

CLEARY CLIP-ART COLLECTION II

R.B. Cleary © 2001

This is the second free collection of clip-art I have put together. It consists of 50 pieces of my black and white work done since the last collection issued in March of 1997. Any of these pieces may be reprinted freely, as long as they are not modified (except in size), and my name and copyright remain. I expect nothing in return. However, I would be grateful for any notice of usage and/or a sample of the publication that uses it. This collection may be copied and distributed freely to others as long as no profit is made. I hope you enjoy my work and can use it in any future publications. Note that softcopies of my work can be obtained from my web site. Thanks,

Randy B. Cleary
