Neopro Mary Schaub of NC writes to say her first story appears in Eldwood's Survival from Infinity.

Allen H. Greenfield & Barbara Greenfield, continue their Ufology Notebooks on many topics from 3101 Briarcliff Way N.W., Atlanta GA 30345. Write if the topic is of interest.

The Tyrrean Chronicles is editing and pubbed by Ken Amos, 7005 Bedford Lane, Louisville KY 40222 for $1/4. Con reports, reviews, an interview with TB Swann and a TBS bibliography graced issue #4.

The Southern Libertarian Messenger comes from a fan at Box 1245, Florence SC 29501. No price or frequency indicated.

David Anthony Kraft has ended his brief sojourn in our area, is now involved in comic book writing from his new address: Apt. 4D, 143-23 Barclay Av, Flushing NY 11355, and continues to edit the Fictioneer Books out of Lakemont, Georgia 30552.

Rebecca Hoffman writes from Greer SC that there is a fan club at Clemson University and another called the Greenville Fan Association, which meets at the county library on the 3rd Friday of each month. Inquiries to her at 205 Pine Street, Greer SC 29651.

It should be noted that University of Florida's SF Society is located at Room 300, Rietz Union, UFLA Gainesville FL 32611.

John R. McWilliams, P.O. Box 5637, Athens GA 30601 sent a flyer for a zine called Toon which is described as a source catalog of the comix, cartoon and graphic narrative field, projected for June 1975.

Michael Bishop, twice nominated for the Hugo this last time, wrote to request no address listing because "I've been receiving a good bit of mail from people, most of it very nice, and I feel obligated to answer it. This causes something of a problem in that it cuts heavily into my work time. I am trying to freelance this year (..and disciplining myself to the work is difficult enough without being distracted (pleasantly so, unfortunately) by mail from an occasional enthusiastic reader or a fanzine editor requesting a contribution of some kind....sign me up as a member."

Bruce D. Arthurs joins the deserters...of our area effective in October. He'll go to Germany (maybe) and hopefully by January 23, 1975 at the latest, his address will be 2401 W. Southern #B-136, Tempe AZ 85282.

In July NOSFA had elections which resulted in Dean Sweatman, Pres.; Kevin Smith, VP; Ed Guelnder, Secy; and Mary Sweatman, Treas. Nolazine 14 is due out momentarily, and the club has meetings on the first and third Saturdays of the month.

Tobit Wax, an unusual graphic publication from pubber Dennis McHaney, 3883 Goodman Circle, Memphis TN 38111, is much more than 60% worth of Tom Foster! artwork

An invaluable introduction to the apas (amateur press associations) is sponsored by Rich Small, 117 So. Meridan #3, Tallahassee FL 32301. Projected quarterly at 3/$1.25, neatly offset is SOUTH OF THE MOON.

Lawrence and Jan Cail became parents on June 25 of a boy nicknamed Eddie.

Wesley Ford Davis, a University of Southern Florida professor, has been unearthed as another regional pro ("Ask and It May be Given", F&SF 10/71). This, from Michael Armstrong who's moving to New College in Sarasota and promises fanzine and fanac from New Coll Box 50, Box 1958, Sarasota 33578

Before departing the south (sounds like a regular exodus) Joe Siclari published Unterhelios III. 75¢ to 4304 Richmond Avenue, Staten Island NY 10312.

The new area apa, POP ARTS AMATEUR PRESS ASSOCIATION under the auspices of Joe Moudry, P.O. Box 1205, Tuscaloosa AL 35401 had its first mailing just before DSC. There is room for fruitful contributors in the area of Pop Arts.

The pocketbookzine, TABEBUIAN, emanates yet (and still) from Dave and Mardee Sue Jenrette, Box 330374-Grove, Miami FL 33133 for 15 for $3. One of the least predictable and thoroughly delightful zines going.

Sam Long, Box 4946, Patrick AFB FL 32925 has published QWERTYUIOP 7 with an international flavor, which is not surprising since it travels from an international apa, OMPA.

RETREADS:

Inasmuch as 1974-75 memberships are up and the supply of SFC Bulletin 11's which updated some aspects of the SFC Handbook is nonexistent and has been since many membership renewals, it is necessary to repeat some of the updating which occurred earlier.

Fred Eichelman, 545 Howard Drive, Salem VA heads a new sf group in the Roanoke VA area, The Nelson Bond SF Society, and pubs a newsletter, "Jinnia Clan Journal".

