Comments on the Hugo nominees:

The category "Best Translator" included on the nominating ballot was eliminated due to lack of interest. A few voters commented that a knowledgeable vote in this category would require linguistic expertise beyond what can reasonably be expected of Hugo voters.

Dinotopia by James Gurney received enough votes to be nominated in both the Original Artwork and Non-Fiction Book categories. The administrators judged that it is a single sequential work of art, and thus best placed in Original Artwork.

Two nominations were withdrawn from the ballot. Michael Whelan declined nomination as Best Professional Artist for this year. Boris Vallejo declined the nomination for Best Original Artwork of his cover of Vernor Vinge's A Fire Upon the Deep, saying that it is against his principles to enter in a competition among professionals. Both artists thank the voters who nominated them, and feel honored to have been chosen.

Maureen F. McHugh and Poppy Z. Brite received enough votes to be nominated for the John W. Campbell Award for best new writer, but were ruled ineligible due to professional publications of fiction in the science fiction and fantasy field prior to 1991.

397 ballots were received. The most votes cast were in the Novel category. The most works nominated were 206 short stories (not counting a few novellettes etc. that also received nominations as short stories). The highest number of votes received by a single item was 100 in Dramatic Presentation. The lowest number of votes received by anything that got on the ballot was 9, in Original Artwork. (With 125 ballots cast in that category, this was still well over the 5% of the ballots threshold required for 4th and 5th place finishers to be nominated.) Only 40 voters nominated anything at all for Best Translator; at 10% this was considered far too low a turnout. (Original Artwork was the next lowest category.) Exact statistics for each category will be in the final ballot.

Ballots will be mailed to ConFrancisco members in PR #6, going out in late May. They must be postmarked by July 31 and received by August 6 to be counted. The good news is, you'll be able to fax your ballot; you still can't e-mail it, because we'd like it signed.

Con Reports

by the editor

Concave 14, otherwise known as UpperSouthClave XXIII, was held on February 26-28, 1993. Steve and I go down to ConCave on Thursday evening when he gets home from work. He helps pick up and unload consuite supplies. This year was far from the ordinary with the weather throwing up roadblocks everywhere. Yes, folks this was the snow-storm for Kentucky this year. The City called Operation Snow so most businesses began letting their employees go home early. I was watching three of my grandchildren so I had to wait for their parents to get home and then drive across the Gene Snyder Freeway to get home. That was not an easy feat. I personally had no problem but had to get around the nuts that thought you had to drive 15 to 20 miles per hour with snow on the ground or the total idiots that thought you should drive 55 to 65 miles per hour. Oh well, a normal 30 to 40-minute trip took me 1 hour and 15 minutes. Steve was at home waiting anxiously for me to get home so we could get started for ConCave. We had to go back over the Gene Snyder to get to I-65 and go South. I-65 was as bad as Gene Snyder but the traffic was worse and you had to drive at about 35 to 40 until we reached Muldraugh Hill. It took us 1 1/2 hours to get over Muldraugh Hill because traffic was standing still. Trucks have a hard time moving on this hill without some speed and unfortunately with the traffic backup they were stopped. Fortunately for us a snow plow came through on the shoulder of the road and Steve moved over and followed it up the hill. Once over the top and a few more miles to the South we were looking around for the snow. We arrived about four hours after we left home a drive that normally takes 1 1/2 hours. When we arrived, it was to applause from the group that was eating in the dining room.

For those who do not know, Concave is a relaxacon with little programming. Margaret Keifer was the Guest of Honor this year. She is a wonderful lady that is and has been very active in Cincinnati fandom for many years. She has attended all 43 Midwestcons. There is an opening ceremonies, a huxter room, art show, video room & gaming. We have a Wigwam Village tour usually led by Ricky Sheppard, a banquet, a Kentucky Fried Fandom meeting, and a business meeting. There are parties and a great con suite. This year we had two consuites, one smoking and one non-smoking. It was great you could breathe. As usual the convention took over the entire hotel so the pool and consuite was open 24 hours a day. There was a put together a jigsaw puzzle table plus the normal games and smoffing. Everyone had a great time except the chairman who wasn't feeling well, but everything turned out just fine. Great job, Gary and Corlis.

