

RELAX-TOW

-----
Edited and published by Shirley Meech, Apt. B-8, 260 Elkton Road, Newark, Delaware 19711. Published twice monthly when the months are long enough, in the hope you'll keep me informed on items I miss.
Subscription price, 5 issues $1. Amok Publication
#6. Write NBC about ST's time spot! Join VOICE!
-----

Star date, 8098.7

Hailing frequencies open--

Back to your battle stations, crew, the Enterprise is under attack again! (No, not by the lovely Mrs. Peel--more about her later.)

As you recall from our last thrilling episode, Star Trek was in danger of being cancelled because of low Nielsen ratings, brought on in part by the Friday night time spot in the network schedule. Many viewers just aren't home on Friday nights;

they're attending school or college events, or dating, or involved in other social activities.

So Star Trek fans wrote a million letters, and NBC decided to renew the show. They tentatively scheduled it for 7:30 Mondays, which seemed likely to improve its Nielsen position. But did it remain there? No. ST is now scheduled for 10 PM Fridays. Which could mean more low ratings, which could mean cancellation in January.

A few news clippings. Matt Messina's column in the New York Daily News says Gene Roddenberry is trying to get an earlier time on a week night.
The TV editor of the Seattle Times calls 10 PM Friday "a time berth that adds up to a non-confidence vote" and says "the show's fate appears to be up in the air...." Variety says "...it's said a buy from R. J. Reynolds Tobacco Company prompted NBC's shift of Star Trek from early Monday night to late Friday night, where it is safe for a tobacco to advertise." The TV editor of the Boston Herald Traveler calls the late Friday spot "an undesirable one for this program" and comments it would have been better to leave it in the early Monday time, "But who are we to tell Mort Werner of NBC what to do?" (We're the viewers and fans, that's who!) Messina's column calls chances of another schedule change "considered remote." (But chances of renewal were considered remote, a few months back....)

Reliable sources say Roddenberry will not sign unless ST gets a better time. And a news release just received from TV critic Harry Harris of the Philadelphia Inquirer says that as a result of the shift to the 10 PM Friday "graveyard" spot, "There's been an emergency meeting of the cast, who've decided that it would be suicide to allow the show to be aired at that late hour, when so many of their youthful viewers are away from the sets. They've decided to walk off the series in revolt unless the network meets their demands: a new viewing time or at least a firm commitment for 26 shows."

OK. Let's back them up. Back to the ~~phasers~~ typewriters--those addresses are: Julian Goodman, President, NBC-TV, 30 Rockefeller Plaza, New York,
New York, 10020. Mort Werner, Program Director, NBC-TV, same address.
R. J. Reynolds Tobacco Company, Winston-Salem, North Carolina 27100.

And meanwhile, back at the Nielsens--have you joined VOICE yet? VOICE is the organization which will replace Nielsen, if we all get behind it.

VOICE, a division of Technic Research Corp., Seattle, will provide viewers a direct representation to the networks. Our opinions on all TV programming phases will be tabulated and presented to them, and also to the network affiliates, independent, educational, and CATV stations, to assist them in local program scheduling.

VOICE is now conducting its Charter Membership drive. For those joining now, dues are $2 ($3 for two members of the same family). After June 1 this will increase to $3 (family memberships $5). The membership goal for June 1 is 100,000 members, with an ultimate goal of 3,000,000 plus. A better idea than Nielsen's 1100, right? Check. VOICE is registered with the Better Business Bureau and the Attorney General. Membership applications were distributed with last issue; new subscribers will get them with this issue. If you need more, let me know. Or write direct to Mr. Jack V. Ritter, President, Technic Research Corporation, 2450 Sixth Avenue South, Seattle, Washington 98134. Let's drown out Nielsen by joining VOICE!

-----
What would you say if you saw a tree floating around the Enterprise?
-----

Many thanks and a Vulcan salute to--all those who sent in news and clippings for this issue; Alicia Austin for the "Spock Meets Mrs. Peel" cover (note that stylized aleph signature--it stands for Austin, and you'll be seeing more of it); to Austin, Bush, Sherna Comerford, Dorothy Fensterer, Sara Fensterer, Daphne Hamilton and Terry Romine for illos. (Art note--#7 will have a DEA. cover, and some more covers in the Bush series are coming up on future issues.) Special thanks to the Illinois and Ottawa fans for news of "Visit To A Small Planet," and to everybody who sent Spock newspaper posters and ST bubble gum cards! (More about posters and cards in the Trading Post.)