Kelly and Polly Freas, Rt. 4, Box 4056A, Virginia Beach VA 23457 have another poster set in print. A real beauty! These are BIG, 12" x 19" superbly reproduced in full color at $3 each or $4.50 autographed...the set of six is $11.95 or $16.95 autographed. They are: CITY MACHINE (DAW #24) showing a girl fetching water from a hole cut in the ice, looking at the city machine her people have deserted; SINS OF THE FATHERS (Analog 11/73) presents the alien Pied Piper persuading Earthmen to follow; HERO (Analog 6/72) is a new concept of space travel using a black hole for the jump; BRIDLE FOR PEGASUS (Analog 7/73) is the story of a folksinger whose wild talent for stimulating the emotions of the crowd threatens the whole culture; THE BODELIAN WAY (DAW #86) presents Margil, a romantic and lovely blue cat alien; and THE SECOND KIND OF LONELINESS (An. 12/72) shows the space craft operator controlling a vortex which whips the interstellar vessel through a spacewarp - he looks as if he is floating free in a colorful cosmos. All are extremely lovely.

Unseen but advertised is SYZYGY from Simon Jester Publications, 3558 College Sta., Fredericksburg VA 22401. 32 pages of art, sf&f for $1.75.

D. Peter Ogden, 8001 Fernview Lane, Tampa FL 33615 publishes ERBIANA with subs of 4 for $2 and back issues 75¢ each if ordered with a sub; otherwise, $1. He had last March 25-32 available and sent us 33&34, a large combo issue, neatly offset, 32 pages full of material on Burroughs Tarzan, artwork, movie photos and an analysis of the daily Tarzan strip 12 1929-72.

Also of ERB interest is ERBDOM from "Caz" now returned to his native Louisiana from Colorado. He also deals in many things beyond ERB and may be contacted at Rt.2, Box 119, Clinton LA 7 70722.

The Riverside Quarterly (latest issue Vol.6, No. 1, 60¢) is $2 for 4 issues and for a $6 sub you get a special Lovecraft symposium pamphlet. Editor Leland Sapiro is present located at Box 14451, University Sta., Gainesville FL 32604. This is a offset professionally done pub.

Richard Garrison, fan pubber of note, has brought his operation south as we announced earlier (but not in time for the handbook). HERITAGE, PO BOX 721, Forest Park, GA 30050 has numerous pubs and posters and is working on the Vaughn Bode' index.

We also note LAUGHING OSIRIS from George Wagner, PO Box 3, Fort Thomas KY 41075. Weird fiction, poems, an interview with Robert Bloch, article on Ace books. 75¢ or 6/$4.

Microspopium #4 from Sandra Dodd, Rt.1, Box 399, Charlotte Court House VA 23923, 40¢ or the usual or 6/$2 featured "Poe and the Monsters from the Id" by Quentin Vest, review of Questar Tapes and a profile of a Texas fm artist.

VERTIGO 23 (a 35¢ 8-page newsletter of the Carolina Fan Federation, from Edwin L. Murray, 2540 Chaepl Hill Road, Durham NC 27611) was to publicize the Oct. 6 mini-con there and to describe the 80-member con held in July. Other items of interest was a new address for fanpubber GARY GROTH (2000 Huntington Av, Box 515, Alexandria VA 22303) and announcement of Gary's newest pub WORD BALLOONS ($1.50) featuring a number of interviews and transcribed speeches and panels. He is also reported to be planning another Metro Con, a comics oriented gathering. On Aug.11, David Liebke (address unknown) sponsored a minicon at the Executive Motor Inn in Richmond VA. Neopro Dave Drake from Chapel Hill NC has stories in the October ANALOG ("Contact") and the novelette "Under the Hammer" is cover story for the Oct. GALAXY. He also has one coming in P&SF. Good show there!! Karl Wagner's Kane novel BLOODSTONE is forthcoming in the Warner Paperback Library, with a Frazetta cover even.

Also from Vertigo but under the heading of club news is this invitation for people in the Raleigh NC area to write Eric Larsen, 4012 Colby Drive, Raleigh NC with money for the newsletter of the Raleigh club, the Nameless Order of R'lyah

.....
A quite interesting personalzine (ditto'd) is SOITGOZE from Tim C. Marion, 614-72nd St. Newport News VA 23605. #10 has Tim's personal views of the Discon II convention.
