

SOUTHERN FANDOM CONFEDERATION BULLETIN 23.5 (Summer 1980)

Published for the S.F.C. by Meade Frierson III, PO Box 9032, Birmingham, Alabama - this summer/election newsletter is available only to the dues-paid or dues-exempt members, together with new Revised Roster #9, located in 12 southern states (and outposts everywhere).

At ASFICON, the 1980 DeepSouthCon to be held in Atlanta on August 22-24, 1980 there will be (probably Sunday morn) the usual SFC business meeting, but since not all eligible voters may attend the Constitution provides for mail ballots to vote on the ~~bigging issues~~ of ~~big~~ ~~big~~ matters to be submitted to membership vote at the meeting. See the business section and send in your votes (and renewal for August 1981 at $2 per, if you haven't already done so) to the PC Box above.

The Big News is that we are slaving away at a brand spanking new Southern Fandom Confederation Handbook which we hope will premiere at Asficon (as the previous incarnation did at Bhamcon in 1977)

Since in the Handbook information will be superorganized and up-to-date, please forgive a note of rushed informality about the contents of these pages. Material arriving since Bulletin 23 went to press in March is being slung together over Independence Weekend - almost all this info (and much much more) will appear in about 6 more weeks in more organized fashion in case you didn't read through this jumble of words and retain certain key stuff. Onward....

THE SUMMER OF '80 MAILBAG

VUL-CON VII (PO Box 3087) is set for the Airport Hilton Hotel in Kenner, LA August 3-10 with Kerry Quinn, NASA presentations, masquerade, films - all familiar trappings for those who have attended this series of conventions in New Orleans run by Jim Mule. $10 before July 21, $15 after (also day rates).

The Nashville Club is supposed to be putting out a club directory after its July 3 meeting (too late for Roster #9).

HJMR Books, Box 6638, Hollywood FL 33021 has a new 28-page catalog of listings of out-of-print sf available by mailorder.

Southern cons - the hectic con-season is well underway, from small gatherings of 43 (ABCcon in Birmingham, AL April 12) to the largest Kubla ever - over 500 attended Kubla Khanate on May 2 in Nashville where Stephen King and Boris Vallejo were the entertaining guests and Meade Frierson III was presented with another needlepoint SFC map for the back of his con suit. Ken Moore vows to leave the Quality Inn, which may be the best news ever!! Jim Madden reports that Coastcon had the promised guests Hank Reinhardt, Piglet Effinger, Jo Clayton, and C.J. Cherryh, 24 hour film program and a mostly-comics huckster room. Mike Bledsoe will chair the 1981 Coastcon in mid-March. // MidSouthcon and Mysticon, both new this year, transpired without us (alas) and its too early for reports. Forthcoming events before the next issue (October 1980 -except for the Handbook) were announced last time - Rivercon 7, Aug. 1-3; ASFICON August 22-24; JustImaginitzacon Sept. 26-28; and Roavacon 5 October 10-11. Others which have been announced will be found in random order below. Read on!

NEWS, News, news - No longer into hyperactive characteristic of the zine-pubbing, con-running, club-making pursuits he followed in the decade now ending, Irvin Koch still manages the occasional issue of MAYBE (#56 in hand) with certain tidbits: Julia Wilhoit and Ken Scott wed on April 28. Congrats. Daniel Taylor of 550 Boulevard S.E., Atlanta GA 30312 puts out an unofficial newsletter of Southeastern S.C.A. Regina Rapier, Rt.1, Box 292, Social Circle GA 30279, he says, does publications like a fan but as if fandom had never existed. (Sounds like something about why S.F.C. was created 11 years ago this August)

SF and Mystery book shoppers might want to get The Left Hand of Darkness Catalogue #3 from Jan Landau, Rt.7, Box 429 #4-A, Roanoke VA 24018. Includes vintage paperbacks.

Panazine #5 from Robert Teague, 1900 Clay Av., Panama City FL 32405 contains a continuation of Jon Pryors story, Bob's cartoon and a review of Atlanta Comics and Fantasy Fair. He sends the newsletter for Nova Odysseus club, called Transmissions, from new club address of PO Box 1534, P.O. FL 32401.

Jim Swanger runs Fandom General in Birmingham (PO Box 2052, Bham AL 35201).

S.A.M. (the Tuscaloosa club) has a new PO Box 51, University AL 35480 and sent the SFC Archives a complete print run of pubs to date: The Illustrated Fan #1-3 and newsletters Asi-Achim #1-5. There's science fact and fiction in these pages from a group with enthusiasm - I mean, who would try to illustrate how to do the Time Warp?