-----
You'd say it was from DeForest. (Bush)
-----

Protest March Dept. marches on--

Several members of the Vulcan Consulate group in Seattle marched on their local NBC affiliate, March 22, to protest the 10 PM Friday time spot. They picketed the station (in costumes and make-up), and were filmed by a TV camera there. The film was shown on the local news telecast, and it's said film clips will be sent to Julian Goodman. (Thanx, Vera Heminger!)

-----
Wouldn't you know it would take a Bush to come up with a DeForest joke?
-----

Slandau of Vulcan

Leonard Nimoy News - from Peggye Vickers, President, LNNAF

Leonard Nimoy will be taping a Woody Woodbury Show, air date not yet available.

He has taped a Steve Allen Show, air date not yet available.

And April 13 he will be presenting one of the finalists in the "Miss Teenage International" pageant, which will be shown that night in the Hollywood Palace time slot.

-----
Mark Lenard News - from Peggye Vickers

Mark Lenard will be co-starring in an ABC series next fall, "Here Come the Brides." Hope it isn't scheduled opposite ST....

-----
LATE NEWS FLASH--the ST contract with NBC has been signed. For 16 weeks only. Let's write NBC about that time slot, anyway!

-----
"Journey To Babel" for Hugo
-----

Cyrano Jones Trading Post

Bruce Anderson, Box 24, Walker Hall, Normal, Ill. 61761, has extra copies of the Spock poster which appeared in the Chicago's American newspaper. These can be purchased for 20¢.

Kim Kowalewski, 1009 - 7th St., Rockford, Ill. 61108, has several sets of the ST bubble gum cards available for trade or sale ($1.25 for a complete set, single cards 2¢ each); a few copies of the newspaper poster for trade or sale; and two other posters for sale. One is the color poster of Spock holding the Enterprise model, and the other is the Enterprise (this may not be in color). These are 30x38 posters, mailed in cardboard tubes, limit 2 to a person (price $2 each, or $2 for the first poster and $1.50 for others ordered at the same time).

Maggie Rose, 1004 N. Hudson, Hollywood, Calif. 90038, has a few extra copies of the color cover (from a newspaper magazine-section) showing Spock, Kirk, McCoy and Uhura, for trade.

And I have a few extra copies of PLAK-TOW covers in the Bush series-- #3 (Spock), #4 (Kirk) and #5 (McCoy). If you missed those or would like extras, send two 6¢ stamps for each cover wanted. (OK, Bush, if we "sell" 'em, you get some of the stamps)

Also, Barbi Marczak, 5906 Cecil, Detroit, Mich. 48210, may still have some extra ST articles from magazines to trade--write her and see.

-----
Tape Dept. - ST fans wishing to correspond by tape have been sent the list of each other's names. If you don't have a tape recorder but would like to correspond with other ST fans by mail, telepathy, etc., send in your name and address (and list an interest or two other than ST, if you want) and we'll put you in touch with the others. Equal rights for non-tapers. Does that make it the Communicator Dept.? Put this on a post-card or separate sheet in letter, please.

Star Trek Fanzines

are coming thick and fast. An up-to-date scorecard:

1. ST-PHILE, available right now from Juanita Coulson, Rt. 3, Hartford City, Ind. 47348. 50 pages of excellent ST articles and artwork, 50¢.
2. WHERE NO FAN HAS GONE BEFORE, available now from Bjo Trimble, 417 N. Kenmore, Los Angeles, Calif. 90004. Send a 6¢ stamp for this highly informative newszine.
3. ST CONCORDANCE available soon but orders not being taken just now. Stay tuned to WHERE NO FAN and PLAK-TOW and you'll hear about it, when it's done.
4. INSIDE ST - same situation as ST CONCORDANCE.
5. GALILEO SEVEN - Kathy Bushman (also known as Bush) is looking for material for this one. Send your ST drawings (full page preferred, black ink on white paper), short stories or poems to her at 8 Brookside Drive, Southington, Conn. 06489. Deadline is July 1. (After June 1, send material to Box 89, Pearce, Arizona 85625.)
6. Lois J. McMaster, 3481 W. Henderson Rd., Columbus, Ohio 43221, is looking for material for a Star Trek one-shot. Send her your fiction, artwork, cartoons, articles, etc.
7. KEVAS AND TRILLIUM - coming soon from Ottawa. Stay tuned.
8. EN GARDE - no, that's not an ST zine, but this is "be kind to The Avengers" week for PLAK-TOW. EN GARDE is available for 40¢ from Richard Schultz, 19159 Helen St., Detroit, Mich. 48234. It's a 50-page zine with photograph covers. Richard Schultz cares for The Avengers as we do for ST; he says nice things about the ST zines and groups; and Bush is going to do some artwork for him that ST fans will find most interesting.
9. The Dr. McCoy's Sick Bay club is no longer a club--it's now a zine. This will be available soon from Barbi Marczak, 5906 Cecil, Detroit, Mich. 48210, for 30¢ a copy or $2 plus four 6¢ stamps, per year. Send her artwork, fiction, etc., preferably on Kelley/McCoy.