The next convention we attended was Phoenixcon 8, in Atlanta, Georgia. Steve's company had sent him to Atlanta to work on Tuesday before the convention, so I had to drive down by myself. I left early morning and had no problem until I was about 45 minutes away from Atlanta. My eyes started burning and watering because yes, it is spring and Atlanta trees and plants are budding much earlier than Louisville. Take allergy pills and go on.

When I arrived at the hotel I went to the front desk and was given a key to the room. Steve had already checked in but was not in the room when I arrived. After putting some of my things in the room I went down to the lobby area and ran into Steve. He asked if I had gotten my key from Bill Ritch. He had been out of the hotel helping Caran with some errands. Phoenixcon was held on April 16-18, 1993. The Guest of Honor were Lois McMaster Bujold, Artist Guest Darryl Elliott, Special Guests Allen Steele and Tom Deitz, Toastmaster Thomas E. Fuller and Fan Guest of Honor Ed Kramer. Steve and I attended opening ceremonies, which were hilarious. They did a radio show program with actors portraying the convention guests. At the end they did introduce the real guests. Afterwards they had ghost stories and then a dance.

There were three tracks of programming at the con. On Saturday they had a masquerade and then the MRAP Play "FIAWOL 2:FIJAGDH. It was definitely entertaining. The next time that you ask for an autograph from Lois McMaster Bujold, look closely at the nametag. You may be talking to Carolyn Francis (no relation except fandom).

On Sunday they had the Fandom Feud but we had to leave for our long drive home so we did not get to see it.

There were no parties Friday night and only two on Saturday. Ed Kramer Fan GOH had a DragonCon party (ice cream social) and Khen Moore and crew had a DSC bid party. Thanks to Charles Rutledge and committee for a good time. Yes. Steve gets to drive home.

We hardly had time to unpack when it was time to pack again. Yes, we are off to Marcon 28 which is held in Columbus, OH on April 23-25. Steve again had to drive. Guests at this con were Mike Resnick and Jane Yolen. Artist GoH was Ray Van Tilburg, and Tom Smith served as Toastmaster. Also in attendance were Lois McMaster Bujold, Julius Schwartz, Animal X, Michael Longcor and Dennis McKiernan.

On Friday evening we had dinner with Jane and Scott Dennis, Gail Walker, Dick Spelman and Frank Olynck. While I was finishing dinner and talking with folks, Steve went to the front desk to change our room. We were right next to a stairwell and this would have been great for a party room but it isn't too great for sleeping. There were many room parties on Friday night and a lot of real food in the consuite. There was fresh fruit, ham squares, ham salad, french bread, yogurt and thousands of jelly beans. The Con Suite was moved down to what was a restaurant or bar, I am not sure which, but it was large enough to handle a lot of people and it certainly saved on elevator traffic.

On Saturday evening we had dinner with Mike and Carol Resnick, Maureen McHugh and her husband Bob Yeager, Jack Nimersheim, Nicholas DiChario, Dick Spelman and Frank Olynck. Dinner was great, as was the company. The hotel had a chocolate dessert bar to die for. On Saturday evening there were more parties and of course the masquerade. Larry Smith was not behind his dealers table because of a back strain but is doing well now. Glad to hear that you are improving, Larry. Great Con, there were 11 tracks of programming, so there was a little something for everyone.

Bylaws of the Southern Fandom Confederation

SECTION 1. (a) The Southern Fandom Confederation is a non-profit organization of, by and for science fiction and fantasy fans residing in the states of the Confederacy (Alabama, Arkansas, Florida, Georgia, Kentucky, Louisiana, Mississippi, North Carolina, South Carolina, Tennessee, Texas, Virginia), existing for the purpose of promoting fan and professional activity within that area. (b) The President shall have the discretion to name as "Southern Sympathizers" persons or groups outside the South for the purpose of membership and participation in the SFC.

Section 2. The SFC shall meet once a year, simultaneously and at the same place as the DeepSouthCon, hereafter DSC. This meeting shall be open to all dues-paid and dues-exempt SFC members, plus interested parties. Only Dues-paid or -exempt members may speak or vote except through dispensation by the presiding officer. Each meeting shall consist of: (a) a review of the year's activity, (b) election of officers, and (c) suggestions from the membership for activities in the year ahead.

