile west of the New England Thruway & Hutchison River Parkway. BY CAR: take Pelham Parkway W from NE Thruway or Hutchison Pkwy to White Plains Rd, turn around NE Thruway or Hutchison Pkwy to White Plains Rd, turn around Parkway E from Bronx I also recomment very highly Pratt & deCamps Land of Unreason (95c). Other titles include George MacDonalds Lilith & Phantastes (separate books), Hannes Bok's Beyond the Company of the Blue Flamingo) and Ballantine has issued in its adult fantasy series some good books and some bad ones. They recently issued Evangeline W Walton's long out-of-print The Virgin & The Swine as The Island of the Mighty, an excellent novel based on the 4th The Sorcerer's Ship, Lord Dunsaney's At the Edge of the World George Meredith's The Shaving of Shagpat, Hope Millees Lud of the Mist, Lin's anthologies Golden Cities, Far & Dragons, Elves & Heroes, H P Lovecraft's The Dream Quest of Unknown Kadath, James Branch Cabell's Figures of Earth & The High I have written several other people asking them to speak but too recently for them to have replied by now. I am also invit-recommend The Ship Who Sang by Anne McCaffrey, Poul Aning the C S Lewis Society of New York to participate in the m derson's Erain Wave, and Larry Niven's RINGWORLD. I would meeting but this is rather late notice for them. I do hope that also like to recommend the following SF from Signer Books: something can still be arranged. Please come and bring friends Fred Hoyle's anthology Element 70, Philip K Dick's Do Androic' Dream of Electric Sneep, Poul Anderson's The Rebel Worlds.