And of course, there's SPOCKANALIA #2, being prepared now--and here is the Report From Garlic Press - by Sherna Comerford

Garlic Press is (ahem) pleased to announce that on August 10, 1968, Sherna will be married to trufan Brian Burley. Brian is a founding member of both ØSFS and CØSFS, two fan organizations centered in Ohio. He and Sherna are both members of the ØCON Committee (Columbus Worldcon in '69). Ain't fandom romantic?

The couple plans to live in northern New Jersey, and SPOCKANALIA is expected to continue unabated.

-----
Sherna and Brian...that has a nice ring to it...(SM)
-----

Report From Garlic Press, continued

Meanwhile, back at the fanzine, typing is nearly done, the myriad details needed to prepare the typed stencils (such as proofreading and pasting on pictures) are well under way, and the first stencils have been mimeoed. The zine is 114 pages long, on slightly better paper than #1. (We're using the same paper Andy Porter gets for SFW.) Colors are yellow and pastel green, which is at least better than the tan we were forced to use before.

Legibility of type is, alas, worse. Devra is doing most of the typing, with the extensive help of SPOCKANALIA's newest staff member, her cousin Debbie Langsam. Devra refused to do #2 on the portable typer she suffered over for #1, so we rented an electric. The mockup was all planned out for the type size of that electric. Now, when it is too late, we find the stencils it cuts are not of the best quality. Caveat emptor. We'll know better next time.

The pictures, on the other hand, are beautiful. We just got back the ferocious batch we sent Juanita Coulson (patience, thy name is Juanita). A better stencil no person, and probably no machine, could possibly cut.

A word of apology to those whose articles we were forced to take out of #2. Everyone has been notified by now, and they will be in #3. These include John Boardman's discussion of a human ancestor of Spock's (not Sherlock Holmes), Dorothy Jones' discussion and development of the Vulcan language (lauded for scholarship by Gene Roddenberry), Juanita Coulson's delightful and real "transcription" of an orientation lecture given to new members of the Enterprise department of clothing and supply--and others we didn't want to wait until September to publish. Sob.

But there's much good stuff left in #2, too. Wait until April 20. (And no money before then, please. We don't want to risk losing it in the confusion of getting published.)

-----
St. Louis in '69

-----
Another zine note: Bjo Trimble would like to have questions for INSIDE ST, and will try to get answers for publication in the zine. What would you like to ask Celia Lovsky (T'Pau)? Or any other ST star? What would you like to ask the technicians? Send questions to Bjo at 417 North Kenmore, Los Angeles, Calif. 90004.

-----
St. Louis in '68, too--Go, Cardinals!

-----
News From the Clubs - The Little Enterprise is an ST club approved by the show's three top stars. Dues are 75¢ a year plus four 8¢ stamps; four journals per year are published; and various fascinating items are for sale. Write Rita Ractliffe, 3200 Altura, El Paso, Tex. 79930. (This club took 3rd place in the "Save ST" petition contest.)

No other club news this ish except for two corrections. The main interest of Omicron Ceti Three is ST, not SF as I typed in #5; and Spock's Scribes dues include 8 6¢ stamps. (And they have a $1 Journal.) More from clubs next issue.

WHAT'S A ST. CHARLES?

or

WHO NEEDS LSD TO TAKE A TRIP?

Art by Alicia Austin

Story by Maureen Bourns

Editing, kibitzing and rotten navigation by Rosemary Ulliot
Canadian money supplied by Jackie Dowell

St. Charles, Illinois being only about 900 miles from Ottawa, Ontario, we decided that three Nimoy-fan drivers (Alicia, Jackie and Maureen) and one crazy navigator (Rosemary) could easily make it for "Visit To A Small Planet." The actual driving time was 18 hours, counting inadvertent side trips, or from 9 p.m. Thursday (right after Star Trek) to 3 p.m. Friday (2 p.m. Chicago time).