The HUGO nominees barely have any relation to SFC-land this time. There is a fanzine Thrust whose pubber has a northern Virginia address

The first 1981 con firms up plans - Chattacon 6 is slated for January 16-18 at the Downtown Sheraton with CoH Jack L. Chalker, MC Forrest J. Ackerman and guests includes Bob Tucker, Sharon Webb, Grant Carrington and Jerry Pate. $7 from Coon, PO Box 21173, CHAT TN 37421

CHAT for May 1980 (3/$1 from Dick & Nicki Lynch, 4207 Davis Lane, CHAT TN 37416) contains a great ST gag drawn by Charlie Williams (of KNX TN) and an excellent Kubla Khanate review by the ever-prolific Guy H. Lillian III (the guy you watch carefully after you've seen Nicholson in THE SHINING). The CHAT club is meeting for the summer in the First Tennessee Bank - details from Mike Rogers, (266-0298).

Anvil #10 is edited by Jim Gilpatrick of the Birmingham SF Club (PO Box 57031, BHM AL 35259 - 6/$2). #11 contains: Sanity Fails and All Ghods Chillun Gets Worldcon Fever. Yum! Many con reps.

The Bluegrass SF Association got underway in February according to FosFax #41 (12/$3 from PO Box 2251, Louisville KY 40208) - contacts in Lexington KY are Dori Isaacs (606-273-2359) or ex-Louisvillians John and Lynn Harris (606-744-1413).

Baryon 18 (Barry Hunter, 3 Wakefield Place, Rome GA 30161-4/$5) reviews books, gets letters. Looks like 3 issues this year instead of 4.

UpperSouthClave XI ($5 to Box U-122, College Hts Sta., Bowling Green KY 42101) will be another relaxicon at Red Carpet Inn March 13-15, 1981 featuring Ken and Lou Moore as guests with the banquet function being a Moore Mashing led by Cliff Amos.

ATARANTES (12/$3.50 from Cliff Biggers, 6045 Summit Wood Dr. Kennesaw GA 30144) continues to provide a wealth of fan and pro news.. Among recent features, ASFiCo Brad Linaweaver story, The Competitor, appeared in a spring issue of Fantastic. R.A. Lafferty will attend ASFiCon.

24 people gathered in May for a mini-con in Baton Rouge and talk is that something like Atlanta-Birmingham-Chattanooga might get going between Baton Rouge-Biloxi-New Orleans.

Paul Harwitz (4805 Sepulveda Blvd #5, Sherman Oaks CA 91403, ex-NC) writes for a new slick pub, MYSTERY, and recommends subs at $10 for 6 to PO Box 26251, L.A. CA 90026). He'd like to hear from southern fan visiting in LA.

The News continues...as is its wont

The Newsic goes on and on...and it comes out here:

The Alliance (PO Box 1865, Panama City FL 32401) has decided to hold Fan-Con I at the Ramada Inn on March 6, 1981

FCSFAX #2 brings news that Andrew Offutt, Kentucky's patron SF author, has just completed KING DRAGON, his first sf in five years. It will appear as an Ace trade paperback in late 1980 or early next year. His trilogy of the War of the Gods on Earth from Berkaley is almost finished.

Copies of the original 3-volume mimeo'd edition of A WEALTH OF FABLE by Harry Warner, Jr. is still available for $10 from Joe Siclari, 4599 N.W. 5th Avenue, Boca Raton FL 33431.

FCSFAX #3 reports Louisville fan Phyllis Karr just had her first novel, a historical romance published by Fawcett in April, and that John and Lynn Harris just had their first child, a boy, on April 9.

Brenda Callahan (Rt.1, Box 433, Lot 8, Anniston AL 36201) writes that the Feds, organized August, 1978, number 15 with 8 corresponding members and are basically Star Trek fans without being a ST club. Club projects have been Indian artifact hunting, mummy restoration and trick-or-treating. They work with other small clubs on the Radiant Star Awards each summer to recognize accomplishments in artwork, fiction, costumes, publications, etc.

S.A.M. sez: new officers are Jerry McKnight, tyrant; John Hedstrom, vice-tyrant; Debbie Burden, royal embezzler; Chanda Fehler, royal scribe; and Fred Helf, program director. The Illustrated Fan #4 will be out Real Soon Now.

