ONWARD NEW FANDOM

Sail on oh ship of space,
Sail on oh club once strong
and great.
Tho dark clouds over head,
Make the sailing one of dread
With strong will and determination,
We shall again lead the na-

THIRD ANNIVERSARY

The PRESIDENT'S Message

NEW FANDOM has survived a crisis. For more than a year it remained in a state of suspended animation while its fate hung in balance. The club was financially broke. Much of the enthusiasm that had high-lighted its early days were missing. And in addition, there was a huge mountain of indebtedness. Unexpired memberships, which could not be disregarded. So early this spring we weakly planned to fill these obligations as well as we could. New Fandom was incorporated into COSMIC TALES under a new membership plan, and slowly but surely we began to whittle down the issues of the club organ we owed to our members.

I will be frank. Bitterly frank. New Fandom was nothing more than an empty husk, scarcely animated, with only tattered rags of its once proud raiment clinging to it. There seemed only one ending to the story. A conscientious march through the mountain of indebtedness and collapse into the bone yard.

But amazingly something has happened. Something unexpected. New memberships came in, not many, but enough to arouse hope. We had made no elaborate promises to new members this time as on the date of our debut. In fact we could insure them was that even if New Fandom did collapse their money would be safe, they would receive every cent worth in some other publication, whether it be COSMIC TALES, FANTASY-TIMES, or what have we.

Frankly the future of NEW FANDOM rests in the hands of fandom. There is no pretense now that the club still has immense reserves, large enough to survive any catastrophe. Rather I'll plainly confess that a few well-directed pushes can send NEW FANDOM into the limbo of remembered things. It would ~~be easier to tear to shreds what remains of a once powerful and proud club, that course would be easier than rebuilding the club stone by stone, notch by notch.~~ take no giant of power to tear to shreds what remains of a once powerful and proud club, that course would be easier than rebuilding the club stone by stone, notch by notch.

Fans, it is yours to do with us as you will. You cup the fate of NEW FANDOM in the palm of your hands.

your president,

Sam Moskowitz

RE AMAZING STORIES AND PALMER

As you may have noticed in the recent two issues of AMAZING STORIES, Editor Palmer accused NEW FANDOM members of writing in and stating that AMAZING STORIES stunk. Naturally everyone has the right to his own opinion, and the right to write in to any editor and tell him what he thought of his magazine. But RAP indicated in the October issue of AMAZING STORIES that only NEW FANDOM members wrote in. This of course was not true. So our President SAM MOSKOWITZ wrote a letter to PALMER. As seen by the November issue, where he attempted to straighten things out for RAP. It now turns out that it was not NEW FANDOM at all that wrote in those letters, but another organization. NO! Mr. Palmer, Donald A. Wollheim does not belong to, and is NOT a member of NEW FANDOM. He is a member of this other organization. NO, NO, NO, Mr. Palmer, NEW FANDOM never voted or thought to vote to ban the pro magazines, or decide to discontinue connections with all pro magazines, it was this other organization. We have been with the pros from the very beginning, and will continue to be with in the future. What would be the use of an stf organization unless it was connected or for the pro magazines? Can you answer that Mr. Palmer.

We understand Ray that it was all a mixup, so lets forget about it and work together in the future to build up stf.

JOHN GIUNTA has consented to do the next cover for the WINTER 1942 edition of NEW FANDOM, which will be mailed with the February 1942 issue of FANTASY-TIMES.

ALL MEMBERS OF NEW FANDOM ARE REQUESTED TO WRITE IN AND LET HEAD-QUARTERS KNOW WHETHER OR NOT YOU WANT NEW FANDOM TO SUPPORT THE CALIFORNIA CONVENTION. WRITE IN AT ONCE, A POST CARD WILL DO.
