LATEST ADDRESS ROSTER ENCLOSED

You may recall that this is not a proper Bulletin but only a newsletter required to be sent to the dues-paid and dues-exempt members of SFC. But the Constitution requires corrected roster to be available at the DeepSouthCon. We'll be treated to a regular supplemental Bulletin 16 this Fall. Now, the address roster doesn't reflect the Nashville con listing or May listing in FOSFAX of Kentucky members.

BULLETIN 15.5
(June 1976)

KUDLA KHAN CLAVE THE FOUR (June 4-6, 1976)

Yes, Ken Moore and the Nashville Club did it again with their pro-filled, art-rich gathering attended by about 175 at the Rodeway Inn near Opryland in Nashville. Some unfortunate incidents cast a cloud on Ken's ability to stage a fifth (or Khwint) in the same admirable facility, which I'm sure we all regret.

Young Frankenstein, zap guns, Sandra Miesel's slide show and one by Kelly Freas as well as Freas originals, Alex Eisenstein's collection, John Schoenherr originals provided delight to the visually oriented. Jack Chalker auctioned the planet Saturn umpteen times. The usual packed writers and artist panels were enjoyed. A strange masquerade took place. We heard from Ron Miller on art, Darlene Wolfe on ecology, and Donald Wollheim on DAW. Master of Ceremonies was Andrew J. Offutt (of course - bound for D-Con the next weekend)

P.L. Caruthers started a little shtick which John Neal and Pat James among others took to readily; since we sold numbess of the SFC emblems, we could form the SFC Military Forces, a faanish answer to the Dorsai - lest we be suspected of regionalism, lets eschew the confederate gray and use blue denims; we can plot at DSC what to do at worldcon besides the obvious bivouac (a party in our room)

OTHER CONS PAST

Cyrcon '76 in Rome Georgia Feb. 13-15 was a much smaller gathering featuring Michael Bishop and Jerry Page (Keith Laumer did not stay long for some reason) as guest pros. Rich & Ginger Garrison revealed plans for a Thomas Burnett Swann book (his last, as he passed away May 5). My Ernie Kovacs and Dr. Strangelove prints were shown. Barry Hunter finally met Ralph Wollstonecraft Hedge and other frivolity took place. We hope that the Florida travellers who were expecting something quite the else (as they say in Pogoland) will give southern fandom a try again in the form of DSC XIV in Atlanta. The trivia contest featured half the convention actives and was fun.

Southofthe-Lunacon was held April 9-10 at the Friersons house in Birmingham as an autographing party for Weird Tales author E. Hoffman Price whose anthology "Far Lands, Other Days" was published by the southern fantasy house, Carcosa in N.C. (address in past Bulls, price $15). Fans from outside the area attended; there were heart games, huxtering by me, Penny's bnquet, Frank Love's slide show of cons past, a one-shot which hardly anyone has seen -well, it was really a genuine minicon.

We missed ARTKANE in Wilmington NC and DURHAM MINICON the umpteenth in Durham NC.

BEFORE THE NEXT BULLETIN COMES TO YOU: here are the cons to come.

Rivercon II, July 30-Aug. 1, Stouffer's Inn in Louisville $5 in advance, $10 at door featuring Goh Poul Anderson, Fan Goh Jodie Offutt, and M/O Kelly Freas, full programming (including masquerade and riverboat ride) - banquet was $8.

RiverCon, POB 3251, Louisville KY 40203
DeepSouthCon XIV, Aug. 27-29, Admiral Ben Bow Inn I-235 outside Atlanta $7 in advance, $8.50 at door featuring L. Sprague deCamp as Goh and Manly Wade Wellman as toastmaster. Mail to Binker Hughes, 5331 Hillside Dr., Doraville GA 30340.

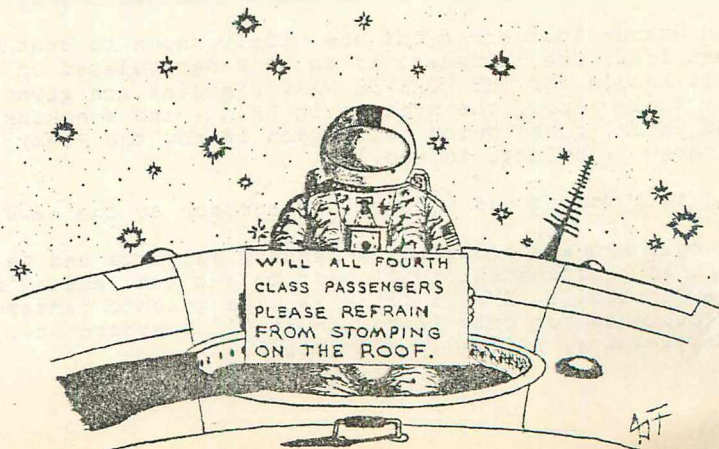

SFC business meeting will take place at DSC - find ballot enclosed whether or not you attend.