The address of Hugo nominee THRUST is 11919 Barrell Cooper Ct, Rstn VA 22091. 6 for $9.

DRUID CON I presented by S.A.M. will be on October 11, 1980 from 9 am to 9 p.m. in Ferguson Center on the UA campus in Tuscaloosa AL. One past con had 140 locals attend, the flyer mentions.

Jerry Alexander, 7311 McCormack Dr., CHAT TN 37443 publs Lettered Observations & Cosmic Comments or LCCCS for $1 or the Usual. Articles, reviews, an Edmond Hamilton bibliography in #2.

Perry A. Chapdelaine, Sr., Rt.4, Box 127, Franklin TN 37064 is looking for an honest apprentice printer(s) who are dedicated to printing, typesetting and publishing and can suffer through the growing pains of AC Projects, Inc. The equipment is in place - the canvassing for future business is the need.

INNERREALM is the P.C. fanzine which started out as a project of the Nova Odysseus club and will continue in future issues as a project of The Alliance. Emphasis is on ST and media-s.f. $3.00 plus $1 postage from editor Marion Russ, 901 School Avenue, P.O. FL 32401. 44 pages, mimeo'd with heavy covers.

Alabama SF Assoc Newsletter contains some really nice fantasy art by Robert Mack Hester, mentioned in its pages as having artwork in the Comics Journal #55 and #56. $1 or more donations are sought from Alabama fans at ASFA, Rt.3, Box 298, Phil Campbell AL 35581.

Jan Landau and George C. Nale (whose book catalog was mentioned earlier) tell of this project - We plan several high quality, limited edition pamphlets printed on very fine paper, hand-sewn binding, etc. Reprints of early uncollected stories, bibliographic material, and possibly some original material we commission for publication. George works as a printer for a living so our publications ought to reflect his experience in that field. Aimed at the collector-s market.

Charlotte Proctor, Box 6352-A, Birmingham AL 35217 continues to publish - with Garry Spagle, 1120 Princeton Av, BHM AL 35211, The Iron Baron as a publication of The Barony of Iron Mountain. Less sf creeps in than before.

Nicki Lynch runs the second oldest sf apa, SAPS - its 132nd mailing is July 15. Publishing southern fans are encouraged to join as there is plenty of room. Backmailings 108-130 are available for postage plus 50¢ or some agreed upon sum if Nicki can deliver them (see CHAT address above)

FAN PLUS flyers which went out with Bulletin 23 were a bit unfortunate in their timing - within weeks Dave Pettus found he was unable to continue the project. #1 is available for $2 but future issues are in doubt. No subs needed, please.

THE BATON ROUGE SF LEAGUE NEWSLETTER continues from PO Box 18610-A, University Sta., B.R. LA 70893 with Sheila Strickland and Jim Madden at the helm. The temporary tyrant reportedly stepped down from his post, however. SFC should be so lucky...

H. Shelton Drum has been running the Charlotte (NC) mini-con for comics fans and has a new comic book shop called Heroes Arent Hard to Find (good name!). In Birmingham AL Steve Pennington has opened such a shop but unfortunately it is hard to find (my notes on where right now).

MidSouth Fantasy Association (Memphis TN) has new officers Lillian Weatherall, Chairbeing; Paul Houston, vice-cb; Frank Jordan, Treasurer; Sec-Berp (of Mempish) Greg Bridges; and Sgt-at-Arms Randall Pass.

Knoxville fandom fell back and regrouped once more, according to CHAT 31 - Charlie Williams emerged as Grand Wizard with Vernon Clark as Vice and Claudia Peck as collector and typist of the future newsletter. Charlie may be contacted at East Tennessee Comics on Hemberg St. (better address on Roster #9).

Nicki and Dick Lynch will work at Noreascon on the Fan Room. CHAT, their pub, also tells of Sharon Webbs latest sale to Galileo, a story named Threshold. 114 logged into Uppersouthclave 10, Bowling Green-s first con, and a good one by all accounts.

Be on the lookout for Suncatcher a new genzine from the South with Dick Lynch as editor and Wade Gilbreath and Cliff Biggers responsible on behalf of their parts of A-B-C for their own parts of the book. No details have arrived here yet.

Allen Greenfield, back in Atlanta, is publishing Waiting in the Wings and Ufology Notebook Newsletter.

Also in Atlanta is the sixth annual Comics and Fantasy Fair at the Dunfee Hotel, July 25-27 with Robert Bloch, Dave Cockrum, Jack Davis, Gil Kane, Kenneth Smith and Al Williamson. They expect around 2000, says chairwoman Marilyn White.

