ADDITIONAL AREA FANZINES RECEIVED:

Voyages--a Star Trek fanzine published by Patricia Zotti (FLA):
The Bode Bulletin--10 cents at worldcon time from 713 Paul St., Newport News, Va. The organization is now called The Bode' Collector. There will be sales of posters and Bode' Material at the DSC and to a greater extent at worldcon in Boston.
Correlation--from Jim Corrick III, 2116 Lake, Knoxville Tenn 37916.
Ish #1 "consists of an index of serials that have appeared in Astounding/Analog with information as to pseudonyms, cover & interior artists, hard and softback publication. The next ish (out in the fall)...will probably be an index of the covers, both book and magazine, of Kelly Freas. Cost-ten $.
Small Steps, Giant Leaps--(16 pp, printed) Available from Allen H. Greenfield, editor, a publication of Albert S. Greenfield Memorial Press, 2875 Sequoyah Drive N.W., Atlanta, Ga. 30327; features fiction by Agafen Page, Ulrich, Greenfield, Brock Early and Patrick. Apparently available upon request.
The Paraufologist, Vol.1, No.4 (12 pp, printed) (same publishing information as above) Material related to flying saucers. The first page indicates: "If you wish to be placed on our free mailing list, which also includes mailings of Alternate Horizons Newsletter, etc., please write us at the above address."
Vertigo Nine--(22 pp, offset) 50 $ from Edwin L. Murray, 2540 Chapel Hill Road, Durham, N.C. A publication of the Carolina Fan Federation. This issue features more sf than past publications. CFF has been predominantly comics oriented in the past. Many articles and good graphics in this.

- Nexus 4-- (22 pp, mimeo, 25 ¢) from Lane Lambert, Rt.2, Bruce Rd., Boaz, Ala. 35957) In addition to Lane's own musing, Jodie Offutt, James Ayers and Perry Chapdelaine have articles here.
- Diversity--(50¢ from Tom Foster; 502 North Avalon, West Memphis, Arkansas 72301) Graphics, pulp and fantasy-oriented articles and an 8-page strip by Foster.
- Nolazine #11-- literary organ of the New Orleans Science Fiction Association, 37 pages, 50¢, order from Apt. 219, 6002 Chef Menteur Highway, New Orleans, La. 70126. Excellent Frolich graphics, articles by offutt, Lillian, Walsh; fiction by Adkins, Frolich; poetry by others. Should be obtained.

NEWS OF ACTIVITIES:

Since distribution of the previous Bulletin (with and without Fan Roster) the following information relating to Southern Fandom has been received:

- Memphis, Tenn.: The Mid-South Fantasy Association is composed of Memphis State University students and others from the Tenn-Ark. border areas. They meet fortnightly, usually, during the school year. They published Diversity (see above) in Sept., 1970. For info on the ckub, contact Greg Bridges, 3711 Poplar, Memphis, Tenn. 38111. Some members of the group are workinnng on the undergrounder, Strawberry Fields (see above)
- Atlanta, Ga.-- The Atlanta Science Fiction Organization (ASFO) is the old name of a new group. They are still too busy to write in, apparently, but Atlanta fans Greenfield, Brock, Page, Burge, Hughes or Celko should be contacted. Addresses in fan roster.

Northern Virginia--The Washington SF Association is the organization referred to in the last bulletin. Contact Jay Haldeman, 405 Southway Ave., Baltimore, Maryland.

Charlotte, N.C.-- Fans there meet regularly at the home of Mike Dobson, 1310 Buchanan St., Charlotte (334-1449). A convention will be held on Sunday, August 22, at the Charlottetown Mall's community center on Independence Blvd. The movie, The Time Machine, will be shown. At 11 a.m. the convention center is open but to quote from Ed Smith's letter, "Early arrivals are welcome to stay over at Mike's or another fan's house and can arrive as early as Saturday afternoon. There will be parties and discussions the rest of Sat."

ALL AREAS: Many Southern fans have become members of The Dark Brotherhood, a club of those interested in the weird/macabre fiction exemplified by the writings of H. P. Lovecraft and other writers published in Arkham House editions. Membership is free (so far) and, although now out of print, newsletters and a journal have been ~~xx~~ sent to members. Specific permission must be given to publish your names and address when you become a member. Contact George H. ~~Smith~~ Record, 3402-B Smith, S.E., Albuquerque, N.M. 87106.