Also, the DSC on Sunday morning August 29 by in person vote only will choose the site of the 15th Deep South Con next August. Candidates are John Ellis for West Palm Beach and Penny Frierson and Wade Gilbreath for Birmingham (BHAMACON '77).

And, lest you forget, there's the 34th WORLD SCIENCE FICTION CONVENTION with Robert Heinlein coming up this Labor Day weekend in Kansas City but if you haven't paid by now, you have to be rich to afford it.

BISHOP FOR THE HUGO; NORTON
FOR THE GANDALF

SFC supports a Hugo for native writer Michael Bishop whose amazing short story "Rogue Tomato" is nominated for the Hugo for 1975. MidAmerican membe should remember to vote for it. Also our Florida novelist Andre Norton has been nominated for the Grand Master of Fantasy award for 1975, on the basis of her lifetime product.

STAR TREK DEVELOPMENTS

Birmingham has a regular ST club and is starting a mail order business. Contact Steve Ashlee, POB 9713, Birmingham AL 35215. They had a recent open house at the Cabana Motel on June 26 and plan another at Western Hills Mall in the near future. (Steve's phone is 853-3054).

Regional ST news is available from Star Trek Sector; Jacksonville, POB 5741, Jax FL 32207 for a stamp.

The last I heard Vul-Con III is still on for August 20-22, 1976 in New Orleans ($7.50 to POB 8087, MoLa 70182) But since they programmed for 1600 last year and got 900 and lost a bundle, there is a cut-off date of August 1 for budgeting or cancellation.

The Master, Kelly Freas, has taken on the Enterprise crew in a set of 7 big beautiful prints on 12 1/2 x 19 heavy textured museum quality paper. The originals are in the NASA Museum in Washington but will be on display at various conventions like Vul-Con where Kelly is expected. They are $9.95 a set or $1.50 each for Kirk, Spock, McCoy, Scott, Uhura, Sulu and Chekov (plus $1 if less than 7 total are ordered). Autographed by Kelly, they are $3 each or $19.95 per set (VA residents enclose 4% more).
→ RT. 4, Box 4056A, Virginia Beach VA 23457 ←

Checking out Karass 21 (3/$1 from Linda Bushyager, 1614 Evans Av, Prospect Park PA 19076 - excellent for fannish news), I find Washington DC slated for a ST Expo, July 9-11 for $13 from POB 3127, Falls Church VA 22043 (Scotty, Uhura and Sulu attending), and Norfolk VA ST Con, August 6-8 with guests advertised as Nichols, Dickson, Freas and Winston. $5 to Box 4187, South Station, Arlington VA 22204.

Finally, I see Orlando slated for a ST & other type con on December 10-12 with Andre Norton, Larry Niven, Jurt Mahr. $10 to Box 475, Boca Raton FL 33432 (but like I said back there a ways - Bulletin 16 to 1977 paid members - hint - will bring all area news up to date in a logical (?) fashion.)

A RAMBLING APPROACH TO RECENT NEWS

Galaxy (and fan) artist, Preff, and Amy Sefton were married in late May and stopped by here in June on their way to Enterprise, AL (a fannish desert). They will probably be in Calif before I can get a CoA.

I am the OE of SAPS and sense, as the deadline of July 15 approaches, that the apa, one of the oldest, needs revitalization. $2 and 6 pages will get you poised for entry, if not actually in. Next deadline is October 15. 3705 Woodvale Rd, B'ham AL 35223.

T.B. Swann who died of cancer at the age of 47 in May is the subject of a very good memorial by Bob Boehm of Louisville in LOCUS #189 (50c to POB 3933, San Francisco CA 94119). He was a true southerner.

An untrue southerner but one widely known to southern fans, Joe Haldeman, is to be congratulated on his Nebula for THE FOREVER WAR. (Nebulas are given by their peers, the writess in SF/A - and speaking of which, guess which native son is now the Proxy: andrew j. offutt, indeed.)

(I told you it was a rambling approach to the news)

People who are croggled by fantasy subjects and detailed craftsmanship will want to get Ron Beasley's new portfolio PEN., a slick 44 page graphic fantasy experience for only $2 to Ron at 117 Dearborn St., Hattiesburg, MS 39401. 500 copies.

The battle of the book reviews continues - Future Retrospective from Cliff & Susan Biggers has been quoted by DAW and is highly recommended from 631 Olive St., Cedartown Ga 30125. While SF Booklog continues in tabloid format, 50c the copy, from Rt. 3, Box 42, Union MS 39365. (issue for May-June had 12 reviewers and 66 books).