Charles Wirstrom, 9429 Citrus Lane, River Ridge LA 70123 gave us quite a scare the other day when he sent something purporting to be the rebirth of George, the infamous New Orleans apa; however, the near-wholesale desertion of that fair town by ded-red-toed southern fried fandom makes it unlikely such outré behaviour is very likely.

Coppole House Books, Road-s End, Lakemont GA 30552 sent a catalog showing that they are heavily into graphics these days. This is the press that various fans have been editing for over this past decade. One offering is Craig Russell-s Night Music, 2 comics stories bound on book paper for $4.95 plus $1.25 postage and handling. The other is a reprint of Manhunter, 88 pages on book paper, for $8.50 plus $1.25 postage and handling.

Edwin Murray announces that Vertigo #43 this summer and Durham Minicon on September 14, 1980 will mark the end of an era and go into history with fond memories. He says, there is always a chance that we will have an occasional one in the future but after 1980 we will no longer be having them on a regular schedule. Vertigo #42 is responsible for the next several items and we hope that Ed may be persuaded to let us have news of his area for the semi-annual Bulletins ??

Karl Edward Wagner is the subject of a long detailed bibliography available for $1 from Joe Marek, 2405-1/2 So. 13th, Omaha NE 68108) - a shorter version will appear in Silver Bel #2.

Doubleday has published The Old Gods Waken, a new John the Balladeer novel by Manly Wade Wellman. Dell has recently reprinted Who Fears the Devil? by Wellman with Tim Kirk illos.

No reports received from Southern Con which was to be held in Nashville, according to a report from Janice Sidwell, PO Box 40937, Nashville TN 37204, as a new ST convention.

Freeworld Associates (c/o Curtis Phillips, Rt.7, Box 248-A, Abingdon VA 24210) is holding a sf/ST convention in Abingdon VA next summer to be called Fancon 81 (where have we heard...?).

Rome Fandom plans to hold Vati-Con on November 29. CHAT #33 reported the newly organized club is staffed by Chris Radney, Pres; Deb Hammer-Johnson, Vice, and Iris Brown, Secy-Treas. Details should be in the next Bulletin in October.

Cosmic Con 80 had been announced for June 28-29, 1980 at the Read House Hotel in CHAT TN. If these are held in future, you could contact David Wright, 702 Highview Dr, CHAT TN 37415).

The Knoxville SF Federation, KSSF (pronounced Kiss-off) is the name chosen by the Knoxville club mentioned before at its second meeting on May 31.

Astracon I was to have been held June 21 in Abingdon VA with Paul Dellingen speaking on breaking into SF and Fred Eichelman with an ST slide program. Good films were announced as well.

In June the Birmingham morning paper carried the story that Batman would marry Catwoman with Ben Kenobi presiding. As soon as I saw the dateline was Fincastle VA, I thought of Rick Knobloch and so it was - his marriage to Mary Anne Castleman set for August 23, 1980.

The Baton Rouge SF League has a summer program alternating every other week between meeting at the main library and having an open house with founder Jim Madden.

Stellarcon VI will take place February 27-March 1, 1981 on the University of NC at Greensboro campus with SCA participation, D&D, Costume contest, etc. Contact is David Allen, Box 4-SVC# UNC-G, Greensboro NC 27412.

ETERNITY SF #2 has appeared at $1.75 the copy or subs of 4/$6 from PO Box 510, Clemson SC 29631 with a Greg Benford interview columns of Offutt, Zelazny, Ed Bryant and others and fiction by Orson Scott Card, Janet Fox, Grant Carrington among others.

Little Rock AR fans are encouraged to contact Margaret Middleton with regard to meetings every other Tuesday at a church. Phone for more guidance. 501-562-0938.

Future Retrospective is expected out anytime now from Cliff Biggers, 6045 Summit Wood Dr, Kennesaw GA 30144. #18 will review about 50 sf/fantasy books, for $1, subs of 4/$3 or the usual, 35 pages.

Well, glancing over the stack, that would appear to be it - there is more historical material provided for clubs and such which will appear in the SFC 1980 HANDBOOK shortly.

AND NOW DOWN TO BUSINESS...