We surmounted difficulties caused by losing the fan belt and blowing a gasket, and managed to find St. Charles in spite of the limitations of American maps--St. Charles was marked, all right, but none of the highways leading to it showed a number on the map. Tired, extremely disheveled and thoroughly disbelieving, we suddenly (an overnight success) found ourselves in front of a marquee reading "Leonard Nimoy - Visit To A Small Planet"!

The Pheasant Run Playhouse is attached to a lovely Pheasant Run Lodge. We immediately turned around and drove back to the "Galaxy Motel" we had passed, which looked more in our price range and rather more in our style (driving for 18 hours, remember?).

We registered and unpacked the car, then blasted off and bought Rosemary a pair of shoes to replace the ones she left sitting on the kitchen table in Ottawa, and had to explain the knee-high boots in a town with no snow for weeks. (The green complexion was caused by pure jealousy.) Rosemary then looking more or less respectable, she ventured into the Lodge and firmly requested that our envelope be placed in Mr. Nimoy's hands before the evening performance.

We hied ourselves back to the Galaxy to bathe and dress for dinner and the play, and to worry about whether or not Mr. and Mrs. Nimoy would like the sketch Alicia had done of them, and the special computer-run songbook put together by Jackie and Maureen. We had enclosed a note telling him we had indeed arrived, as we had given him advance ~~warning~~ notice by an Air Mail, Special Delivery, Registered letter earlier in the week--would you believe 98¢ postage?

Tune in three hours later: the Pheasant Run is a dinner theatre, so we were finishing a delicious meal and begging another cup of coffee. By this time we were just anxious to see the performance; wondering how the character of Kreton had fared in the adaptation from the too-short television script to a stage play, but sure that Leonard Nimoy could handle anything. The play and the performance more than lived up to our expectations.

"Mush, you huskies! Mush!"

Although the actors seemed slightly stiff and ill at ease before Nimoy's entrance, the whole thing visibly clicked when he bounded (literally) onto the stage with one of the biggest grins you have ever seen.

Kreton has a champagne personality--constantly bubbling, and every so often he goes off with a pop. Like that mad jig at the end of Act I when he had decided to take over the world. (He can have my world any time.) Or his war games with the General ending in a dogfight with toy planes--Vrrooom!--with bombers, yet? To borrow a word, "delicious."

Following the curtain call, Nimoy remained onstage to say a few words, and announced that there was "a group in the audience who drove 18 hours to get here. Where are they?" He waved at us as we completely blew our cool and waved our Canadian flag, crying, "Here we are!"

As there had been an announcement that the audience was free to visit the performers in the dressing rooms, we decided to wait (outside the door in a strategic position) to see him, so that we would not delay others. Finally Rosemary got through and burst in, saying, "HI! We're the group from Ottawa!" Whereupon he stood up, gave us a big smile, and a hearty "Hello there! What can I do for you?" Fortunately, none of us answered this query truthfully....

We presented him with the various goodies that we had brought for him, including a couple of Canadian books and a bottle of Canadian sherry (for his birthday). He especially seemed to enjoy the "Honorary Irishman" button on the sherry, in honor of the (approximate) date. Having no pictures of Nimoy, we apologized and asked him to autograph our pictures of Mr. Spock, which he kindly did, thoughtfully giving us each a different note. (Rosemary, WHY did he say "Thank you so much"???)

We attempted to take pictures, but luckily had trouble with the flash. Seeing our problem, he told us to leave our phone number at the desk so he could call us in the morning, because anyone coming all that way deserved some pictures. We chatted with him a bit longer--coherently, I hope, since we seem to have gone blank on portions of the conversation.

Next morning, after blasting through the motel office with our autographed pix, and chewing our fingernails up to the elbow, we received a call from Mrs. Nimoy. She apologized to us, explaining that his brother and sister-in-law had come in and he'd be unable to see us. We said we quite understood, but had a couple of things for him which we would leave at the desk if this would be agreeable. She again said he would be disappointed, and that she liked Alicia's sketch, it made her "look so good"--but having seen her in person we were of the opinion that she needs little more than her presence to look good.

Anyway, we repacked the car (!) and drove to the Lodge to deposit the sketch; called Mrs. Nimoy on the house phone to tell her it was there; and got the delightful news that Mr. Nimoy would stop in the lobby on their way out, giving us an opportunity to take our pictures.