Star Trek fans may belong to one of several clubs: To our attention has been brought: LNSTFCCF, c/o Michael Sobota, 3321 Commercial Ave., South Chicago Hts., Ill. 60411.

ATTENTION--East Central Florida SF Club is meeting regularly probably due to the arrival of Irvin Koch in the area (Apt 16, 440 Diplomat Blvd., Cocoa Beach, Fla. 32931). Big pre-launch party held there a few days ago.

Presstime of this issue is Apollo 15 weekend--a time of great awe.

FURTHER ANNOUNCEMENTS, BULLETINS AND NEWS:

P. L. Caruthers gives us the following information: "OUT THERE" Magazine will soon have another issue out after two years of suspended publication. The featured writers of the forthcoming issue will be Avram Davidson and Ray Bradbury. O.T. welcomes artwork (in particular), articles, reviews, poetry, short stories, etc. O.T. pays in contributors copies (5). For further information as to requirements, please consult WRITER'S MARKET '69. Submissions may be sent to Stephen M. H. Braitman, Editor, 345 Arguello Blvd., San Francisco, Calif. 94118 (until September 1 only) or to P. L. Caruthers, 2117 Redbud St., Memphis, Tenn. 38114.

EARLY CON PLANS: The Tri-City Science Fiction Club has amply demonstrated their acumen in the area of pre-planning and the Honorable Len Collins announces the following: A CON, as yet unnamed, will 10-12, 1972 at the Broadway Motel in Johnson City, Tenn. be Keith Laumer and the MC will be Andrew J. Offutt. 1 guests are your esteemed president, artist Kelly Freas, Thomas Burnett Swann. The motel offers a free meeting suite for parties, nice pool, good restaurant, good basement, a variety of rooms from $8.00 (single) cabin single room. In his own inimitable fashion Len Collins, than the Saturday morning usual address by GoH and MC, e no panels, trivia party, hobbit party or any of that sibly a poolside "rap" session with our celebrities, a co town to visit the bookstores, and little touches such as Anent the above, while this Con will probably resemble Gnomoclave, its official name in fandom has not been chosen. Suggestions? (I thought they should hold it at Ruby Falls, Tenn. and call it the Rubicon. How does that Caes-yar?)

Len Collins' address is Rt. 4, Box 148, Church Hill, Tenn. 37642.

SOUTHERN FANDOM PRESS ALLIANCE: SFPA's most recent mailing totaled 451 pages of fannish material, one of the biggest issues to date. The waitlist is only about 7 or 8 members and inquiries should be addressed to Don Markstein, 7919 St. Charles Avenue, Apt. 3, New Orleans, La. 70118.

AGAFEN GLEN T. BROCK and JOE CELKO have united to form B & C Book Co., 3120 Roswell Rd., Atlanta, Ga. 30305. According to the owners "B & C is a fan-owned, fan-operated bookstore and is interested in carrying fanzines on a 50% consignment basis. We have to make 50% because of the unusual nature of the fanzines (taking shelf space for long periods of time before sale, etc.) but we are the only bookstore in the South, to my knowledge, offering fanzine display." Be sure to look Glen up when you are in Atlanta.

ATLANTA SCIENCE FICTION ORGANIZATION: Glen T. Brock, Pres., reports that it meets "bi-weekly at the C & S Bank, Buckhead Community Room, is informal but generally has topics of discussion. There are no dues or membership requirements. Current members are Ruth Early, Glen Brock, J. D. Lewellyn, Allen Greenfield, John Jay, George Orentlicher, Joe Celko, Marilyn Ogletree, Pat Morrell, Jim Siddow, John Ulrich, Sam Gastfriend, Allen White, Mark Levetan and the Hughes. There is a newsletter published irregularly and often science fiction films are shown."

A young fan (age 12) in Virginia has organized T.H.U.M.B., a fannish club which publishes a monthly newsletter. "The Terrific Human Underground Military Bureau will let you join by sending an 8 cent (uncancelled) stamp for each issue of the newsletter. You are also asked to contribute lists, fanzine ready sheets, news, talks, convention news, anything you want just so it's fannish and doesn't exceed two pages. You publish your contributions yourself and they are included in the newsletter . . ." Tim Marion, 614-72nd St., Newport News, Va. 23605.

PUBLICITY: To date information concerning SFC has appeared in Vertigo, Stan's Weekly Express, George IV, Yandro #208 and Locus (twice).

