

THE LINDSAY TRADER

No 2 September.1971

From: Ethel Lindsay

6 Langley Avenue. Surbiton. Surrey
KT6 6QL. UK.

All money orders should be made payable to Ethel Lindsay, not please, to THE LINDSAY TRADER. Prices are scaled as to the last catalogue. Until the dollar exchange settles down, I thought this was the best thing to do. However, due to the last rise in postal charges I must ask customers to add 25¢ or 20p to the price of each book. Very heavy books will have the postage mentioned in the price.

All orders filled in strict rotation. All items sent at customers risk unless insured - paid extra. Full refund if dissatisfaction given.

Abbreviations: F-fair. G-good. VG-very good. dw-dust wrappers.

Thank you to those who sent their want lists, I will set out book-hunting armed with them. Anyone receiving this catalogue who wishes to see the first issue-please ask. Many of the items have gone but there are still a few left. Item numbering has been continued from Catalogue No 1.

The Paperback list is by way of an experiment...although some of you did express interest. I know that many of you are only interested in hardcover books; and some of you are only interested in first editions. However, I do meet people who say they will be glad to have a good reading copy. As new paperbacks go up in price..so do the secondhand ones. For this reason more people seem to be selling them. As nothing disappears from booksellers as quickly as a paperback edition..it is often only among the secondhand copies that you can find a wanted book. I will be interested to hear your reactions to this venture.

At the end of my catalogue is a listing of books-a small selection of detection and assorted fiction from the stock of George Locke, 27 Beechcroft Rd. London. SW17 George is a specialist dealer in antiquarian science fiction and fantasy from before 1950. He would prefer to trade detection and mystery fiction to selling it; and would give preference to customers offering to trade for the listed items than those wishing to purchase. Write to George direct. He will also have lists of SF and fantasy available shortly. He also has a large no of SF fanzines (1948-1955) including copies of HYPHEN: SLANT: GRUE: QUANDRY: FANTASY ADVERTISER: ORION: PLOY: SF NEWS, Early OMPA Mailings and hundreds of others. Please write George direct if you are interested.