SFC Emblems - those sew-on jobbies which debuted in 1976 and sold for $2 have finally sold out (except for a special horie in the Frierson household - for presentation and special purposes). The real problem is the degree of interest in a second addition - just as it came to Fosfax's printing bill, inflation has touched ~~the~~ ^{the} city Weaverville NC where these cunning devices are wrought by a southern computerized loom for the staggering price of a minimum run of 220 for $352.00 plus shipping. My bank doesn't exactly urge me to stay in hock for $360+ until I can manage to move the same number it took 4 years to peddle.

Finances:

New patrons this time - Jim Gilpatrick of Birmingham and Jim Swanger of Birmingham!

The following are the only people who are dues paid to next August, 1981 and therefore entitled to get SFC HANDBOOK and Roster update hot off the press. Anyone getting this and the Roster is already dues paid (or exempt) through this August 1980 but you gotta be listed below to be sure of getting everything as a member. Remember: new rate $2.00 to MFII.

Remember that publishers, con chair and club heads can earn their exempt status by doing something between August 1980-August 1981 - apologies for the rush job if any were omitted from this first listing for 1980-81 and there'll be Bulletins 24 (October 1980), 25 (March 1981) and 25.5 (June 31) to make up for omissions.

Please turn over for the burning issues of this upcoming election.

SUNDAY AUGUST 24, 1980 at the Northlake Hilton Hotel in Atlanta Georgia a vote will be taken upon the following SFC offices - if you wish to cast an absentee ballot by reason of having received this publication, you may send a letter or postcard to me, Meade Frierson, PO Box 9032, Birmingham, Alabama indicating your position on the following matters to be raised at the meeting.

Official Elections:

Meade Frierson III - running unopposed - President
Susan Biggers - running unopposed - Secretary

For Vice President, three candidates have qualified by having sufficient nominating votes:

P.L. Caruthers, Memphis TN

Cliff Biggers, Atlanta GA

Larry Mason, Atlanta GA

Unofficial Elections:

Who wants a recount on the less than enthusiastic induction of Oklahoma into the SFC territory?

Why shouldn't SFC exempt status be given to the following - here is my position - is there support for it?
Everybody I can reach gets the March and October Bulletins on a random basis unless they are a dues-paid or dues-exempt member - the roster of names and addresses and, this time, the Handbooks are limited to them, along with the newsletter like this one constitutionally required before the business meeting at the DeepSouthCon.

CON CHAIRS - by working harder by far than anyone does for $2, these people earn the right to be kept in touch and have mailing lists for their conventions. But lots of others work on cons, unsung heroes all.

APA EDITORS - a service to fandom at large even with a small in-group is a service by giving us more to talk about - it is a tough job.

ZINE PUBLISHERS - provide SFC with copies of their zine and get more recognition but also give us something to talk about
PROFESSIONAL WRITERS - particularly we want to reach those who circulate at cons in the area, participate in panels, add that fan-pro dimension so unique to our field. I don't know if more than a handful ever read these but I think fans would like pros to know of their activities
PROFESSIONAL EDITORS - we only have a few of these here

/ so in sum I don't think that those accorded dues-exempt status are being placed in any undeservedly privileged status - the S.F.C. has worked for the last ten years ~~was~~ on the assumption that it was a service organization, a discoverer of lonely people who didn't even know they were fans, sharing ideas of activities even with well-established fans. It was never, and cannot be ever with me in it, a subscription zine whereby you pay $2 or you don't get the material. People pay dues and contribute on that assumption and I think most will affirm that is its proper role. Let's hear what you think...

(I will append further that many listed as dues-exempt pay anyway - the most notable and regular example being patron Joe Green, a constantly-contributing pro)

What should be the function of the Vice President? - The notion arose at DeepSouthCon 79 in New Orleans which mundane prevented me from attending. It was pointed out that a Vice President could preside over any gatherings where I was absent and likewise would serve as a representative of SFC at cons (whether or not any others on the staff were there).