Gunnery Sgt. Paul Berglund, 1210 Incheon St., Tarawa Terrace, N.C. 28543 writes that he is compiling a collection of Cthulhu Mythos fiction by Walter De Bill for Stellar Z productions in Florida. He is also associate editor for their EPL memorial He edited for DAW "Disciples of Cthulhu" expected in October - 9 stories of 110,000 words.

SVC Books, formerly of Savannah, have moved to 355 Kennedy Drive, Putnam, CT 06260 where they continue to put out a list of reasonably priced books and magazines.

Ned Brooks, 713 Paul St., Newport News VA continues his quarterly review of his mailbox as It Comes in the Mails available for The Usual (one presumes).

Phil Hawkins, 244 White Pine Drive, Asheville NC 28805 who donated our stationary logo seen at the top of this newsletter wrote to ask about the local conventions at which he wants to display his fine artwork (I saw some at Kubla Khan Clave and was impressed).

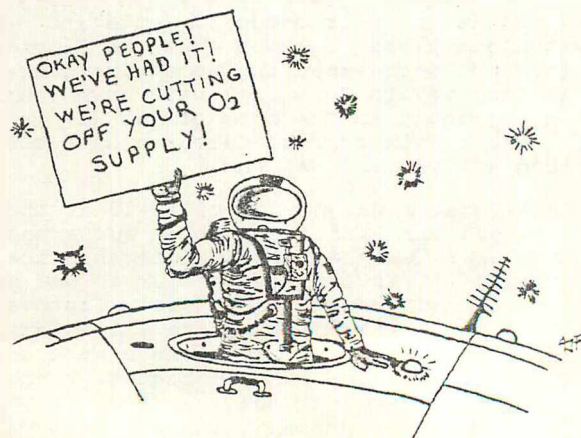

There seems to be an unusual club formed in Memphis for the purpose of studying Holmes and Lovecraft: the Reluctant Scholars, c/o David Irvin, 6797 Satinwood Cove, Memphis TN 38138. They plan a fanzine (but call it a mimeographed journal).

As part of our good neighbor policy, I must again plug the western borders where lurks the Dallas SF Society and its excellent newsletter, TALES FROM TEXAS. Glancing at May's issue I see a letter from Phil Farmer subscribing ($3.00 to 2515 Perkins St., Fort Worth TX 76103) and describing his 3rd River-world novel as (final title) The Magic Labyrinth.

And cute Jackye Freas became Mrs. Lawrence D. Horman on June 12, 1976. Kelly says they're starting on the long road for his MD. Good luck to you!

Lest you miss out on the much-more-than-a-clubzine, Shadow of the Monolith, editor Eric Larsen has migrated again back to 4012 Colby Drive, Raleigh NC 27609. 35c or trades only (they do good revus).

South of the Moon from Tim Marion, 614 72nd St., Newport News, VA 23605 collects information on the ever-changing apa scene (and comes in for the expected criticism on such an undertaking). It may still be available for the usual.

Thanks to Gary Fowler, Sumiton, AL

BUSINESS PORTION

Perry Chapdelaine writes that his second novel (written about 4 years ago) called "The Laughing Terran" has been sold to a hardback publisher in England for library distribution. And Stanislaw Lem requested Perry's 1/2 million word novel "Hot Buttered Soul" be submitted to his Polish publisher for possible translation.

For the fantasy fan, there is Whispers #8, which just missed the last Bulletin - $1.75 or 4/$6.50 from Stuart Schiff, 5508 Dodge Drive, Fayetteville NC 28303. Material by Dave Drake, Avram Davidson, Ramsey Campbell, good graphics. Excellent job.

A nicer-than-usual publication from gaffiated fan, Allen H. Greenfield of Atlanta, is Saucers and Saucerers, "the stranger than fiction story of the UFOs and those who chase them". $1.00 from the noted ufologist at POB 98214, Briarcliff Branch, Atlanta GA 30329.

The editor/publishers of Tabebuian, Mardee & Dave Jenrette (12/$3 or the unusual to POB 330374 Miami FL 33133) came up with a new product on Feb. 13 (well, new to them) named Coral Adriana Jenrette. Hi, there, cutie.

Speaking of which, what Louisville fan is such a civil war buff he would call his first-born, CSA. Yep, Craig Stuart Amos, son of Cliff & Vary, debuted at KSC at the tender age of two months (e'en as Eric Sean Frierson had done at DSC '73 in MoLa.). He was the best-behaved of any of us.

Don Wood writes from Statesboro GA that Ga. Southern College is having sf meetings in lieu of an sf course under Dr. Robert Nelson in the Dept of Chemistry.

Karl Wagner wrote that he'd be driving the Wellmans down to the Atlanta DSC in August and traveling with them over to London (for beer and publishers).