This he very promptly did, bearing with fortitude our appearance in traveling clothes (sweatshirts, ski slacks and knee-high boots--we were heading north again). He accepted Alicia's sketch and the rare mutated stripey Canadian tribble with a chuckle and explained that he really had only a few minutes. Pray for us, loyal fans and true, that the b&w pix on the Minox turn out, because we, of all people, had to wind up with a Polaroid film packed wrong at the factory. (I have to say that, as Rosemary is still indignant that we blamed her for bollixing the camera when it wasn't her fault.)

He finally escaped to his family waiting in the car, pursued by a woman exclaiming, "Mr. NIMoy! My DAughter watches you ALL the TIME on the Tv, Mr. NIMoy!" and still clutching the tribble under one arm and smiling back at us.

So we waved goodbye, and climbed back into the filthy Ford with nothing left but his handwriting on our pictures, our lovely memories, and a blown gasket bracket....

You hear me out there, world?
It was worth it!!!

-----
My affection for Mr. Spock is purely plak-townic. (Maureen)
-----

-----
 Did you hear about the Security Officer who had to stop going out with his girl because she was becoming a Klingon vine? (Alicia)
 -----

Other Leonard Nimoy News....

March 18, Leonard Nimoy was interviewed on a Chicago radio station. He explained how the stardates work, and mentioned that ST's filming begins again May 20. (Thanx, Fred Clarke)

Earlier in March, he held an informal discussion with students at Aurora College, Aurora, Ill., and stressed the importance of education, particularly in acting and writing. He also said that good writers for TV are badly needed. (Thanx, Sherna and Brian)

March 25 he appeared in Cleveland, Ohio, at the May Company, and autographed copies of his Dot album, "Two Sides of Leonard Nimoy." There was a crowd of about 1800. One group presented him with a birthday cake. He stayed longer than had been planned to make sure everyone got an autograph, and later attended a party. (Thanx, Joan Baker)

And March 26 he was back in California, leaving a long trail of autographs and happy fans on both sides of the Canadian border. How's that for an international good will tour?

-----
 Congratulations, Trudeau fans
 -----

BIBLIOGRAPHY - BOOKS

UNCLE #14, The Cross of Gold Affair, by "Frederic Davies." Much of the action takes place in a Coney Island fun house built on an s-f theme. Page 85 - Illya confronts a statue in an alien planet setting. He looks at it, "examining the serious, analytical set of the statue's eyes" and thinks, "I bet when Mr. Waverly was younger he looked a lot like that.... That is, if he had pointy ears, green skin and black bangs." (Thanx, Ruth Berman)

BIBLIOGRAPHY - COMICS

Yes, they've done it again. The second issue of the Gold Key ST comic is out. Front cover has a color picture of Spock with phaser and a b&w of Kirk with phaser rifle; inside cover has b&w pictures of Kirk with lirpa and Spock, Kirk and McCoy on the "Amok Time" set. That's worth 12¢, isn't it? Never mind the rest of it....

BIBLIOGRAPHY - MAGAZINES      Analog, May - letters on ST in lettercol

Uh...would you believe Adam Stag Humor 111? Page 89, a cartoon - "an orgy-causing monster" appears and the crew goes berserk, "all but Spock. He falls in love with the instrument panel." (Thanx, John Mansfield)

Bestsellers (a magazine for magazine wholesalers and retailers), March - reports that the second issue of the ST comic will be on sale March 28. (Thanx, Bruce Anderson)

Read (a division of American Education Publications), March 15 - pages 6-9, "Star Alien," an interview with Leonard Nimoy. (Thanx, Jeanie Fudala)

TV Guide - March 9, Star Trek and DeForest Kelley in crossword; March 16, Chekov in crossword; March 30, the Doan Report says that ST was renewed "bowing no doubt to the clamor of Star Trek fans," and mentions the time slot of Fridays at 10 PM. March 30, Shatner in crossword. April 6, a fan of Garrison's Gorillas urges others who like that series to "Remember Star Trek!"

BIBLIOGRAPHY - MOVIEZINES

Inside TV, May - page 6, Kelley in column. Page 12, picture of Nimoy and mention of his record by Blackwell, the insult man. Pages 32-35, good picture story on the Nimoy's.