Section 3. The officers of the SFC shall consist of (a) President, (b) a Vice President, (c) a Secretary-Treasurer, with duties as follows:

(a) The President shall run the annual SFC business meeting, present a summary of the year's activities, set SFC policy on matters of controversy, publish the official SFC bulletin on a quarterly basis, and represent the SFC at all fannish functions.

(b) The Vice President shall serve in the place of the President should the President be absent.

(c) The Secretary-Treasurer shall collect dues for the SFC, and maintain an account at a convenient bank on which only the Secretary-Treasurer or the President may draw; the Secretary-Treasurer, in conjunction with other officers, shall maintain a file of all active Southern SF Fans, amateur press alliances, fanzines, clubs and conventions. The Secretary-Treasurer is responsible for mailing the official bulletin at the cheapest possible rate. All SFC officers must be residents in the Confederacy. All are elected to one-year terms.

Section 4. Dues for the SFC are $10.00 per year for an individual, with institutional dues being five times that amount, a year being defined as the period between successive DeepSouthCons. The following are dues-exempt; (a) Winners of the Rebel Award presented at the DSC, (b) Individuals who have performed such service to the organization that the President feels they merit exemption, (c) SFC officers during their term of service.

Section 5. The official SFC bulletin shall be published on a quarterly basis, though more often as finances permit. One issue shall appear in the month of January. Each issue shall publish as comprehensive a list as possible of active Southern s.f. clubs, apas, and fanzines. One issue each year shall publish a roster of dues-paid and -exempt SFC members. Other contents shall be left to the discretion of the President, but shall revolve around Southern fandom's history, present activity, and future plans.

Editorial policy: (a) The bulletin shall concern itself freely with controversial matters confronting Southern Fandom. All editorial opinions shall be signed by the author and shall not be considered reflective of the opinions of any officer or the SFC itself. (b) The bulletin shall maintain a neutral position between and among competing bids for DSC, or between and among Southern contenders for a Worldcon. (c) A letter column shall be printed in each issue containing a comprehensive spectrum of opinion on any matter before the SFC. (d) The SFC shall promote the candidacy of Southern fans and professionals for national honors such as the Hugo Award.

SECTION 6. This set of by-laws may be amended or replaced by the SFC members in attendance at the DSC meeting. Any amendment proposed in writing and signed by 20 or more SFC members must be brought before this meeting and voted upon. A majority of members at the meeting may cause an amendment to be brought to a vote. A 2/3 majority of members voting shall be sufficient to cause an amendment to pass.

SECTION 7. All previous by-laws, rules and constitutions of the SFC are henceforth null and void.

*As amended at the SFC 1991 Meeting.
Printed for the annual Southern Fandom Confederation Business Meeting, June 6, 1993 DeepSouthCon 31/Conjuraction.*

DeepSouthCon Bylaws

Section 1. Paragraph 1. The DeepSouth Con is an unincorporated literary society whose functions are to choose the locations and committees of the annual DeepSouth Science Fiction Convention (hereinafter referred to as DSC); to attend the DSC; and to perform such other activities as may be necessary or incidental to these purposes.

Section 1. Paragraph 2. The membership of DSC shall consist of (A) anyone paying the membership fee established by the current DSC committee, or (B) anyone upon whom the current DSC committee confers a complimentary membership. Only members attending the DSC will have voting privileges and each person shall have one vote. Absentee and proxy votes are not allowed. An optional class of non-voting supporting membership may be established by the current DSC committee for persons who wish to receive DSC publications but cannot attend the convention and participate in the business meeting.

Section 1. Paragraph 3. No part of DSC's net earnings shall be paid to its members, officers, or other private persons except in furtherance of the DSC's purposes. The DSC shall not attempt to influence legislation or any political campaign for public office. Should the DSC dissolve, its assets shall be distributed by the current DSC committee or the appropriate court having jurisdiction, exclusively for charitable purposes.

Section 2. Paragraph 1. The voting membership of DSC shall choose the location and committee of the DSC to be held in the calendar year two years after the current DSC. Voting shall be by ballot cast at the current DSC. Counting of all votes shall be the responsibility of the DSC committee, using the preferential ballot system as it is used in site selection voting for the World Science Fiction Convention.