Nightshade 2 from Ken Amos, 7005 Bedford Lane, Louisville KY 40222 is available for $1, trade or published loc. Contains a tribute to Adele Jergens and a poem bbt Swann (both - and my "b" key is messing up on me). Articles by another KY fans.

Moondust One from Bob Roehm (75c or the usual) features Andy Offutt's remarks at Rivercon, a short story by Swann, and the language of DUNE by Ross Payne with Gaughan sketches from DUNE MESSIAH.

A thick, slick 75 page "newsletter" called The Communicator was $1 from FIT Society for SF & Fantasy, Campus Box 5597, FIT, Melbourne FL 32901 and reprinted my SFC introduction, plus coverage of DSC '74, author interviews, fiction, ST, Apes, a whole lot. Next ish this summer should be worth having.

New address for the U of Ga SF Appreciation Society is POB 2084 - GU Sta., Athens GA 30602 - their pub was Aphelion bbut I don't have a recent issue.

Nashville's long-awaited publishing continues with Alter-natives 3 from Dave Shockley, 149 Evergreen Circle, Hendersonville TN37075 as a show case for a great group of Khondors (that is, Nashfans).

FINALLY, convention-wise, you may not have heard that the 35th World Science Fiction Convention, SunCon, has changed locations to The Fontainebleau, Miami Beach FL with GOR Jack Williamson, Fan GOR Robert Madle and Toastmaster Robert Silverberg. September 2-5, 1977 $10 prior to this September 30 to attend. Mail, to Suncon, POB 3427, Cherry Hill NJ 08034 (this is not a southern convention but it is close to some).

If you are receiving this Bulletin 15.5, it is because you were dues-paid or dues-exempt through August 1976. Bulletin 15 carried a list through 1-22-76. The following have been added since -
In Absentia: Jim Corrick, Ben Miller

The following letter from Ben W. Miller leads us to a point for discussion via the ballot as well as in the meeting at DSC 14:

The Washington Science Fiction Association (WSFA) meets on the 1st, 3rd and 5th Fridays of members homes. First Fridays are usually at the Gillilands (4030 8th St. So., Arlington VA 22204) (703-920-6087) and 3rds at Bill Berg (2131 Keating St., Hillcrest Heights MD 20031) (301-894-8048).

Since WSFA meets every month in VA, is it considered a Southern club for the purposes of By-law 1 (Advisory Council)? WSFA does have more than 10 members

To give my own views, the 10-state south was originally designated by fanac, isolation from other clubs, etc. But there are enough people asking questions about the usefulness of spending postage on Northern Virginia (who are within the WSFA-Balticon-Philly complex after all) and about the exclusion of Texas and more particularly Arkansas, that I think it is time for decisions. Check your ballots and show up at the business meeting in Atlanta August 29 (where after discussion you can get your ballot back and vote differently).

Some people who find their name under deletions think that I have lost track of them. If I have an address for anyone I list for you to delete on Roster 6, it is either on September 1975 Supplement or this Supplement. OK? Similarly, a deletion from the September 1975 supplement might be merely a change of address listed below.

BALLOT & SUCH

for SFC Business Meeting, Sunday morn (gasp!)
August 29, 1976 at Admiral Benbow Inn
Doraville, GA.

Item One:

No candidates having come forth for SFC President, the incumbent stands for a fifth term (1970-71 only Acting President with half a Constitution, you oldsters may recall). Write-ins accepted.

Meade Frierson III _____ ()

Other: _____ ()

Item Two:

No candidates having come forth for Secretary of the SFC, the incumbent stands for a second term.

Binker Hughes ()

Item Three:

Inasmuch as the Constitution is basically unamendable (see §6 and By-law 3), addition or deletion of territories served may be made by additional by-laws (note in Section 3 that Pres. is also Suprme Court and so rules):

Proposed by-law 6 (supported by Inzer and Amos).

The services of SFC shall be extended to fans in the state of Arkansas.

Approved () Rejected ()

Item Four:

The question of the Northern Virginia area considered a suburb of Washington was called into question at Chattacon and is also dealt with by letter of Ben Miller reproduced in part in the newsletter . Proposed By-law 7 is in the alternative:

- () 7. Services of SFC will be suspended to areas close to Washington, D.C. (in the judgment of the editor) but exchange of information with WSFA will continue
- () 7. WSFA shall be considered within the SFC service area and may appoint a member of the Advisory Council.

Item Five. The letterhead looks bare and I'd like some additional offices created:

Official_SFC_Photographer: () Frank Love
() Gary Steele
() Other: _____

Official_SFC_Artist: Nominate One: _____

Official_SFC_Mixologist: () P.L. Caruthers
() Other: _____

Item Six. I'm asking each club officer to designate its representative on the Advisory Council. Matters to be considered in Atlanta and by correspondence include the incorporation of SFC as a non-profit exempt organization to which tax deductible dues and donations could be paid.
