"ROCKET

BLASTS"

--o--

JUST a bit of idle chatter, folks, about this and that. This column invites your opinion and suggestions as to how we may make The Rocket a better publication.

--o--

THIS issue is not to be considered as a peak for improvement, due to the fact that the entire job of designing, printing and assembling was did in only a few hours. The next, and following issues we hope to be of larger and more varied content. The Rocket continue in two form.

Announcing
DANIEL MCPHAIL
Independent Candidate for the office of
VICE-PRESIDENT
in F.A.P.A. Elections

CLOSE RACE IS SEEN
IN F.A.P.A. ELECTION

(Special) Interest in the approaching election of officers to fill out the remainder of the 1937-1938 Fantasy Amateur Press Ass'n. term is reaching a high peak among s-f fans, although it is still a month off.

Daniel McPhail of Oklahoma to-day announced his candidacy for Vice-President. He is now serving pro-tem. McPhail promises three things if elected: earnest effort, honest administration and a progressive program.

Donald A. Wollheim is expected to be a candidate for President, and impartial observers concede the race to him due to lack of strong opposition.

John V. Baltadonis of Pennsylvania has filed as a candidate for the office of Secretary.

Ballots will be sent to members in the large December mailing.
