

THE SPELEO BEM 2 1/2

SAPS 46

JANUARY 1959

The Primary Purpose: to include a copy of "The Green Hills Of Earth" in this mailing. But since I consider it a waste to have blank pages, I have some more nonsense for the back page, and Manyoya will take over the rest of this page.

THE CHARGE OF THE ANTI-ROCK BRIGADE

There is nothing so revolting, as it seems to me,
Than the putrid, ~~stinking~~ pestilence cacophony
Of a mangy, moaning moron who appears to be Doing jumbled-up ~~gyrations~~ elegiacly.

He appears to be afflicted with St. Vitus Dance;
Or he may perhaps be suffering from ants-in-pants.
But by some strange sort of subterfuge, the guy implants
Admiration in teenagers -- are they still infants?

And he screams and he hollers about lots of things;
When it comes to ineptilities, his words are kings.
Pure drivel and inanities his ranting brings.
(Under NO conditions will I ever say he "sings"!)

--- Ed Manyoya (reprinted from ALDEBARAN 1, a
Carbon-Reproduced Amateur Press Publication)

mf

The arch-ing sky is calling space-men back to their trade. All HANDS! Stand by! Free falling! And the lights be-low us fade. Out ride the sons of Ter-ra, far drives the thun-d'ring jet, up leaps th' race of Earth-men, 'out, far, and onward yet... We pray for one last Words by Robert A. Heinlein, from the title story of "The Green Hills of Earth," Shasta, 1951. Used by permission.

(Copyright 1947, 1951 by Robert A. Heinlein)

land-ing on the globe that gave us birth; let us rest our eyes on fleec-y skies and the cool, green hills of earth.

p We rot in the molds of Venus, we retch at her taint-ed breath. Foul are mp her flood-ed jun-gles, crawling with un-clean death. We've tried each spin-

f ning space-mote, and reck-oned its true worth - Take us back again to the

Have you noticed that so many science fiction stories deal with the ultimate? How a large number of titles advertise that the story is about The Last Such-and-such? Well, maybe you haven't noticed -- so herewith we present:

BOOBLIOGRAPHY #1 -- "The Last +++++"

Last	Leiber	F&SF	3/57
The Last Adam and Eve	Ross	Weird	11/47
Last Blast	Russell	Astounding	11/52
The Last Brave Invader	Foutenay	If	8/57
Last Call For Doomsday	Tenneshaw	Imagination	12/56
Last Call From Sector 9G	Brackett	Planet	Sum/55
The Last Canticle	Miller	F&SF	2/57
The Last Caper	Beaumont	F&SF	3/54
The Last Chance	De Mille	SF Stories	1/56
The Last Chord	Stanley	Amazing	7/56
The Last Conqueror	Klass	If	4/54
Last Days of Thronas	Bloodstone	Science Stories	2/54
The Last Enemy	Peters	Imaginative Tales	11/56
Last Enemy	Piper	Astounding	8/50
The Last Generation?	de Ford	F&SF	Win-Spr/50
The Last Gentleman	Magill	If	1/53
The Last Killer	Garrett	Imaginative Tales	5/57
The Last Magician	Elliot	F&SF	1/53
The Last Man Left in the Bar	Kornbluth	Infinity	10/57
The Last Martian	Brown	Galaxy	10/50
The Last Men	Long	Astounding	8/34
Last Minute	Caravan	Other Worlds	10/52
Last Night of Summer	Coppel	Orbit	#4
The Last of the Spode	Smith	F&SF	6/53
The Last Objective	Barter	Astounding	8/46
The Last Plunge	Sackett	Imagination	10/55
The Last Present	Stanton	F&SF	8/56
The Last Prophet	Clingerman	F&SF	8/55
The Last Quarry	Walton	Fantastic Universe	1/56
The Last Question	Asimov	SF Quarterly	11/56
Last Rites	Beaumont	If	10/55
The Last Seance	Christie	F&SF	4/51
Last Ship Out	Williams	Imaginative Tales	1/57
The Last Spaceship	Leinster	Galaxy Novel	#25
Last Stand	Budrys	SF Stories	5/55
The Last Supper	Hamm	If	9/52
The Last Thousand Miles	McLaughlin	Astounding	2/56
The Last Trump	Asimov	Fantastic Universe	6/55
The Last Two Ships	Samuels	Universe	5/54
The Last Vegan	McKenzie	Astounding	4/57
The Last Victory	Godwin	If	8/57
The Last Word	Knight	Satellite	2/57
The Last Word	Oliver and Beaumont	F&SF	4/55

This list has no claim whatsoever to completeness -- it's just to show the over-ness of "The Last This-or-That." Not that it will make any difference. Anyway, if you're very lucky, this will be The Last Boobliography. But I doubt that your luck will run that long.

BRING BERRY TO DETROIT!!!!

WASHINGTON IN 1960!!

SEATTLE IN 1961!!

1. m

homes of men and the cool green hills of earth.