Modern Movies, June - page 8, picture of the Nimoy's; page 17, picture of the Kelleys; page 16, picture of Tania Lemani (from "Wolf in the Fold"); page 58, Spock picture; page 97, Nimoy mentioned in article.

Motion Picture, May - page 15, letter mentioning Shatner and Nimoy; page 59, mention of Shatner's movie for TV.

Movie Life, May - page 11, Shatner mentioned; page 14, Shatner mentioned; pages 31-33, Shatner picture story, "A Day at the Gym."

Movie Stars, May - page 26, picture of the Nimoy's and article mentioning them; page 42, article and pictures of Kelley; pages 70, 71, 72 and 74, inaccurate answers to questions concerning Nimoy, Roger C. Carmel, and Nichelle Nichols.

Movieland and TV Time, May - pages 24-25, Kelley article and pictures; page 42, picture of the Nimoy's; page 77, Nimoy's new album mentioned.

BIBLIOGRAPHY - MOVIEZINES, continued

Photoplay, May - page 14, mention of Koenig, Shatner and Nimoy.

Screen Parade, June - pages 48-49, Nimoy article and pictures.

Screen Stars, June - pages 34-35, Nimoy article and full-page picture. (Good picture, bad article.) Page 58, full-page picture of Uhura. Page 59, Nichelle Nichols article.

Screen and TV Album, July - pages 18-19, Nimoy article and full-page picture.

Silver Screen, April - page 27, picture of Nimoy and others at Johnny Mathis show.

TV and Movie Screen, May - page 14, picture of Nimoy with Johnny Mathis and others. Page 15, Shatner mentioned in column.

TV and Screen World, May - page 8, Nimoy mentioned; page 12, Shatner mentioned; pages 30-31, article and full-page picture of the Nimoy's.

TV Picture Life, May - page 14, picture of Spock and letter praising ST and Nimoy. Page 17, picture of the Kelleys and mention of ST's renewal.

TV Radio Mirror, May - page 24, "Two Sides of Leonard Nimoy" reviewed and called "thoroughly enjoyable."

TV Radio Movie Guide, June - page 6, letter from Tim Courtney about Nimoy; letter from Jan Holtzman urging letters to NBC for ST; picture of Spock and Kirk. Page 17, picture of Shatner with "Kleenex heir Jim Kimberly." Pages 44-45, pictures of Spock, Kirk, McCoy, Uhura, Chekov, and guest stars (with rather odd captions).

TV Star Parade, May - pages 10-11, picture of Nimoy and article on the LNNAF Leonard Nimoy Award for 1967. Page 16, note in column that James Doohan article is postponed till next issue. Page 17, mention of the ST spinoff episode. Pages 32-33, pictures of the Shatners and Nimoy's. Pages 34-35, Nimoy's and Shatners mentioned in article. Page 44, picture of the Nimoy's. Page 47, picture of the Shatners.

BIBLIOGRAPHY - TEENZINES TV Radio Talk, p. 66, Nimoy record mentioned.

16, May - Koenig in cover cartoon; page 18-19, two pages of ST pictures (Spock, Kirk, McCoy, Scott, Chekov, Janice Rand, Sarek, Amanda, T'Pring-- look at the one of Spock and T'Pring!); page 20, pictures of Koenig and his wife in his own movie; page 24, "Two Sides of Leonard Nimoy" listed as a recommended album; page 25, picture of the album; page 30, picture of Nimoy; page 31, mention of girl who won a picture of Nimoy and copies of his albums; page 63, letter from two girls asking how to help save ST (Editor tells them to write NBC); page 66, promise of more on ST next month. (Another Secret Fanzine?)

Fave, May - page 9, letter about Koenig; page 36, full-page picture of Spock; page 37, Spock article and picture; pages 48-49, article and pictures, Koenig and his movie "I Wish I May."

Fifteen, April - Spock in cover cartoon; page 4, question and answer about Nimoy; pages 24-25, Nimoy article, 6 small Spock pictures and a full-page, orange-striped (psychedelic?) Spock picture.

Teen, April - page 81, picture of Nimoy (identified as ST's Dr. Spock)
Tiger Beat, April - page 53 - there's a group called The Enterprise???