Section 2. Paragraph 2. A committee shall be listed on the ballot if it submits to the current DSC, by 6:00 pm on Friday of the current DSC, the following: a list of committee officers; a contract or letter of agreement with a facility adequate to hold the DSC; and a statement that the committee agrees to abide by these rules. A committee may bid any site in the states of Virginia, Kentucky, Tennessee, Arkansas, Texas and all states both south and east of any of these.

Section 3. Paragraph 1. Any proposal to amend this constitution shall require a two-thirds vote of all the votes cast on the question at the DSC meeting held at two successive DSCs.

Section 3. Paragraph 2. DSC meetings shall be held at advertised times at each DSC. The current DSC committee shall provide the Presiding officer for each meeting. Meetings shall be conducted in accordance with Robert's Rules of Order, Newly Revised, and any Standing Rules the meeting shall adopt.

Section 3. Paragraph 3. The DSC constitution shall be published in the program book of each DSC. Any amendments eligible for ratification at the DSC shall also be published in the program book.

Mad Dog's Southern Con List

This listing was compiled by J.R. 'Mad Dog' Madden, March 18, 1993, from various sources such as LOCUS, Science Fiction Chronicle, Starlog, Fandom Directory, flyers picked up at cons (I plan to attend only one con in 1993), and, very rarely, from the convention committees themselves who send the information out in good time. If any of our readers know of other cons which might be of interest to Southern fans, PLEASE forward the information to me at P. O. Box 25167, Baton Rouge, LA 70894-5167.

NOTE: In all cases, when writing to a convention for information, be sure to include a self-addressed, stamped envelope (SASE) with your request in order to speed the reply.

RiverCon returns in 1993 for its 18th year with all its traditional features and activities, including extensive programming for both adults and children, a larger huckster room, art show and auction, masquerade, filking, video and gaming rooms, round-the-clock hospitality suite, babysitting, and of course lots of parties. We're very excited about our move to the Hurstbourne Hotel and Conference Center, located southeast of downtown just off I-64 at Hurstbourne Lane. Among other features, all convention facilities are easily accessible on the ground floor. Hotel room rates start at $58.00 for single/double, $62.00 triple, and $65.00 quad, with a variety of suites also available, some even located poolside.

Membership for the entire convention is $20.00 until July 20, and $30.00 thereafter and at the door. For memberships or information on specific departments--including art show, huckster room, masquerade, and program book advertising--please write to the address below.

New Southern fan makes an appearance

Dominic Robe would like to let everyone know that he has a new baby brother at home. Mommy is still recovering from having a C-section and Isaac doesn't want to sleep a lot, so they sleep when they can. Daddy is spending a lot more time with Nick since both Grandmas have gone home. Nick's baby brother weighed in at 9lbs.-3oz and was 21-3/4 inches long. Isaac Robert's birthday is on April 22. Congratulations, Gary, Corlis and Dominic.

Letters to the Bulletin

P.L. Caruthers-Montgomery
2629 Norwood Ave.
Anniston, AL 36201-2872

Thanks for the first issue of the SFC Bulletin under your command. Though I have FAFIATED it's a pleasure to see that the good work continues.

I fear that of late my activities of a fannish nature have been limited to hosting several Science Fiction and Star Trek conferences on a number of BBSes (electronic Bulletin Board Systems). I am also the Co-Sysop (Systems Operator) of a local BBS called the MIDNITE BLUES.

Our own network: ANET (which began locally but has expanded quite a bit) lets me communicate with other computer users (many of them fen) from all across the United States (including Hawaii!!) -- all without leaving the comfort of my own home. GRIN

I also have access via a local BBS to another computer network known as CIRCUIT-NET. It's very clear to me why the SFC's founder Meade Frierson III turned to the bulletin boards.

I probably will not be able to make it to this year's DSC as my car just isn't up to such long journeys anymore, and I certainly can't afford to fly. With any luck I do hope to make it to Kubla Khan though, as I can catch a ride with another local whom I have introduced to fandom, Bill Anders.

I understand that Bill is becoming quite active in the Birmingham Science Fiction Club, and helps out Samanda's Electrical Eggs at conventions. Having introduced an enthusiastic, helpful person to Southern fandom makes me feel a little less guilty about my own forced withdrawal.

