Well, gang, I finally went and did it--- just like most of you did. I am now the proud owner of a mimeo and is it an old battle 4axe. BUT it is mine -all mine. I have had the ~~xxx~~urge for a long time but the same trouble, lack of money, has prevented me from putting out a sheet of my own. This mimeo is an old 8-f (maybe a cousin to 4H's) Neostyle made by A.B. Dick Co of Chicago. It sure is a lot different from the one DUNK has. After a whole evening wasted(?) I finally mastered the use of x it and was I ever proud when the first perfect sheet left the stencil. The KAY-MAN TRADER will appear from time to time to allow me to move some of the many promags that I have received as payment for printing jobs. I hope a lot of you fen will send me your lists for sell or trade and we will see how it works out.

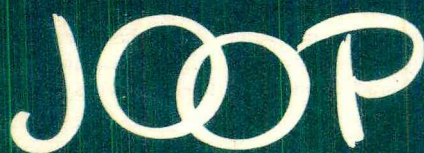

If you havent bought your copy of Kennedy's THE 1946 FANTASY REVIEW, for GHU's sake DONT MISS IT. It is really worth FIFTY CENTS (just double what he asks for it) of any man's money. And hurry up as he has only a few left.

Write to Dunk (Fargo, N.D.) and let him know what you need. He has a long list of promags for sale now.

Ron. P. maddox sells Office Supplies. and good ones too, I have bought from him and know. Write him at Box 194 McLean, Va.

Roy Paetzke, route 4, Lidgerwood, N.D. has some of the good old Sax Rohmer "Foo Manchu" books. Write to him, he has two for sale at $1.00 each.