CONSTITUTION OF SOUTHERN FANDOM CONFEDERATION

Section 1: Southern Fandom Confederation is a non-profit service organization for science fiction and fantasy fans residing in Alabama, Florida, Georgia, Kentucky, Louisiana, Mississippi, North Carolina, South Carolina, Tennessee and Virginia.

Section 2: The SFC shall publish at least twice a year, once for distribution at the DSC and once six months later, a fanzine containing the names and addresses of all members, all SF&F organizations in the South, a summary of information on all previous and forthcoming DSCs and other meetings of Southern SF fans, activities of regional fans and organizations, and as much other information of interest as the editor shall choose. In addition, a newsletter shall be published and mailed no less than two weeks before DSC.

Section 3: The officers shall consist of a President elected at the Deep South Convention on the basis of nominations published in the newsletter (which shall present all matters to be voted on at the convention plus an absentee ballot) and a secretary-treasurer. By-laws may provide for additional officers to be appointed by the President or elected by the members. The responsibility of the President is to gather and publish information as required in section 2 with the assistance of other officers and volunteers. He is responsible for carrying out the activities stated in section 4 below and will make all decisions between election with the help and advice of such regional council as may be appointed or elected pursuant to the by-laws. He shall serve as chairman at the meetings and his decisions in interpretation of the constitution and by-laws shall be final and binding. Any decisions as to the expenditure of SFC funds shall be made by the President and Secretary-Treasurer jointly and reported in the next publication after expenditure.

Section 4: The SFC shall back up the group which puts on the annual convention, keep liason with all SF&F groups, encourage regional pro writers, fan publications, and new local SF clubs. It shall advertise itself as appropriate and encourage a Worldcon in the South every six years or so.

Section 5: By-laws may be adopted or amended, officers elected and other resolutions adopted at the DSC by a majority of those voting in person or by proxy. Proxies or absentee ballots may be voted only on specific propositions submitted to SFC members in advance, except in the case of failure to receive advance nominations for office as specified in the by-laws. No by-law shall be lawful, if adopted by vote of the attending members of the convention alone, which in any way conflicts with the provisions of this constitution or any by-law adopted after submission to the SFC members in advance.

Section 6: This constitution may be amended only if a proposed amendment is submitted to the SFC membership in advance and if approval is given by 2/3 of the persons who vote on it, whether in person at the DSC or by proxy or absentee ballot.

BY-LAWS OF SOUTHERN FANDOM CONFEDERATION

1. Advisory Council: Each fan organization or club of more than 10 members shall name a representative to serve on the Advisory Council of SFC. These persons shall periodically convey to the SFC current address information on members, summary of past activities information on scheduled events, furnish copies of local printed fanzines, and other items of interest. In addition, the President shall seek their advice on proposals for SFC activity.
2. Publications: The editor of the SFC Bulletin may accept advertising for the publications to the extent dues and contributions are insufficient. He may delete from the fan roster any persons whose address has been changed if no new address has been furnished promptly.
3. Nominations and Proposals: Nominations for office will be published upon submission of a 10-line nominating resume signed, or by separate letter endorsed, by 10 dues-paying members. Upon failure to receive any such nominations by June 1, the editor shall submit the names of incumbent officers on the ballot and provide a space for members to delegate to a person of their choice attending the DSC the right to nominate and vote for any person other than the incumbent. Proposals for constitutional and by-law amendments and resolutions should be similarly submitted and will appear on the ballot.
4. Dues: Dues are payable at the time of the DSC at the rate of $1 per year except that they shall be waived for (i) SF&F pro writers and artists who have been published in the last five years and are otherwise eligible for membership, (ii) editor-publishers of fanzines (other than personalzines, apazines and predominantly comics-zines of more than 20 pages per year (commencing September, 1971), and (iii) the chief officer of any SF&F club or organization.
5. Files and Services: SFC shall maintain files on regional fans who express their interest in (1) writing fiction or articles for regional publications, or (2) providing artwork for same. Prospective fan edq editors may receive copies in return for an SASE or these lists may be published in the SFC periodicals, which shall also carry requests for help on future fan projects. SFC will maintain information on current SF book and magazine markets for prospective writers. SFC will cooperate with publishers of comiczines and genzines to secure a representation of SF&F in their pages. SFC will undertake all other feasible projects as may from time to time be adopted by resolution at the DSC or instigated by the President and Advisory Council.