Teen Screen, May - letter from a Shatner fan; mention of a "Long Distance Spock's Scribes" club

T'Pring

DAF

BIBLIOGRAPHY - NEWSPAPERS

Arizona Republic, March 10 - article on network schedules by Richard K. Shull comments, "...a cheer went up among the sophomores when NBC decided to retain Star Trek..." (Thanx, Adrien Spectra)

Beacon-News, Aurora, Ill., article, "TV's Spock--It's What's Between Them That Counts," by Carol Scholtens. (See page 9) (Thanx, Sherna & Brian)

Berkeley Barb, Feb. 2-8 - column by Lenny Lipton calls attention to a "Save ST" ad, and comments on the series. He likes "Mr. Spok" and says, "He gives me faith in intelligence." (Thanx, Devra Langsam)

Boston Evening Globe, Feb. 8, interview with Nimoy; Feb. 2 and 16, letters in TV section (Thanx, Anonymous)

Boston Herald-Traveler - Feb. 9, 15, 18 - items in TV column and Ken Mayer's column; Feb. 20, Nimoy picture on front page; March 18, column by TV editor Eleanor Roberts (see page 1). (Thanx, Anon.)

Chattanooga Times, Jan. 22 - article on March of Dimes telethon where Nimoy appeared, and pictures of him--one with the March of Dimes poster boy, age 4, pulling a non-pointed Nimoy ear, and big smiles on both Nimoy and boy.

Chicago's American - March 3, 4, and 6 - items in "Daly Diary." March 17, article by Mary Knoblauch about Nimoy, with picture of him signing his name in cement (and drawing pointed ears) at Pheasant Run Playhouse. (Thanx, Joan Swenski)

March 26, double-page poster of Spock holding phaser.

Chicago Sun-Times, March 25, "Kup's Column" mentions that the 26th is Nimoy's birthday. (Thanx, Elaine Wojciechowski)

Chicago Tribune, March 25, Spock picture and ad for the poster (ad says, "Careful. Don't mention the ears. You could be de-materialized.").

March 26, the poster (same as in the American). (Thanx, Bruce Anderson)

March 8, Herb Lyon's "Tower Ticker" column mentions that Nimoy will appear on the "Channel 9 Lyon's Line" TV show. March 13, article by Clay Gowran interviewing Nimoy. (Thanx, Bruce Anderson)

March 5, "Tower Ticker" lists "Visit to A Small Planet" as a "Best Bet For Tonight" and mentions that Nimoy's family attended the opening. (Thanx, Kim Kowalewski)

Citizen-News, Los Angeles - Oct. 25, '67 - picture of the Nimoy's at a charity ball which helped provide scholarships for students. (Thanx, Anon.)

Cleveland Plain Dealer, March 12 - article by Bert J. Reesing, TV Editor, "Star Trek Producer Hails His Protesters." Roddenberry tells of the mail and other "Save ST" efforts. (Thanx, Joan Baker)

Cleveland Press, March 29 - "Way Out on Euclid Avenue," article by James Garrett, on Nimoy's visit to Cleveland. Photos of him signing autographs and talking to fans. (Thanx, Joan Baker)

Daily Californian (Berkeley, Calif.), Jan. 12 - article by Bob Wieder comments on the show and says it could be taken off the air--suggests people write NBC. (Thanx, Nan Braude)

Denver Post, March 31 - trufan Bob Tweedell mentions Nichelle Nichols in a column, listing her among Negro performers whose color is "absolutely incidental" to their featured roles. Picture of Uhura. (Thanx, Mike Montgomery)

Evening Gazette, Worcester, Mass. - March 6, article on children's home-work and TV by Bernard A. DuPont. The reporter visited a 4th grade class and found they liked s-f shows, including ST. (Thanx, Daphne Hamilton)

Evening Journal, Wilmington, Del. - Jack O'Brian column has a quote from Shatner and mentions his appearance on the "Personality" TV show.

Florida Times-Union and Jacksonville Journal, March 17 - article by Gene Roddenberry telling of fans' efforts to help save the show. Roddenberry quotes researchers and technologists as to the uselessness of the ratings system now used by TV. He also says that one of next season's shows will deal with police, and another with brain transplants. (Thanx, Al Ellis)

Kansas City Star "TV Scene" - Jan. 28, article by Joyce Wagner, TV editor. Article titled "Loyal Star Trek Fans Are Up in Air Over Series." Quotes from Bjo Trimble and Judy-Lynn Benjamin (Assoc. Editor, Galaxy) as to ST's appeal and the efforts of the Save Star Trek Committee. (Thanx, Bjo)

Long Beach (Calif.) Press-Telegram - many letters on ST and Nimoy - Jan. 14, 21, 28, Feb. 4, 11, 18, 1968; Nov. 26, '67. (Thanx, Anon.)

