

SKYRACK

S

EUROPEAN FANTASY TRADER

RON BENNETT, 110 GREEN PARK, VIEUX CHEMIN DE BINCHE, 7000 MONS, BELGIUM.

Address for U.K. subscribers: R.M.Bennett, British School, SHAPE, BPPO 26.

This is the October 1970 issue and, as we're continuing the numbering of the Skyrack Newsletter, is number 96. We're aiming at a bi-monthly publishing schedule but we're willing to go monthly if advertising warrants the increased activity. We'd like to think that this European Fantasy Trader is filling a gap and is linking the various pockets of collecting fandom which are scattered around several different European countries. Now is the time for you to advertise your sales and wants; even initially the Trader will reach almost 300 out-of-the-way collectors, readers and dealers, the majority of whom are not on the mailing lists of other similar publications issued in the U.S.A. and U.K. Subscriptions rates: 8/6d or $1.00 for six issues, surface mail to all parts of the world. £2 or $5.00 for six issues, sent airmail to all parts of the world.

Advertising rates: £2 or $5 per full page of typewritten copy (6½" wide by 10" or 16cm x 25cm), £1 or $3 per half page of typewritten copy (6½" x 5" or 16cm x 12cm). All copy must be typewritten ready for printing — thick black on white produces the best results. Copy, such as photographs, requiring special preparation will be charged extra and free estimates will be given. All adverts must be prepaid.

Currency: Cheque, postal order, money order or currency notes. All NATO countries currency accepted. Prices are here given in both sterling and U.S. dollars for your convenience. Bankers: Barclay's Bank Ltd., Harrogate, Yorkshire, England and Societe Generale de Banque (a/c 466091), SHAPE-Mons, Belgium. Sterling sent here will not contravene currency regulations as it will be deposited in my U.K. account.

Next issue planned for December. Deadline for advertising copy is 30 Nov. Please feel free to order from this listing at any time during the interim.

THE SKYRACK NEWSLETTER. It is highly unlikely that this newszine, which ran for 95 issues, will reappear. Subscribers will have returned to them the unused portion of the subscriptions.

SKYRACK BOOK SERVICE, 110 Green Park, Vieux Chemin de Binche, 7000 Mons -- this issue's lone advertiser (one has to start somewhere!). Cash with Order, please. All items are priced singly, unless otherwise stated. 10% discount on orders of £10 ($24) or over. Surface postage is free. Air-mail postage and/or insurance is extra.

Abbreviations employed throughout the listings: vg - very good; g - good; fg - fairly good; f - fair; fo - fair only and definitely worn; p - poor; st - spine taped; i - imported and surcharged for U.K. distribution; d/w - with dust-wrapper; nc - no cover; nfc - no front cover; nbc - no back cover; po - page or pages out; cfo - lacking centrefold. Grading are, of necessity, personal. One can only try to be accurate and not to mislead. All items are backed by a full refund guarantee if dissatisfaction is given for any reason.

Cash and trade offers invited. Your sales lists welcomed.

Better Late Than Never Dept:

Please note that the abbreviation "BRE" signifies the British Reprint Edition of an American title. The Weird Tales listed above appear in the main to reprint American editions in entirety. This is not always the case. The western pulps listed from page 17 are particular cases of British "editing." (yes, the BRE F&SF — none in stock — was about the worst offender). BRE(AP) is used to denote a British edition reprinted from American plates.

SKYRACK'S EUROPEAN FANTASY TRADER number 96, October 1970.

Ron Bennett, 110 Green Park, Vieux Chemin de Binche, 7000 Mons, Belgium.

SKYRACK NEWS SNIPPETS: Perry Ackerman recently in Belgium, stopping over after the successful Heidelberg WorldCon to look up members of the newly-formed Antwerp SF Club. Grand Old Man of Belgian fandom (Good grief! What a title!), Jan Jansen, editor of Europe's first non-English English-language fanzine Alpha and of Skyrack's forerunner, Contact, was there to renew the long-standing friendship:::Palais des Beaux-Arts in Brussels is devoting October to a three-films-a-day of festival with a wealth of titles from several different countries. Many thanks, Georges Coune, for the programme and the very kind invitation.
