EDITORIAL

In TNFF recently, I noticed that a certain constitution mentioned a change of name for our organization. So - - -after a "build-Up" of four years we are to throw away all our gain in fandom, all for the sake of a new name. Will it be worth it? I DONT THINK SO, and I am not alone on that stand. For GHU'S sake let's keep what we have and WORK for the betterment of the organization. A new name wont help us in that. The loss of the name NFFF will do more harm than good in more ways than one. Write in to TNFF and give your views about this.

Some of us do not realize the benefits gained thru the advertisement of the FINLAY FOLIO. The advance sales will soon pay for the entire cost to NFFF. It was thru the sole efforts of our President, Walter Dunkelberger, that the NFFF was able to get the rights for the Re-print. And the number of new members attracted to our organization by the low price for the FINLAY FOLIO is increasing all the time.