Los Angeles Herald-Examiner, "TV Weekly" - March 10, letter from Glen Thompson of "Long Beach and NY" saying ST and its viewers are "stupid and idiotic" and doubting they "have any idea at all what is currently happening in our space program." Editor tells him to tell it to the engineers and students whose protests helped save the show--editor then suggests Thompson return to NY and watch Captain Kangaroo. (Thanx, Ruth Berman)

Los Angeles Times - Dec. 3, '67, "West" section, picture and mention of Nimoy at a Synanon meeting. Feb. 18 - ad for a music store prints a Spock picture under their slogan, "Store of the Stars" and mentions his Dot album. (Thanx, Ruth Berman) March 15 - announcement of cast for "A Midsummer Night's Dream" to be presented in April by Inner City Repertory Company, lists Mark Lenard as Oberon. (Thanx, Ruth) March 23, article says "City on the Edge of Forever" won the '68 Writers Guild Laurel Award in the dramatic-episodic category. By Harlan Ellison. (Watch the credits.) (Thanx, Bjo)

Morning News, Wilmington, Del. - March 30, Cynthia Lowry's column is titled "Fans Save Star Trek." Quotes Shatner about the show's renewal and says he was mobbed by fans in New York. (Thanx, Marty Lipton)

New York Daily News, March 26 - Matt Messina column (see page 1). An Oregon paper, June '67 - picture of the Nimoy's at Rose Festival where he was grand marshal. (Thanx, Anon.)

Ottawa Journal, March 28 - column by Sandy Gardiner reviews "Assignment: Earth" and doesn't like the cat. (Thanx, John Mansfield)

Philadelphia Bulletin - March 17, "This Week" section, question and answer about ST's renewal. Lettercol - letter saying the Friday night time slot for ST is a bad deal. March 24 - letter from Janet Kenney, who enjoyed the TV satire in "Bread and Circuses."

Richmond News Leader (Va.), March 23 - picture of Robert Lansing and cat, "Assignment: Earth." (Thanx, Sara Fensterer)

Richmond Times-Dispatch (Va.), March 24 - different picture of Lansing and the cat (on his shoulder this time). (Thanx, Sara)

Rockford (Ill.) Morning Star - March 2, column by Bob Heck says fans saved ST but don't seem to be interested in doing same for Batman. March 10, James Sullivan's "Box Office" column describes "Visit To A Small Planet" and says Nimoy is "a smooth, highly confident worker on stage and a friendly, warm personality off." Another page of same paper gives date and time of play. March 17, Sullivan's column again mentions the play. March 24 - Sullivan's column says some Rockford fans are trying to start an ST-type campaign for Garrison's Gorillas. (Thanx, Kim Kowalewski)

St. Louis Globe-Democrat, Feb. 21 - column by Pete Rahn reports ST renewed, and quotes Julian Goodman as saying ST has low ratings but draws more mail from "upper educative" viewers than any other NBC series. (Thanx, Sherna & Brian)

Sun-Democrat, Paducah, Ky. - Nov. 13, '67 article on telethon at which Leonard Nimoy appeared, says he "fascinated children and adults alike." Sacramento Bee (Calif.), Sept. 7 and 10, '67 - pictures of Nimoy at State Fair. (Thanx, Anon.)

"TV Times" from an Australian paper, Nov. 15, '67 - article titled "Star Trek is Science Fact, Says Its Creator," by Ellen Torgeson, Hollywood. Interview with Roddenberry, who says ST's premise is "Real adventure in tomorrow's space, based on the best scientific knowledge and estimates of what future astronauts might face."

(Thanx, Juanita Coulson) "TV Times" from a Connecticut paper - an ad for the RCA Victor record club includes records for other labels, among them the Dot album, "Two Sides of Leonard Nimoy." (Thanx, Kathy Bushman)

-----
Running out of space--the rest will have to wait for #7, along with TV Sightings. News flash--there's going to be a Klingon ship model, by AMT, who made the Enterprise model!!! Watch for that....write NBC about the time slot....join VOICE...see you at Lunacon April 20-21? Live long and prosper.

"Mr. Spock, I don't see anything funny in a transporter malfunction."

FROM:
Shirley Meech
Apt. B-8
260 Elkton Road
Newark, Delaware 19711

TO:

Elaine Wojciechowski
4755 N. Keystone
Chicago, Ill. 60630

FIRST CLASS MAIL