EDITORIAL FROM FAN PLUS #2

The Convention fever - A Grumps Viewpoint

I ambled blythely through my first 20+ conventions in the South as a mere attendee (sometimes n/c or GoH) without thinking much about the con committees problems, hotel attitudes or financial loss that someone might bear - in short, without considering all the negatives of being actively associated with the running of a convention. In assisting Perry, Wade and Frank with the Birmingham DSC in 1977, I became aware of the other side of things and my views on the subject have been colored, badly, ever since. I simply cannot enjoy a con which is suffering problems. Let's get down to cases. The committee (often, just one person responsible with helpers) must be told, as in one of my favorite late-60s cartoon shows, You knew the job was dangerous when you took it, Fred. Fred, our hypothetical con-giver, can represent any number of cons of the last decade, trying to give a first southern con. Fred wants a good con in his city and often this desire colors his thinking about the financial aspects of hosting a con. Because he's springing for a really classy con (i.e. GoH, films, beverages for the con suite, etc) he must have X number attending to break even. Tragedy strikes when he gets half-X and this can happen for any number of reasons, some of which are not his fault - weather, gas rationing, too many often cons to go to - but there are other reasons he should have known about, and should have reduced his expectations. Fred is a fan, however, not a budgetary expert - yes, indeed and all the more likely to get clobbered first time at bat (or mousetrapped by his overconfidence in surviving one, at a later time). If advance registrations only dribble in, Fred begins to panic which ultimately leads to another tragedy - not realizing he may get enough at the door memberships, Fred cuts back on supplies, features, films. Then Fred faces complaints about shortages at the con. Another popular form of panic reaction is to resort to local advertising, bringing fringefans and juveniles into a con where many times they do not mix well with the so-called regulars. Newcomers don't see much happening and can get unhappy and prankish and the regular family finds itself too diluted by strangers. Another reaction to impending financial disaster can be the sympathy ploy - attend the banquet, bid at auction, even pass the hat. My reaction to all this is quite cold - you knew the job, etc.

But (perhaps luckily?) my attitude is not typical of the us-against-them ghetto attitude of fandom, which is never in so much evidence as it is with Freds real nemesis-The Hotel. We supposedly live in a nation of laws but on convention weekends there is only one law, the law of Hotel Management. Fred may have dealt with hotel staff for months, with all being sweetness-and-light but presto! on the con weekend no one Fred ever saw before is on hand. These strangers running Freds hotel are manifesting typical mundane attitudes toward all us weirdos who prowl the hotel all night instead of staying in our rooms, etc etc. The law (they say) is that no one (on duty or off) has bargained away the rights of other guests to sleep undisturbed after some reasonable hour and the law is what is enforced by the people on duty, hotel security and local cops. The hotel can claim the right to lock rooms not fully paid for in advance; they can demand cash for banquet in advance; they can demand cash for facilities when insufficient rooms have been rented. The Hotels remedies are immediate and Fred's letter contract is at best a lawsuit later, maybe. They can get away with doing just about anything they want on account of any unruly types in a large group or any financial risk they think they are running. // Fred may hear that mundane groups are more destructive and problem-making to hotels than are fans - hotel people may tell Fred this when he arranges his next con. But almost any group you can think of buys more food in their over-priced restaurants, more drinks in their bar and in the daytime has a more presentable appearance to the public. Hotel's adverse reactions can be immediate or delayed (J Kublas and J Rivercons at the same location before the ax fell). // Hotels are unable to reduce problems in obvious ways - Fred (and all like him) asked for block-booking. No way. They make last minute changes like the Sheraton-Biltmore in Atlanta denied the 1974 DSC the big ballroom and shoved us into the basement or Stouffer's wouldn't rent the huge con suite the third time up. // Hotel horror stories are on the rise - they are getting worse and more Freds are heading for a clobbering. It is getting to be time to take Freds off the hook the best way that any of us can - other than talking him out of yet another untried con. That way is to make the mundanes think better of us - try not to provoke them into closing parties, or the con itself.

This is a much reduced version of the article I had written with more rhetoric and examples but I've said enough of the subject. More than some people want to hear, I'm sure.

SOUTHERN FANDOM CONFEDERATION ROSTER #9

(June 1980)

Southern Fandom Confederation (PO Box 9032, Birmingham, AL 35213) presents to its dues-paid and dues-exempt members this latest revision to the roster of names and addresses of 1000 science fiction and fantasy fans in the 11-state SFC region.

Certain designations appear after some names indicating a primary interest as follows: apa - primary contact with fandom is through amateur press associations; com - primary interest in comics; con - conventions; art - is an artist, fan or pro; pro - has recent professional sales in the area of sf/f; SCA - primary interest is in creative anachronism; ST - primarily interested in Star Trek; writes - reportedly willing to write LCCs, reviews, articles for fanzines; pubs - publishes one or more fanzines, could be editor of an apa also; Meade Frierson III, PO Box 9032, Birmingham, AL 35213 maintains the card file and would appreciate any corrections, deletions, additions that anyone out there can send him, especially so that the new 1980 Handbooks will not be sent to bad addresses.