I'm looking forward to your next issue. Keep up the good work.

E.A. Osborne

Thanks for the March issue of the SFC Bulletin. It was interesting to read about the two DeepSouthCon bids. It has been a long time since I got a bulletin and I am glad that they are being published again.

To your question "What is Happening to the DSC" I have an opinion. I planned to write earlier but was busy with moving back down to Florida and I am still unpacking.

From reading the descriptions of the bids for the 95 DSC, I'm not so surprised that the convention is having a hard time. It is interesting to note that neither area is part of what I think of when I think of "Deep South." I remember years ago thinking it strange that something called "Deep South" was taking place in TN, KY, not exactly "Deep South" to someone from OHIO.

Most cons are local and develop a local support by being in the same area year after year. Also they usually have a fixed date, even the Worldcon does that, so that fans can plan ahead. Not knowing what date will be used is bit much even when the convention is two years away. What hit me the most was the low keyed nature of the con itself. Deep South Con sounds a lot like a very laid-back relax-a-con. Some people like that but I find them boring, personally. It's a lot to ask people to drive to an airport, fly a plane (or drive through three or four states) to go to a con that has a huge two tracks of programming, no videos and unknown Guest of Honor, including a 75 dollar a night room fee. OK, I'm exaggerating, but I find relaxacons very boring, a very inbreed group to me.

I have a great deal of pleasure in supporting fandom in my area (central Florida). We have two very good local SF cons, one fan-run Star Trek Con, many professional Trek cons and a host of SCA events. People know me at these places and come up to talk with me. If I spent the money to travel to KY or Washington DC would anybody know me and speak to me?

In short, it seems like a great deal of money to spend to travel and do nothing with a bunch of near-strangers.

Plus, I don't know if the South has a special type of con, like the West Coast or the Midwest (the Wimpy zone-it was called). Cons are certainly smaller and more laid back but is that enough of a difference to hold a con for? I would like to address the question, what is different about Southern Fandom.' Answer that question and I think that the reason for having the Deep South Cons will become clearer.

(Thanks, Elizabeth, for your comments. First, the reason that guests are not announced for the bid is that folks can vote on the committee and locale other than who the guests are. Guests are announced when the winning site is announced. The vote is two years out and you should have plenty of time to schedule the convention if you wish to attend.

My answers to your last two paragraphs are the same. Most Southern Cons have 24-hour hospitality suites because southerners are very social and friendly. When attending a Southern convention it's like being with a family that you pick. In Birmingham they have the Jophan Family Reunion each year. --Sue)

SFC Elections

Because of increased work responsibilities and becoming extremely active with his son in Cub Scouts, JR Madden will not be running for re-election as secretary-Treasurer of the SFC. He has been extremely helpful to me in this past year with reconciling records and moral support as well. Best wishes and many years of happy scouting to JR and his family. JR has agreed to continue keeping the convention listings for the Bulletin. Thanks again.

I will be running for re-election of the President of the SFC in the 1993-1994 year, and G.Patrick Molloy has agreed to serve again for Vice-President if I am re-elected.

I plan to put out the mininum of four bulletins this coming year, if re-elected. We intend to use a bulk mail permit and bulk postage to help cut the costs. Pat will be keeping the listing of the clubs but does need to receive information from the club groups if they wish to be listed. Pat is not a mind reader (at least I don't think he is), so he will need something in writing telling him the name of club, contact person, address, and the day, time and place of meetings. You may also want to list what the club's interests are: e.g., Literary, Star Trek, Dr. Who, etc. Your help will be appreciated.

I will be selecting three, maybe four, SFC recruiters for this next year. I have talked to three folks who will be recruiters and I will be talking to a fourth. The qualifications are someone who is energetic, believes in the value of the SFC and will help collect membership dues.

Don't forget that the 1993 DSC will be held on June 4,5 and 6, 1993. The guests include Emma Bull & Will Shetterly, Dawn Wilson, Genny Dazzo, and Andrew J. Offutt. Memberships are $25.00 until Kubla and will be $35.00 at the door. Write to Jennifer Wilson & Jack Heazlitt, Conjuraction/DSC '93, P.O. Box 5231, Louisville, KY 40255. See Conjuraction's ad in this issue for more details. We need to support our Southern conventions to keep them going.
